AWARD

This is an application under section 33A, Industrial Disputes Act, by Shri Dayaram Singh, an employee of the Company O.P., Bombay Steel Roolling Mills Ltd., complaining of wrongful alteration of the terms and conditions of his service in contravention of the relevant provisions of section 33, Industrial Disputes Act, during the pendency of the adjudication proceedings of another dispute between the Company and its workmen, referred to this Tribunal by G.O. No. 3537-I.R., dated the 6th August 1962.

The Company appeared in response to the notice issued by the Tribunal and filed its written statement against the workman's petition.

After necessary preliminary proceedings and some adjournments, the case was finally fixed for hearing on the 22nd May1965. On that date, the parties filed a joint petition stating that the dispute had been settled out of court and so, praying for a "no dispute" award. I have heard the representatives of the parties and considered the joint application. The application is signed by the authorised representatives of both the parties, Shri A. L. Roy, General Secretary, Paharpur Steel Rolling Mills & Engineering Workers' Union, for the workman and Shri G. D. Aggarwal, Deputy Works Manager of the Company for the Company.

I have considered the terms of compromise. These appear to be quite lawful and fair. I am further satisfied after hearing the representatives of the parties that there has been a bona fide settlement of the present dispute between the parties and after the settlement, there is no dispute subsisting.

In the result, I accept the joint petition of compromise and dispose of the case by a "no dispute" award. A copy of the joint petition is made a part of the award as an Annexure.

Shri S. K. RAY, Judge, Seventh Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union .. Shri D. L. Sen Gupta, Advocate.

For the Company .. Shri S. K. Mullick of Messrs. Sandersons and Morgans, Solicitors.

AWARD

The above dispute over the issue given in the order of reference and reproduced below was referred for adjudication to this Tribunal by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 931-I.R./IR/9L-6/64, dated the 2nd March 1964.

Issue

Whether the dismissal of Shri Joseph Lakra is justified ? To what relief, if any, is he entitled ?

The concerned Union filed a very vague and sketchy written statement wherein it challenged the dismissal of the concerned workmen as illegal and vindictive and against the spirit of the industrial truce sponsored by the Government without stating any material fact connected with the impugned dismissal. The written statement concluded with the statement that the concerned workman was an honest man and he was innocent and it was a got-up case made by the Manager.

The Company, however, filed, its written statement raising a preliminary objection on the ground that it was not an industrial dispute because the concerned Union did not represent the majority or a substantial portion of the workmen of this Company and then stating in details the facts leading to and connected with the dismissal. The Company also alleged that the written statement filed on behalf of the concerned workman was vague and/or embarrassing and/or lacking in material particulars and did not disclose any cause of action against the Company.

The relevant facts leading to and connected with the dismissal of the concerned workman as narrated in the written statement are briefly as follows : This workman, Joseph Lakra, was employed as a Pitcher Spout Pump Attendant in Newra Nuddy Tea Estate of this Company. For some time prior to his dismissal, the management of the tea estate had reason to believe that this workman had been disposing of Company's property, especially G. I. pipes, for his personal gain. On the morning of 24th April, 1964, the Manager of the tea estate got some information that some Company's property was concealed in the backyard of this workman's house. On the same afternoon, the Manager accompanied by some other workmen, inspected the backyard of this workman's house and found that a length of pipe had been kept concealed there. The workman could not give any satisfactory explanation for the existence of the said pipe, which was the Company's property, in such a position. Thereafter, the workman was served with a charge-sheet. The charge against him was being in possession of one 18° length of 1½" G. I. pipe which he had drawn from the Estate Store in 1961 for use in a Nowera Line Pump, but which he did not use for that purpose. The workman submitted his written explanation regarding the charge. Thereafter, a domestic enquiry regarding the charge against the workman was held on 29th April 1964 by Shri A. C. Banerjee, the Manager of another Estate of this Company. This workman attended the enquiry proceedings and was given every opportunity to defend himself by calling witnesses on his own behalf and cross-examining the Company's witnesses. The enquiry was adjourned on two occasions to enable this workman to call his witnesses. After the enquiry, the enquiry officer found this workman guilty of theft or dishonesty in connection with the employer's business or property under section 13 (c) (ii) of the Standng Orders applicable to the Estate and recommended his dismissal. Thereafter, the Manager gave this workman an opportunity to make any representation to him (the Manager) through any official of any registered Trade Union to which he might belong. This opportunity was given in accordance with section 13 (g) of the Standing Orders. The workman availed himself of this opportunity and an official of the Rastriya Cha Mazdoor Congress made some representation on behalf of the workman before the Manager. The Manager having considered all relevant circumstances decided to dismiss the workman from his service and accordingly he was dismissed with effect from 10th May 1964, by a letter signed by the Manager, who was the only competent authority for such punishment under the Standing Orders. The dismissal was not illegal or vindictive and it was fully justified.

At the time of arguments, the representative of the Company, Shri S. K. Mullick, Solicitor, did not press the preliminary objection against the maintainability of the present reference on the ground of non-existence of any industrial dispute for the reason that the concerned Union did not represent the majority or a substantial portion of the workmen of this Company. Shri K. T. Chacko, the Organising Secretary of the concerned Union. Rastriya Cha Mazdoor Congress testified that about 40 per cent. of the workmen of this Garden were fully subscribing members of thier Union and there were also other workers who were members but not fully subscribing. He also testified that on 28th May, 1963, the dismissal of this workman was an item for consideration at a meeting of the Union held in this Garden and this meeting was attended by about 700 persons, most of whom were workmen of the Garden, and it was decided with the consent of all the attending workmen that the Union should take up the matter of dismissal of this workman and accordingly, the Union referred the matter to the local A. L. C., who took it up for conciliation which, however, proved fruitless. There is no reason to disbelieve this testimony of the Organising Secretary and Shri Mullick also fairly submitted that he did not propose to challenge the aforesaid testimony of the Organising Secretary. It is also pertinent to note in this connection that there is not an iota of evidence from the Company's side in support of the contention that this Union does not represent the majority or a substantial portion of the workmen of this Company. There is even no denial by any of the witnesses on the Company's side to the effect that this Union is not competent to represent the workmen of this Garden and to raise any industrial dispute regarding the dismissal of the concernred workman. In view of all the aforesaid facts and circumstances, I reject the preliminary objection raised on behalf of the Company.

I now come to the merits of the case.

The following facts have been proved practically by the ex-parte evidence on the Company's side both oral and documentary. The workman was charge-sheeted on 25th April 1963 (Ext. A). The charge in the charge-sheet was as follows :

> "(1) On 24th April 1963, at Nowera Nuddy Tea Estate, you were found to be in possession of one 18' length of 1 1/2', G. I. pipe which you had drawn from the Estate Store in 1961 for use in a Nowera Line Pump but you did not use it for that purpose."

The workman submitted his reply to the charge-sheet (Ext. B). Then a domestic enquiry regarding the charge-sheet was held by one Shri A. C. Banerjee, the Manager of another Tea Estate of this Company, on 29th April 1963, in presence of the workman and he signed the recorded enquiry proceedings. Ext. 3 is the recorded enquiry proceedings. After the enquiry, the enquiring officer submitted his report with findings. Ext. D is the report. Thereafter, the Manager gave this workman an opportunity to make any representation to him before he passed final orders in the case and this opportunity was given in accordance with section 13 (g) of the Standing Orders applicable to this Company. Ext. E is the letter to the workman giving him this opportunity. An official of the concerned Union made some representation regarding the case to the Manager and after hearing this representative, the Manager decided to dismiss the workman and recorded an endorsement to that effect in the enquiry report [Ext D (1)]. Thereafter, the workman was dismissed by the Company's letter, dated 10th May 1963. The Manager of the Tea Estate, O. P. W 1 Shri G. B. Abel, has testified to the above facts and he is supported by the exhibited documents recorded above. The workman himself did not appear to give evidence before the Tribunal. The only witness examined on behalf of the workman was the Organising Secretary of the concerned Union, Shri K T. Chacko, whose evidence was mainly confined to proving the representative character of the Union so as to make the dispute sponsored by it an industrial dispute. He did not speak a word in denial of the above facts. These facts were not also challenged at the time of arguments. The learned Advocate appearing for the workman practically accepted the above facts, but contended that the enquiry was absolutely unfair and against the principles of natural justice, because the enquiry proceedings show that the enquiry officer examined the charge-sheeted workman at length regarding his explanation to the charge-sheet before any witness for the Company was examined. According to the learned Advocate, this procedure vitiated the whole enquiry proceedings, because the workman was asked to put forward his explanation before he knew what evidence was there against him. In support of this contention he relied upon the Supreme Court decisions in the cases reported in L. L. J. 1963 (11) at pages 392 and 396. On a perusal of the enquiry proceedings, I find that really the concerned workman was asked to give "a more relevant verbal explanation for the enquiry * * * as the written explanation was not very clear. After this, the workman made a pretty long statement by way of explanation, which was recorded and then the witnesses for the Company were examined. It is clear that the enquiry officer started the enquiry by asking for a detailed explanation from the workman without first taking the Company's evidence regarding the charge and letting the workman know what evidence was there against him. This procedure has been clearly condemned in the two cases referred to above. It has been concurrently laid down in these two cases that one of the essential and basic elements of a fair and just domestic enquiry according to the principles of natural justice is that the charge-sheeted workman should not be subjected to a close examination in support of his explanation before the Company produces its evidence in support of the charge and the workman knows the evidence. The basic principle is that a charge-sheeted workman should not be asked to disclose and embark on his defence before he knows what the evidence is against him so that it may be possible for him to properly and suitably defend himself against the charge. In view of this position, I must reject the enquiry proceedings as not just and fair and in accordance with the principles of natural justice. Necessarily, the findings of the E. O must also be rejected as not tenable and acceptable. Here, I should state that another objection raised by the learned Advocate for the workman is that there was practically no report by the E. O., because the purported report, Ext. D. does not bear his signature. Really, the report does not bear the signature of the enquiry officer. But, on that ground alone, I cannot reject the report as absolutely non-existent when it has been formally proved by the General Manager to be the report of the enquiry officer. He has identified the report as the one submitted by the E. O. containing his findings. So, I reject this technical objection against the enquiry report. But, in view of my findings that the enquiry proceedings were not fair and just and in accordance with the principles of natural justice, the report itself has no value and so, it cannot be considered against the workman. The result of the above findings is that the dismissal of the workman in so far as it is based upon the purported domestic enquiry and the report of the E. O. cannot be sustained.

But, this will not mean the end of the whole case. It is well settled that where the dismissal of an workman is based upon a charge-sheet and a domestic enquiry but the enquiry proceedings and the report cannot be accepted, the issue of dismissal is at large and open before the Tribunal to which the dispute over the dismissal has been referred for adjudication and the Tribunal should go independently into the merits of the dismissal upon the evidence produced before it and decide whether the dismissal was justified. Accordingly, I would now consider this aspect of the case.

I have already referred to the precise charge against this workman. The evidence is that he was a Pump Mistri in this Tea Estate and his duty was to lay and fix up pipe lines in the Tea Estate when necessary and for this purpose, he used to get pipes from the store on requisitions signed by some clerical and medical staff. O. P. W. 1 Shri Abel, the Manager of this Tea Estate, has proved that on getting some information he went to this workman's house on the afternoon of 24th April 1963 and found one 18' length of 1 1/2" G. I. pipe kept in the backyard of his house, and he removed the pipe and on his asking how the workman had the pipe there, the workman stated that he had it there since 1961. The Manager was subjected to a long cross-examination. In the cross-examination, the fact of recovery of the pipe from the backyard of this workman's house was nowhere challenged, but it was suggested that this workman found this pipe on the street and took it to his house for the purpose of depositing in the store. The Manager denied the suggestion. As already stated above, the workman himself did not appear to give evidence and deny the fact of the charge against him. There is no reason why I should not accept the Manager's evidence and hold thereon that really the pipe in question was found in the backyard of this workman's house and the workman admitted before the Manager that he had it there since 1961. There is no dispute over the fact that the pipe was the Company's property. The Manager has also proved that in spite of this workman having this pipe in his possession since 1961, he got similar pipes in 1962 and 1963 for use on Company's work. Ext. H is a list of pipes drawn by this workman in 1962 and 1963, prepared by the Manager from the requisition forms. Considering the entire evidence and circumstances, I hold that it has been proved that this workman, who was a pump attendant, somehow got hold of the pipe in question which was the Company's property and meant for Company's work but did not use it for work of the Company and kept it concealed in the backyard of his house for about two years and this was detected on 24th April 1963 when the Manager on getting some information went to his house and recovered the pipe. The workman was not certainly entitled to keep in his possession a Company's property for such a length of time without using it on some Company's work and practically no explanation has been offered before me about his unauthorised possession of this Company 's property for such a lenght of time. It can quite safely and reasonbly be held from the facts proved that such possession of the pipe by the workman was not consistent with honesty dealing with Company's property and it clearly indicated and implied dishonesty. It is true of course that he did not dispose of the pipe but continued to keep it in his possession. But such unauthorised possession may be taken to clearly imply a dishonest intension. Under section 13 (ii) of the Standing Orders (Ext. G), dishonesty in connection with the employer's business or property is a misconduct for which a workman may be dismissed. In my view, the facts proved have clearly made out such a misconduct on the part of this workman in relation to the pipe which was recovered from the backyard of his house on 24th April 1963. The Company was, therefore, fully entitled to dismiss him for such a misconduct. Upon the materials placed before me, I am unable to find that the Company acted mala fide in the matter of this workman. There is no evidence to show that the Manager had any previous grudge or animus against this workman for any reason. It is of course in evidence that the Store Clerk O. P. W. 2 Shri Jagadish Chandra Chanda, previously brought a criminal case against this workman and the case was ultimately compromised. It was suggested that out of this grudge, this store clerk engineered this case against this workman. O. P. W. 2 Shri Jagadish Chandra Chanda clearly denied that there was any strained relations between him and this workman after the criminal case. I am unable to believe that simply because of the previous criminal case started by the store-keeper against this workman which was ultimately compromised, this workman was falsely charge-sheeted and dismissed. I find, therefore, that there were no mala fides on the part of the Company in the matter of the dismissal of this workman. In this view of the merits of the case I hold that the dismissal of the workman was justified'

In the result, I award that the dismissal of the workman was justified and he is not entitled to any relief.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. K. B. Jethi and Co., 65 Benaras Road, Howrah, and their workmen represented by the Howrah Small Factories Workers, Union, C/o Shri Anadi Das, M.L.A., Dasnagar, Howrah. (Case No. VIII-18/65.)

BEFORE THE SIXTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

AWARD

The Government of West Bengal, by Order No. 211-I R./IR/10L-176(B)/64, dated the 16th January 1965, had referred to this Tribunal the industial dispute between Messrs. K. B. Jethi & Co., and their workmen represented by the Howrah Small Factories Workers' Union for adjudication.

Issues

1. Whether the termination of service of Shri Biswanath Bose is justified? To what relief, if any is he entitled?

2. Whether refusal of employment to Sarvasri Pulin Behari Paul, Ratan Chandra Paul, Banamali Paul, Gopal Chandra Patra and Biswanath Das is justified? To what relief, if any are they entitled?

After the service of the usual notice, the employer had filed a written statement. But though time was thrice granted to the workmen, no written statement was put in on behalf of the workmen. In the written statement put in on behalf of the employer it has been alleged that the dispute is an individual dispute and not an industrial dispute in terms of the provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act, that the Howrah Small Factories Workers' Union is not a trade Union of the establishment of the Company and is not the representative body of the workmen of the Company and therefore has no locus standi to represent the workmen, and that the order of reference is not maintainable in law. With regard to Shri Biswanath Bose, it has been alleged on behalf of the Company that Shri Bose was appointed as a temporary basis on 20th May 1946, that Shri Bose has been very irregular in his attendance and on account of, his attendance normal working of the establishment had suffered a great deal, and that at times Shri Bose had absented himself without intimation and or sanction of leave. Between the period from June 1963 to May 1964 Shri Bose had absented himself without any intimation or sanction of leave on varying dates for more than two months. The Company, therefore, had served chargesheet, dated the 4th April 1964, on Shri Bose, but no reply to the chargesheet was given. Another chargesheet, dated 17th April 1964, was issued to Shri Bose, but again he did not reply to the same. Thereafter on the 24th April 1964 the Company by another letter which was sent by registered post intimated that Shri Bose was not regular in his attendance, though he was a temporary worker. By the letter, dated 24th April 1964, it was also intimated that the service of Shri Bose would be terminated if he is not regular in attendance and does not do his normal duty. In spite of this notice, dated the 24th April 1964, Shri Bose did not attend his duties since 24th April 1964 and did not also apply for leave and continued to remain absent. The Company therefore presumed that Shri Bose has abandoned his service and by the registered letter, dated the 6th May 1964, which was duly served on Shri Bose had terminated his service. Even after the receipt of this letter, dated the 6th May 1964, Shri Bose did not raise any objection either verbally or in writing. Thereafter the Company had made a new appointment. With regard to the alleged refusal of employment of Sarvasri Pulin Behari Paul, Ratan Chandra Paul, Banamali Paul, Gopal Patra and Biswanath Das, it is stated that excepting Biswanath Das, the other persons had absented from their duties, though the Company hand repeatedly asked them to resume their duties. It is further stated that the Company employs only about nine workmen of which most of the workmen are temporary workers, that at the instigation of certain outsiders the workers had resorted to unjustified strike between 17th February 1964 and 10th March 1964, that at the instance of the Conciliation Officer, the strike was called off and at his instance and for the same of maintenance of industrial peace, the Company paid on 24th March 1964 to each worker at the flat rate of Rs. 12.50 paise for the perid of unjustified strike. Subsequently, the Company had received a letter, dated the 4th April 1964, from the Conciliation Officer enclosing a copy of the charter of demands, dated the 18th February 1964, and the Company sent its comments to the charter of demands by its letter, dated the 20th April 1964. The Company also wrote another letter, dated the 29th April 1964, making the position of the Company quite clear regarding the alleged demands. It is further stated that the four workmen excepting Biswanath Das committed various acts subversive of discipline on 7th May 1964 and 8th May 1964 and had assaulted the other workers as a result of which Shri Biswanath Das, Hemanta Das and Gangadhar Bose had to lodge diary at the police-station. The Company also by its letter, dated the 9th May 1964, had intimated to the Labour Officer, Howrah, about the illegal activities of those four persons. On 7th May 1964 Banamali Paul and Gopal Patra had assembled at the gate of the establishment and when Biswanath Das and Gangadhar Bose came on 7th May 1964, they were threatened with assault and another worker Hemanta Kumar Das was assaulted by those persons when he was away from his duty. Thereafter on 7th May 1964 the Company had written a letter to those four persons asking them to resume their duties. It had also written another letter, dated 13th May 1964, for the same purpose, and a further letter was written to the Labour Officer on 19th May 1964 requesting the Labour Officer to direct those four workers to resume their duties. In spite of this request the four workers did not resume their duties and in the circumstances the Company treated those four wokers as having abandoned their respective services. The Company therefore had intimated by registered post those four workers by the letter, dated 22th May 1964, that the Company accepted the position that those four workmen had abandoned their service. The Company had employed new workers in their place. With regard to Biswanath Das, it is said that he is still working under the Company and there is no dispute.

As I have mentioned earlier the Union on behalf of the workmen had not put in any written statement, though time had been granted. It would appear so far Gopal Patra and Biswanath Das are concerned that they had filed petition on 31st March 1964 stating that they had no dispute with the Company. On 1st June 1965, Shri Sailendra Nath Bose who is a contractor under K. B. Jethi & Co. made an endorsement on the petition stating that Gopal Patra is working under him. So far as Biswanath Das is concerned, he had himself made an endorsement in the petition on 1st June 1965 that he is still working under the Company. So far as Biswanath Bose, Banamali Paul, Pulin Behari Paul and Ratan Chandra Paul are concerned, they had also filed petitions on 1st June 1965 alleging that they had no dispute with the Company. It would appear that Biswanath Bose had been paid Rs. 150 in full and final settlement of all claims against the Company, that Banamali Paul had been paid Rs. 100 in full and final settlement of all claims against the Company, that Pulin Behari Paul had been paid Rs. 100 in full and final settlement of all claims against the Company and that Ratan Chandra Paul had also been paid Rs. 100 in full and final settlement of all claims against the Company. It appears therefore that there is no dispute between the concerned workmen and the Company. The terms of the settlement appear to me to be reasonable, proer and bonafide and should be given effect to. I therefore pass a "no dispute" award making the petitions of the concerned workmen as annexures to this award. This is my award.

Present :

Shri J. N. MANDAL, Judge.

By Order No. 7812-I.R./IR/10L-263/61, dated the 15th December, 1961, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Orient General Industries Ltd., 6 Ghore Bibi Lane, Calcutta-11, and their workmen represented by Orient Fan Mazdoor Union, 139 Narikeldanga Main Road, Calcutta-11, regarding the matter specified in the schedule to the Third Industrial Tribnal, constituted under section 7A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by Notification No. 808-I.R./IR/3A-2/57, dated the 11th March 1957, for adjudication.

Issue

Bonus for the year 1960-61.

The Government of West Bengal made this reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, for adjudication of an industrial dispute between Messrs Orient General Industries Ltd., 6 Ghore Bibi Lane, Calcutta-11 (hereinafter be referred to as the Company), and their workmen represented by Orient Fan Mazdoor Union. 139 Narikeldanga Main Road, Calcutta-11 (hereinafter be referred to as the Union).

As usual, immediately after receipt of the reference notices were issued to both the parties calling upon them to appear and file written statements of their cases which they complied. Subsequently, the Union took several adjournments on the ground of detention of the learned Advocate who was entrusted with the case. Ultimately however, the dispute has been amicably settled on the terms incorporated in a Memorandum of Settlement signed by the learned representatives of the parties on 31st of May 1965. On that very day, both parties have also filed a joint petition before this Tribunal, reporting the settlement and enclosing the Memorandum of Settlement. I have persued the terms of settlement which appear to be fair and reasonable. So the terms of settlement are accepted and an award is made on compromise in terms of the Memorandum of Settlement which, along with the joint petition of the date,do form part of the compromise award as annexures thereto.

Issues

(1) Bonus for the year 1962.

(2) What relief, if any, are the employees entitled to for the lock-out period, i.e., from 19th September 1962 to 19th November 1962 ?

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, made by the Government of West Bengal, for adjudication of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Carl Ohmes & Co. (India) Private Ltd., 28 Waterloo Street, Calcutta-1 (factory at No. 38, Goalpara Road, Dhalipara, Behala, Calcutta-34), hereinafter be referred to as the Company, and their workmen represented by Carl Ohmes Mazdoor Union, 455A Diamond Harbour Road, Calcutta-34, hereinafter be referred to as the Union

In pursuance of notices issued from this Tribunal, both parties appeared and filed their written statements. Subsequently, however, I am glad to mention that the dispute under reference was amicably settled between the parties who filed a joint petition before this Tribunal on 31st of May 1965 praying for accepting the terms of settlement and passing an award on compromise. I have considered the terms of settlement annexed to the joint petition of the parties dated 31st of May 1965. The terms of settlement appear to be fair and reasonable. So I accept the terms and make an award on compromise. The joint petition and the terms of agreement do form part of the compromise award as annexures thereto.

AWARD

By Order No. 5038-I.R./IR/11L-349/63, dated the 11th December 1963, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. B. S. & Co., Nagrakata, P.O. Nagrakata, district Jalpaiguri, and their workmen employed in their Plywood Mill at Nagrakta, represented by (1) Shri Rathindra Kr. Dey, (2) Shri Naren Bhowmick, (3) Shri Mongra Bhagol and (4) Shri Ranjit Ghose, C/o the Rastriya Cha Mazdoor Congress, Jalpaiguri, regarding the matters specified in the schedule, to the Third Industrial Tribunal, constituted under section 7A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by notification No. 808-IR/1R/3A-2/57, dated the 11th March 1957, for adjudication.

Issues

1. Whether transfer of Shri Pulish Singh is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

2. Whether the management was justified in stopping payment to Shri Pulish Singh from 6th April 1963 ? What relief, if any, is Shri Pulish Singh entitled to?

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act by the Government of West Bengal for adjudication of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. B. S. & Co., Nagrakata, district Jalpaiguri, (hereinafter be referred to as the company), and their workmen employed in their Plywood Mill at Nagrakata, represented by (1) Shri Rathindra Kr. Dey, (2) Shri. Naren Bhowmick, (3) Shri Mangra Bhagol and (4) Shri Ranjit Ghose, C/o the Rastriya Cha Mazdoor Congress, Jalpaiguri (hereinafter be referred to as the representatives of the workmen).

Both parties appeared in pursuance of notices issued from this Tribunal and filed their written statements. Subsequently the workman Pulish Singh sent a petition by post to this tribunal which was received on 5th April 1965, reporting that he has already amicably settled the dispute with the employer and he has since tendered resignation which has been accepted by the employer. He has prayed in that petition for a "no dispute" award. In spite of this petition the representatives of the workmen were given an opportunity to report the bona fides or otherwise of the reported settlement. But the representatives failed to appear and did not take any step whatsoever. On the contrary, the learned Advocate appearing for the Company has filed a petition to state that the dispute has already been settled with the workman out of Court and in terms of the settlement the workman has already received payment of Rs. 300 from the Company by granting a stamped receipt. I have perused the stamped receipt and also a copy of the petition by which he has prayed for a "no dispute" award in consideration of his amicable settlement with the employer. Therefore, I am convinced that the dispute under reference is no longer in existence and as such I make a "no dispute" award.

This is my award.

ANNEXURE A

Agreement between The Brahmachari Research Institute (Private) Ltd. (hereinafter to be called as the Company) and the workmen represented by The Brahmachari Research Institute Karmachari Samity (hereinafter to be called as the Union.)

From about the middle of 1962, the Union had been approaching the Management for the revision of grade and scale and D.A. The present grade and scales were fixed up in 1949 and were confirmed by the Industrial Tribunal in 1954 in connection with another dispute The D.A. was also revised in 1960 through an Award of Tribunal. As no settlement could be arrived at, the matter was referred to the Labour Directorate in 1963 and the Company informed the Directorate that it was not possible for them to change the D.A and/or grade and scale.

In September 1963, the Company felt that they were not getting the maximum output from certain departments and the units of production for different departments were too low and could be completed within two to three hours. The Company had been so long paying extra wages for extra units of production in different departments. It was noted that the workers in certain departments were completing two units of work or more within the fixed working hours and were being paid one day's wages for the second units as overtime or extra wages The Company informed the workers verbally that worker is supposed to give maximum production during the fixed working hours and any extra wages paid should be on the actual extra time worked. Certain departments accepted this principle but a few others did not. The Union, however, does not agree to this contention but maintains that the extra earnings in question were due to their extra efforts.

In course of a discussion with the Secretary of the Union over this matter, the Management pointed out that it is willing to increase pay and D A of the workers to a reasonable extent if the working hours are increased from 30½ hours to 42½ hours per week. After prolonged discussion both the parties now agree to the following terms :

1. That the existing working hours will be increased from 30½ hours in a week to 42½ hours in a week and will be distributed as under for the present :

(i) Monday to Friday—9-30 a.m. to 1-30 p.m. and 2 p.m. to 5-30 p.m

(ii) Saturday—9-30 a.m. to 2-30 p.m.

The Management, however, will have the right in consultation with the Union to change the timing of working hours if it is found to be convenient from the point of production; but in no case, it will be more than 42½ hours in a week.

2. Under the new working hours, workmen will give production as per details below per day (7½hours)—

6. Basic wages of all workmen will be fitted in the new scale and grade after giving the workmen concerned their increment, due in May 1965, under the old scale of pay. Thereafter the increase of 20 per cent. will be added to their wage but in no case the wages of any workmen will be fixed under this clause which would exceed the amount which he would have received on point to point adjustment in the present scale according to his years of service. If, however, any workmen's wages thus fixed is found below the exact amount of the stage in which he is placed in new grade and scale, his wages will be pulled up to fit in the same. After fixation of basic wage in this manner, a workman whose service is more than 10 years will get one additional increment as per new grade and scale. In case a workman completes 35 years of service before reaching the maximum and if he is given extension he will enjoy to the benefit of new grade and scale till he is retired.

7. That the existing D.A. will be revised as under—

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. India Jute Co. Ltd. (Cotton Section), Serampore, Hooghly, and their workmen represented by India Jute Cotton Workers' Union, 18 Dharmatala Lane, Serampore, Hooghly. (Case No.203 of 1964)

BEFORE THE FIFTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present :

Shri K. P. MUKHERJEE, Judge, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

Present for the Company : Shri J. K. Ghosh, Advocate of Messrs. Orr. Dignam & Co., Solicitors.

Present for the Union : Shri Patit Paban Pathak, an officer of the Union.

The above industrial dispute was referred to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by Government order No. 3194-I.R./IR/8L-5(D)/64, dated the 25th July 1964, for adjudication upon the following issue :

Issue

Is the refusal of employment to the following workmen from 1st July 1963 justified. What relief, if any, are they entitled to ?

(i) Saraswati, (ii) Sita, (iii) Gangama, (iv) Matialoo, (v) Surekha, (vi) Sabitri, (vii) Tarini Prodhan, (viii) Jokhan Saha, (ix) Siuratana, (x) Nemai Gopal, (xi) Padma, (xii) Hari, (xiii) Rani Roy, (xiv) Subasini and (xv) Bate Ram.

After receipt of the reference from Government, usual notices were issued to the parties and they entered appearance and filed their respective written statements. The case of the Union may shortly be stated as follows :

Messrs. India Jute Company Limited, hereinafter referred to as the Company, is one of the biggest Jute Mills in West Bengal, and it also runs a unit of Cotton Textile Industry known as India Jute Company (Cotton Section), in the same premises and under the same management. There are about 1,250 workmen employed in the Cotton Section, and the workmen mentioned in the schedule to the order of reference worked for more than two years in the Reeling Department of the Cotton Section. They were engaged in work of a permanent nature and, in terms of the standing orders framed under the Cotton Textile Omnibus Award, they are all permanent employees of the Company. The Company, however, without any notice, or assigning any reason refused work to these workmen and some others on and from 1st July 1963. This arbitrary lay off by way of refusal of employment to these emloyees amounted to an unfair labour practice on the part of the Company. The matter was taken up by the Union and conciliation meetings were called, but the Company failed to attend the conciliation meetings, and all attempts to settle the disputes by conciliation failed. It is alleged that there was no reason whatsoever for refusing employment to the workers mentioned in the schedule to the order of reference, and this illegal and unfair act on the part of the Company was actuated by a desire to victimise them. The Union has prayed for an award directing the Company to take back all these workmen to work and also to pay them full compensation for the period of their forced unemployment.

The case of the Company as set forth in the written statement shortly put is as follows :

The Company maintains a Reeling Department which is a purely temporary department in the Cotton Section. The work of the Reeling Section fluctuates considerably. On account of this fluctuation in the volume of work in this department, this department is manned by temporary workers who are given employment by rotation by badlies. The fifteen workers concerned in this case are all temporary workmen as will appear from the relevant registers. They are employed intermittently in the Reeling Department since 1962 as and when their services were required. They were never employed continuously and none of them has completed one year's service continuously under the Company. Some of the workmen were given work after 1st July 1963, and some of them are still working as temporary workmen. It is pleaded that none of the workmen mentioned in the issue to the reference is entitled to any relief claimed by him, and their claim should be rejected.

Decision

Out of the 15 workmen involved in this case, the Union did not press the claim of (1) Tarini Prodhan and (2) Hari as Tarini Prodhan is now in the employment of the Company, and Hari is dead. The case of the Union is that the workmen mentioned in the issue under reference worked for more than two years in the Reeling Department of the Cotton Section, but the Company without assigning any reason refused to give them work on and from 1st July 1963. The Union has examined 2 workmen, P.W. 1 Jokhan Show and P.W. 2 Rani Roy. The evidence of P.W. 1 is that he was appointed on 16th February 1962 and this is also corroborated by the employment history card, Ext. C. P. W. 2 Rani Roy has also stated that she worked in the Reeling Department from 1962 and her service card shows that she was appointed on 1st March 1962. None of these two workmen, on their own evidence, completed two years' service when they were refused employment on 1st July 1963. None of the other workmen has been examined by the Union to prove that he completed more than two years' service at the time of the alleged refusal of employment to him on 1st July 1963. There cannot be any doubt that refusal to give work to these workmen on and from 1st July 1963, as alleged by the Union, must be held unjustified only if it is proved that these workmen are permanent workmen of the Company. If these workmen are on the other hand not permanent, then refusal by the Company to give them work on and from 1st July 1963 cannot be held unjustified. In paragraph 2 of the written statement of the Union it is stated that these workmen were entrusted with work of a permanent nature, and in terms of the standing orders framed under the Cotton Textile Omnibus Award, they are all permanent employees of the Company. This has, however, been denied by the Company in its written statement. The Union wants to say that these workmen were employed in work of a permanent nature, and they are all permanent employees under the Standing Orders of the Company. It is therefore to be seen whether these workmen were employed in work of a permanent nature, and whether they are permanent employees of the Company in terms of the Standing Orders applicable to them. O.P.W. 1, Prafulla Kumar Banerji, the Chief Labour Officer of the Company, has stated that the Reeling Department is a temporary department and is liable to be abolished as soon as the Mill becomes a composite one. This fact is also stated in the written statement of the Company, and in view of the evidence of O.P.W. 1, and in the absence of any evidence on the side of the Union to the contrary, it is to be held that the Reeling Department is a temporary department. The next question to be considered and which is material in this case is whether these workmen are permanent workmen of the Company. P. W. 1 Jokhan Show has admitted in his cross-examination that there was no talk about the nature of his employment when he was employed in the Company. P.W. 2 Rani Roy has also not said that she was a permanent worker in the Company. The evidence of Jokhan Show, P.W.1, is that during the period of his service he worked almost continuously except for a day or two in some months when no work was given to him. He has further admitted that he did not receive any wages when he was absent on leave. P.W. 2 Rani Roy has also admitted that she worked almost continuously except for one or two days in a month when she was given no work. She denied the suggestion that in some months she worked for only seven or eight days during her period of service. These two workers have admitted that some times no work was given to them, and this fact indicates that they fare employed as temporary workmen. The Company has produced the service cards of these workmen which have been marked Ext. C series. There cannot be any doubt about the genuineness of these documents, and it appears from these documents that P.Ws. 1 and 2 as also other workers in this case were temporary workers, and they were employed intermittently. The service records of these workmen show that they are temporary workmen and not permanent workmen of the Company, as they allege. The Company has produced the attendance registers for June 1963 (Exts. F and F-1) and in these registers these workmen have been shown as temporay workers. The Company has also produced the register of temporary and badli workers for 1964 (Ext. D), and this register shows that some of the workmen involved in this case were given work after July 1963, and also the number of days they worked. P.W. 1 Jokhan Show has admitted that he was employed for 2 months in October/November 1963 and this fact also goes to indicate that he was a temporary workman and was given work intermittently. The Union has mainly relied on the certified Standing Orders of the Company to prove that these workmen are permanent workmen. A permanent workman as defined in Appendix-8 to the Cotton Textile Award, published in the Calcutta Gazette, Extraordinary, on June 10, 1958, is a workman who has been engaged on a permanent basis and includes ....etc. According to the Standing Orders applicable in the present case, a workman can be treated as a permanent workman only if he has been engaged on a permanent basis. Thus, what is material to determine the status of a workman in this case is the nature of his appointment. There is much dispute about the number of days these workmen worked in a calendar year. But this fact is not material as a workman who is employed continuously for 240 days in a calendar year gets some benefits in the shape of Provident Fund, retrenchment compensation, leave, etc., but he does not automatically become a permanent workman. In the instant case the service records of these workmen show that they were employed intermittently, and there is no evidence to show that their appointments were made on a permanent basis. It is therefore difficult to accept the contention of the Union that these workmen are permanent workmen under the Standing Orders of the Company. I accordingly hold on a consideration of the materials on record that these workmen were not permanent workmen of the Company, but were temporary workmen who were given work intermittently. As these workmen have been proved to be temporary workmen, refusal to employ them on 1st July 1963 and subsequently, does not appear to be unjustified, and it cannot be said that the Company was actuated by any motive to victimise them. In the result, the workmen involved in this case are not entitled to any of the relieves prayed for.

This is my award.

In the matter of an Industrial dispute between Messrs. Jessop & Co. Ltd., Central Labour Bureau, Dum Dum, Calcutta-28, and their workmen represented by Jessop Mazdoor Union, 8 Rishi Bankim Chandra Road, Dum Dum, Calcutta-28. (Case No. 162/1964.)

Shri K. P. MUKHERJEE, Judge, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

Present for the Company : Shri J. N. Chatterjee, Deputy Labour Adviser, Indian Engineering Association.

Present for the Union : Shri Ram Sen, Secretary of the Federation of Metal Engineering Workers' Union.

This industrial dispute between Messrs. Jessop & Co. Ltd., and their workmen was referred to this Tribunal under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by Government Order No. 2168-I.R./IR/10L-18(A)/63, dated the 12th June 1964, for adjudication upon the following issue :

Issue

Whether the fixation of basic pay of Shri Ramesh Chandra Banerji after his promotion to the post of an Assistant Supervisor is justified ? To what relief, if any, is he entitled ?

After service of notices on the parties concerned on receipt of the order of reference, both parties entered appearance and filed their respective written statements. The case of the Union, shortly sated, is that Messrs. Jessop & Co. Ltd., hereinafter referred to as the Company, is a large and prosperous engineering concern, and it employs about 12,000 workmen in its factory. Shri Ramesh Chandra Banerji worked as a welder in grade III for about 21 years, and his record of service was also satisfactory. His basic pay as a welder in grade III was Rs. 157 per month in April 1961, and the maximum grade he could reach was Rs. 202 per month. The Company, in consideration of his record of service, considered him fit for promotion, and he was promoted as Assistant Supervisor, and his basic pay was fixed at Rs. 125 which was less than his existing wages. The arbitrary fixation of his basic pay has resulted in loss of his income after promotion. As per usual practice prevailing in the Company, Ramesh Chandra Banerji should have been promoted as Assistant Foreman in grade II and his pay should have been fixed accordingly. A dispute was raised by the Union, and conciliation meetings were called, but to no effect and hence the present reference. The Union has prayed for fixation of a higher wages for the workman and other facilities for him with retrospective effect.

The Company has filed a written statement in reply to the written statement of the Union. The case of the Company as set forth in its written statement, may shortly be stated as follows :

Shri Ramesh Chandra Banerji was working as an hourly rated workman on a basic rate of 145 pies per hour. It is denied that his basic pay in 1961 was Rs. 157 per month. Pursuant to a scheme formulated by the Company, Ramesh Chandra was promoted as an Assistant Supervisor in consideration of his length of service and average workmanship. Shri Banerji was drawing a total wage of Rs. 192 per month at the time of promotion, and on promotion his emoluments were fixed at Rs. 214 which was more that what he was drawing before his promotion. His emoluments were not adversely affected in any way on account of his promotion when his basic pay was fixed at Rs. 125 per month Shri Banerji is getting Rs. 185 per month as basic salary plus Rs. 110 as D.A. per month which he could never expect to get even at the time of his retirement as a welder. It is alleged that Shri Banerji did not deserve promotion to grade II as Assistant Foreman, and it cannot be said that his basic pay of the workman fixed on promotion is arbitrary in view of the fact that there was increase of his total emolument after his promotion as Assistant Supervisor.

Both parties adduced evidence—both oral and documentary, in support of their respective claims.

Decision

The only questioned involved in this case is whether the fixation of basic wages of Shri Ramesh Chandra Banerji after his promotion to the post of an Assistant Supervisor is justified. Ramesh Banerji is an old employee of the Company having worked for more than 20 years. He was an hourly-rated workman and was working as a welder in April 1961 on a basic rate of 145 pies per hour. He was promoted as an Assistant Supervisor in May 1961 and his basic pay was fixed at Rs. 125 per month besides a dearness allowance of Rs. 89 per month. It has been contended on behalf of the Union that the monthly basic wages of Ramesh Chandra Banerji while he was working as a welder in grade III was Rs. 157 per month besides Rs. 65 as dearness allowance, and fixation of Rs. 125 as basic wages on his promotion as an Assistant Supervisor is, on the face of it, improper and unjustified. It is further contended that the promotion of the workman resulted in financial losses to him, and considered from this point of view it was really a demotion for him. As against this contention raised on behalf of the Union, it is urged on behalf of the Company that the basic wages of the workman was not Rs. 157 per month before his promotion per month, as incorrectly alleged, and the fixation of his basic pay at Rs. 125 per month on promotion to the post of an Assistant Supervisor cannot be said to be arbitrary and unfair inasmuch as there was an increase in his total emolument after his promotion. The dispute between the parties is, in the first place, with regard to the basic wages of the workman before his promotion. As I have already said, according to the Union, the basic wages of Ramesh Banerji was Rs. 157 per month plus Rs. 65 as dearness allowance which is, however, denied, by the Company. It is admitted on both sides that the workman was an hourly-rated workman on a basic rate of 145 pies per hour, and calculated at this rate his monthly wages would come up to Rs. 157. According to the Union this amount should be taken as his basic wages, and fixation of his basic wages at Rs. 125 per month on his promotion is ex facie unjustified. It is admitted by the workman that the wages of hourly-rated workers and also D.A. depend on the actual number of days they work. He has further admitted that he could earn Rs. 157 as basic wages per month by working 240 hours in a month. It, therefore, necessarily follows that his monthly earnings as basic wages and dearness allowance would come down in case he worked less than 240 hours in a month. As the basic wages of the wokman was variable, according to working hours, it cannot be said that his basic wages was Rs. 157 per month. It can at best be said that he could earn Rs. 157 per month as basic wages had he worked for 240 hours in a month. O.P.W.1, who is the Deputy Personnel Officer of the Company, has stated that the average basic wages earned by Ramesh Chandra Banerji during the period from 1st May 1960 to 30th April 1961 was Rs. 136·48p. per month, besides Rs. 56·8p. as dearness allowance per month. His evidence stands unchallenged and it is clear from his evidence that the workman did never get Rs. 157 as basic wages per month during the year immediately preceding his promotion. It has been contended on behalf of the Union that the actual basic wages earned by the workman before his promotion should not be taken into consideration in deciding the question of fixation of his basic wages after promotion. I do not accept this contention as sound. Even assuming that Rs. 157 was the basic wages of the workman per month before his promotion besides Rs. 65 as D.A., his total emoluments after his promotion fell short by Rs. 8 per month as there was a substantial increase in his dearness allowance after his promotion. It has been contended that as the issue under reference relates only to fixation of basic wages, the total emoluments of the workman after promotion should not be taken into consideration. This contention does not appear to be well founded. The question whether a workman has been benefited by his promotion or not is to be considered in terms of his total emoluments before and after his promotion. The fact that the basic wages of the workman in the instant case was fixed at Rs. 125 per month, taken by itself, does not appear to be justified, in view of the admitted fact that he earned Rs. 136 and odd per month as basic wages. If the actual wages and dearness allowance earned by Shri Banerji during one year immediately preceding his promotion is taken into consideration, then there was no loss of his total emoluments after his promotion to the post of Assistant Supervisor. If, on the other hand, his total emoluments before his promotion is taken to be Rs. 157 as wages and Rs. 65 as dearness allowance, then his total emoluments after his promotion which was fixed at Rs. 214 fell short by Rs. 8 per month from of total emoluments before his promotion. The Company, however, granted the workman a special increment of Rs. 15 at the time of the annual increment in the new post. He was given an increment of Rs. 30 instead of Rs. 15 which was the annual increment for the new post to which he was appointed, at the time his annual increment fell due. This special increment amply compensated his anticipated loss. The workman concerned accepted the promotion to the new post though he made complaints about the basic wage fixed for the post. There is a scale of pay for the post to which he was promoted and this scale of pay could not be changed to suit a particular workman. The Company obviously wanted to give the workman some pecuniary benefit and that is the reason why he was given a special increment of Rs. 15. It cannot therefore be said that the Company acted mala fide in any way or was unfair to the workman. By his promotion from an hourly-rated workman to a monthly-rated workman he undoubtedly became entitled so some benefits attached to the new post. He is now drawing R.. 185 as basic wages and Rs. 110 as D.A. per month, and he could never earn this amount as a welder. Moreover, he stands a chance of being promoted as a Supervisor. Thus in view of the fact that by his promotion the workman became entitled to some benefits which were not available to him as an hourly-rated workman, and also the fact that there was an increase of his total emolument by reason of a special increment given to him, it cannot held that the fixation of his basic wages at Rs. 125 per month is arbitrary or unjustified. I accordingly hold that the fixation of basic wages of the workman as made by the Company .s justified, and he is entitled to no relief.

This is my award.

AWARD

This is an application under section 33A, Industrial Disputes Act, by Shri Hari Prosad Turah, a workman of the Company O. P., Messrs. Punjab Engineering Works, complaining of his alleged wrongful, illegal and vindictive dismissal with effect from 20th June 1963 during the pendency of the adjudication proceedings of another dispute between the Company and its workmen, referred to this Tribunal by G. O. No. 3537-I R., dated 6th August 1962, and in contravention of the relevant provisions of section 33, Industrial Disputes Act.

On being served with the notice of the application, the Company O. P. appeared and filed its written statment. After necessary preliminary proceedings and some adjournments, the case was finally fixed for hearing on 20th April, 1965. On that date, there was no appearance by or on behalf of the Company and no step was taken on his behalf, though the Company's representative was present. In order to give a further chance to the workman to appear and prosecute his application, the Tribunal suo moto adjourned the case to 10th May, 1965, for hearing with the direction that if the applicant failed to appear on that date, the case would be disposed of according to law. On 10th May, 1965, there was again no appearance by or on behalf of the workman and no step was taken on his behalf, though the Company's representative was present and ready for hearing. The Tribunal again suo moto adjourned the case to 1st June, 1965, to give still one more chance to the workman. On 1st June, 1965, there was again no appearance by or on behalf of the workman and no step was taken on his behalf, though the Company's representative was present and ready for hearing. From the non-appearance of the applicant workman continuously since 20th April 1965, I hold that he is not prosecuting the application and has given up the dispute raised in his application, which has thereby ceased to exist. Upon this position, the application should fail for non-prosecution and a "no dispute" award should be made.

In the result, I dismiss the workman's application under section 33A, Industrial Disputes Act, for non-prosecution and make a "no dispute" award in the case.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION, WEST BENGAL

General information relating to age concession, fixation of initial pay, etc., in respect of posts advertised by the Commission and instructions to candidates applying in response thereto.

General concession in age

(1) (a) For political sufferers: A candidate who before 15th August 1947 was detained, imprisoned, interned or externed on account of his/her activities in connection with the country's struggle for independence, not being convicted of an offence indicating moral turpitude, shall be entitled to a concession in respect of the upper age limit. The concession granted will be equal to the exact period of detention, imprisonment, internment or externment suffered up to a maximum of four years.

(b) For Scheduled Caste/Tribe candidates: The upper age limit is relaxable by five years for candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes.

Fixation of Pay

(2) (a) For persons already in permanent Government service: If a permanent Government servant is permitted to apply and is selected for a post in open competition with outsiders, the initial pay will be fixed under rule 42 or 55 of the West Bengal Service Rules, Part I, as the case may be. If, however, such a recruit is prepared to resign his appointment under Government, before applying he will be eligible to the grant of higher initial pay on the same basis as an outsider.

(b) For a temporary Government servant having no lien on any post under the West Bengal Government when appointed to a post carrying higher scale of pay: Such an officer shall be eligible to draw as initial pay at the stage of the time-scale in the higher post which is equal to his pay in the lower post, or if there is no such stage, the stage next below that pay plus personal pay equal to the difference, to be absorbed in future increments in the higher scale, provided that he has already rendered at least three years' continuous and satisfactory service in the lower post. The aforesaid benefit of fixation of pay will not, however, be available in the following cases:

(i) when the Commission has made a specific recommendation regarding the pay to be allowed to the officer;

(ii) when under any specific rule such an officer is allowed a higher initial pay.

(c) For outsiders: Unless otherwise specified in a particular advertisement, higher initial pay on the basis of age, qualifications and experience (including experience outside Government service) may be allowed to a person not already in Government service, if the relevant advertisement contains a provision to that effect.

Instructions regarding submission of application

(3) Applications are to be made on the prescribed form which will be available from the office of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal, Anderson House (ground floor), Alipore, Calcutta-27, personally or on sending a large self-addressed envelope with stamps sufficient to cover the postage affixed to it. Candidates who are unable to obtain copies of the prescribed form may apply on any similar typed (not handwritten) form showing exactly the wording and spacing of the sample form published in the "Calcutta Gazette" of the 1st September 1955, provided the blanks are filled up in the candidates' own handwriting.

Particulars and certificates required

(4) Candidates should furnish evidence of their age, qualifications and previous experience together with certificates written not more than one year prior to the date of their applications, from responsible persons, testifying to their private character.

The Commission accepts only the age of a candidate as recorded in the Matriculation or the Secondary School Final/Leaving Certificate. In the case of a female candidate whose age is not recorded in the Matriculation or School Final Certificate, any of the following evidence of age is accepted by the Commission

(1) A certificate from the Headmistress of the School, which she last attended, showing her exact age as recorded in the school register.

(2) An affidavit regarding her age sworn by her father or mother or some other person in a position to know by having been present or heard of her birth at the time of occurrence.

(3) A certificate regarding her age, from a Member of the Legislature or a gazetted officer, who must have known the candidate and her family, indicating clearly the evidence on the basis of which he/she satisfied himself/herself on the point.

Fee

(5) Candidates must enclose with their applications a fee of Rs. 5 in the form of a receipted chalan from a Government Treasury or the Reserve Bank of India under the head "XXI—Miscellaneous—Receipts of the Public Service Commission ,West Bengal". Money orders, cheques, etc., in lieu of treasury chalans are not accepted. Postal Order, however, may be accepted from candidates. They should be crossed and made payable to "The Deputy Secretary, Public Service Commission, West Bengal". No application will be considered unless accompanied with the requisite application fee.

Candidates abroad may deposit their application fees with the High Commissioner of India or the Embassy, as the case may be, and obtain receipts for the same, which will have to be attached to their applications to be submitted to the Commission.

Candidates in Government service should make sure before depositing fee that their applications will be forwarded by their superior officers.

In no case will the fee paid with the application be refunded.

Note: A member of the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe claiming age concession must furnish with his application a certificate in original from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature belonging to the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe, specifying the particular caste or tribe to which he claims to belong.

Address

(6) Candidates should give their present address and should communicate at once any subsequent change of address.

Canvassing

(7) Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support of their applications through persons of influence or officials of Government will disqualify them for appointment. Spontaneous recommendation from persons interested in the candidates or otherwise known to them will be disregarded.

Forwarding of applications and submission of advance copies

(8) Applications from candidates who are in permanent or temporary employment under any Government, a local or Statutory Body (e.g., Damodar Valley Corporation), in India will be rejected unless they are submitted through the appointing authority of their posts or service.

Candidates serving under Government or a local or Statutory Body should submit an advance copy in the prescribed form. The application fee should in such cases be attached to the advance copy and not to the original. The candidature of such applicants may not however be considered if the original applications do not reach the Commission's office within a fortnight from the closing date. Unless applications in original or advance copies with application fees are received within the closing date, late applications may be rejected.

PART VI.—Bills introduced in Parliament of India Reports of Select Committees presented to Parliament; and Bills published before introduction in Parliament.

LOK SABHA

The following Bill was introduced in Lok Sabha on the 30th April, 1965:

BILL No. 29 OF 1965

A Bill further to amend the Income-tax Act, 1961.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Sixteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Income-tax (Amendment) Act, 1965.

(2) It shall come into force immediately.

Amendment of section 36,

2. In section 36 of the Income-tax Act, 1961, in sub-section (1), after clause (viii), the following clause shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, inserted, namely:— 43 of 1961.

"(ix) any rent or royalty paid by the assessee to the Central Government or to any State Government or local authority for mining rights granted to him under a mining lease executed under the provisions of the Mines and Minerals (Regulation and Development) Act, 1957 or the Rules made by the Central Government, or any State Government in exercise of powers conferred under the said Act." 67 of 1957,

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

It is commonly accepted that the payment of royalty is made wholly and exclusively for the purpose of a given business. The question, however, is whether such payment is on capital or revenue account. The purpose of the proposed amendment is to ensure that royalty payments under Mining Leases are allowed as deductible expenditure in computing business income under the parent Act.

A Full Bench of the Lahore High Court and the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council had held at one time that the payment of royalty was the price of the raw material or stock-in-trade and therefore a revenue expenditure [vide (1947) 15 I.T.R. 185 and (1949) 17 I.T.R. 473]. In the case of Pingle Industries Ltd. vs. C.I.T. (1960) 40 I.T.R. 67, the Supreme Court held (by a majority judgment of two to one) that the assessee acquired by the long term lease a part of the land, and that the payment was neither rent nor royalty, but a lump-sum payment in instalments for acquiring a capital asset of enduring benefit to the trade. The latest decision of the Rajasthan High Court has, however, made further departure in pronouncing that even royalty which was calculated by reference to the production of the mineral is—Capital expenditure [vide (1964) 51 I.T.R. 533]. It is noteworthy that the Income-tax Department has now as a consequence of the decision of the Rajasthan High Court made it a rule to disallow such royalty payments as deductible expenditure.

It would be pertinent to recall that the Taxation Enquiry Commission (1953-54) in paragraph 7 of its Report (Vol. II, pages 87-88) has categorically stated that "where royalty is payable on the basis of production, it is clearly admissible (as deductible business expenditure)". Similarly, the Direct Taxes Administration Enquiry Committee (otherwise known as the Tyagi Committee) observed "that disallowance of royalties in the assessment cases of mining industry would obviously hamper its development and ability to compete in the world markets." Moreover, the then Finance Minister of India, at the time of the debate on the Income-tax Bill, 1961, clearly said that royalty for mining is eligible for deduction in computing the taxable income of a business vide Lok Sabha Debates dated 28th August 1961.

The proposed amendment would fulfil the assurance given by the Finance Minister of India when the parent Bill was being passed and would implement the view uniformly taken by various Committees. Such a provision would also protect and give a fillip to the mining industry in our country.

Hence the Bill.

The 25th September, 1964.

Written expressions of opinion by any person or public body should be sent so as to reach the Judicial Department of the Government of West Bengal not later than the 30th September 1965. BILL No. IV OF 1963

THE INDIAN PENAL CODE (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1963

By

DIWAN CHAMAN LALL, M.P.

(AS INTRODUCED IN THE RAJYA SABHA ON 3rd MAY, 1963)

further to amend the Indian Penal Code.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Fourteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Indian Penal Code (Amendment) Act, 1963. Short title.

2. After section 293 of the Indian Penal Code, the following section shall be inserted, namely:— Act 45 of 1860.

Insertion of new section 29A.

"293A. Nothing contained in section 292 or section 293 shall apply to any book, pamphlet, writing, drawing, painting, representation or figure meant for public good or for bona fide purposes of science, literature, art or any branch of learning:

Provided that in the event of any dispute arising as to the nature of the publication, the opinion of experts on the subject may be admitted as evidence."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Under the present sections 292 and 293 of the Indian Penal Code, there is a danger of publications meant for public good or for bona fide purposes of science, literature, art, or any other branch of learning being declared as obscene literature as there is no specific provision in the Act for exempting them from the operation of those sections. This Bill seeks to remove that lacuna so as to bring the law into conformity with modern practice in other civilised countries.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

Medical

NOTIFICATION

No. Medl/4464/8M-1/65.—29th June 1965.—As a result of a recent amendment to the Indian Medical Council Act, 1956, no person other than a medical practitioner enrolled on a State Medical Register can practise medicine in any State. If a person contravenes this provision he is liable to punishment with imprisonment or a fine or with both. As a result of this provision a large number of persons, who though not qualified, had been engaged in practice, have been debarred from doing so. Representations from such persons have been received praying for their registration on the basis of their knowledge and experience in the practice of medicine and for making necessary provision to that effect in the Registration Acts. They have represented that they would be deprived of their livelihood if they are not registered and allowed to continue practice of medicine.

In this context the Governor has been pleased to decide that the question of the desirability of granting such persons registration on the basis of their experience in the profession may be referred to a Committee of Experts for examination.

In pursuance of the above decision the Governor is pleased to constitute a Committee of Experts consisting of the following:—

Chairman

(1) Dr. P. K. Roy Chowdhuri, Mayor of Calcutta.

Members

(2) Joint Director of Health Services, West Bengal.

(3) Dr. Ramgoti Banerji, M.P.

(4) Dr. Kaligati Banerji, Suri, Birbhum.

(5) Dr. Abodh Kumar Sinha, Lecturer in Pharmacology, Calcutta National Medical Institute, Calcutta.

(6) One representative of the Indian Medical Association, Bengal State Branch.

(7) One representative of the All India Medical Licentiates' Association (State and Calcutta Branch).

(8) Secretary, State Medical Faculty, West Bengal.

Member-Secretary

(9) Dr. S. R. Sen Gupta, Director, Central Combined Laboratory, Calcutta.

The terms of reference of the Committee are—

(i) to consider whether unqualified persons, who have been engaged in practising medicine for a considerable period should be registered;

(ii) if so, what should be the conditions of such registration;

(iii) whether a provision should be made on the lines as continued in the Dentists Act, 1948, for the registration of unqualified dentists, for the registration of such persons in a Special Register before a particular date after which no further unqualified persons should be registered.

The Committee, which will decide its own procedure of work, will submit a report containing its recommendations to the State Government within two months from its constitution.

4. ### AWARD

The Government of West Bengal, by order No. 1706-I.R./IR/11L-144/64, dated the 2nd May 1964, had referred the following industiral dispute between Messrs. Reckitt and Colman of India Ltd., 41 Chowringhee Road, Calcutta-16, and their workmen represented by Reckitt and Colman Atlantis (East) Karmachary Sangha, 32B Judges' Court Road, Calcutta-27, to this Tribunal for adjudication.

Issue

Is the dismissal of Shri Kalo Roy justified ? To what relief, if any, is he entitled ?

After the service of the usual notice, the Union, viz, Karmachary Sangha, had filed written statement and the employer had also filed the written statement. In the written statement filed on behalf of the workmen, it has been alleged that the Company had been carrying on business for the last 25 years. and had been manufacturing Robinson Barley, Robin Blue, Boot Polishes, etc., in its different units and factory and at the Chetla factory, and engages about 100 workmen. Though the Company is a reputed firm, it indulges in unfair labour practice and accordingly about a year ago, some workmen had formed a separate Union whose registration No. is 5454. The Company, however, did not like the formation of the new Union and had been recognising the other Union which was existing from before. Kalo Roy is a member of the new Union, and the Company had picked him up for the purpose of victimisation and also for the purpose of frustrating the workmen, so that they may not proceed with their demands. It is next alleged that on 4th April 1963 at about 9-15 p.m., Kalo Roy was going back home from the market and was intercepted by some workers belonging to the rival Union, and was severely beaten near the factory premises. He was rescued by local people and then he had reported the matter to the police-station. On the morning of 5th April 1963, Kalo Roy attended the factory and reported the matter of the previous night to the Personnel Manager Shri P. N. Chatterjee. At about 12 noon of that day, the Company had issued a chargesheet to Shri Kalo Roy and had simultaneously suspended him on the alleged charge of assault and striking a fellow worker. Kalo Roy had given his reply on 7th April 1963 denying the allegations made in the chargesheet, dated 5th April 1963. By the letter, dated 8th April 1963, the Company asked Kalo Roy to attend the enquiry to be held on 10th April 1963. In that enquiry Kalo Roy was not allowed to be defended by the Union Vice-President and other witnesses and the Company, however, proceeded with the so called enquiry with picked men with a view to victimise Kalo Roy. The Company refused to give the copy of the enquiry report and was also unable to produce the enquiry report before the Conciliation Officer at a later date. The Company had dismissed Kalo Roy by its letter, dated 23rd April 1963. Thereafter, the Union wrote the letter, dated 29th April 1963, drawing the attention of the Hon'ble Minister of Labour and had also lodged protest against the action of the Company by its letter, dated 29th April 1963, which was addressed to the Assistant Mill Manager. As the conciliation proceedings failed due to the adamant and vindictive attitude of the Company, the matter has been referred for adjudication to this Tribunal. It is prayed that Kalo Roy may be reinstated in service with all back wages for the period of forced unemployment.

The Company in its written statement had stated that the Company is all along been encouraging joint negotiation and collective bargaining through legal and constitutional means and had never indulged in unfair labour practice to frustrate the legitimate grievances of the workmen. The Company denies that it had tried to penalise the workmen in order to put a check on the normal activities of the workmen and alleges that the Company is not aware of the aims and objects or reasons for the formation of the new Union called the Karmachary Sangha. With regard to the alleged incident of 4th April 1963, the Company alleges that there was an altercation between 9-15 to 9-30 p.m. between Kalo Roy and Krishna Das (Kisto) and Kalo Roy had attacked Kisto on the pavement in front of the eastern gate of the mill causing bleeding injury on his person. There was a preliminary enquiry, and, when it was found that there was a prima facie case for assault and riotous behaviour against Kalo Roy, a chargesheet was issued to him and he was suspended pending enquiry. The Company further states that there was a very fair and proper enquiry on 10th April 1963, that Kalo Roy was asked to appear at the enquiry through a written notice, that Kalo Roy was given full opportunity to defend himself against the charges at the time of the enquiry, and that the entire enquiry was conducted in his presence in strict compliance of the principles of natural justice. As there has been a fair and proper enquiry and as the charges had been brought home against Kalo Roy, Kalo Roy is not entitled to get any relief.

Decision

Before I proceed to discuss the evidence I shall refer to the rulings to which my attention has been drawn by the learned Advocate appearing for the workmen and by the learned representative appearing for the Company. The principle of law is well settled and it is not necessary to refer in details to all the rulings on this point. In the rulings reported in A.I.R. 1958-S.C.-130-1958 (I) L.L.J., 260 (Indian Iron and Steel Co. vs. their workmen), A.I.R., 1963 S.C. 1914-1963(II) L.L.J., 367 (Sur Enamel and Stamping Works Ltd. vs. the workmen), 1963 (II) L.L.J., 452 (Khardah Co. vs. its workmen) , and A. I. R., 1964 S.C., 708 (Kesoram Cotton Mills Ltd. vs. Gangadhar), it has been held that in case of dismissal for misconduct, the tribunal does not act as a Court of appeal and will not substitute its own judgment for that of management, and that in case of dismissal after enquiry by the domestic tribunal, the industrial tribunal can interfere with such action of the management only on the following grounds :

(a) where there has been want of good faith,

(b) where there is victimisation or unfair labour practice,

(c) where the management is guilty of basic error, or violation of the principles of natural justice,

(d) when on the materials, the findings are completely baseless and perverse.

Regarding the question of victimisation, it has been held that the case of victimisation only arises where the workman is innocent but is punished for displeasing the employer, or where the workman is guilty of an offence but the sentence is out of proportion, and had been imposed only by reason of the fact that the employer was displeased [1960 (II) L.L.J., 175-National Tobacco Co. of India vs. Fourth Industrial Tribunal]. The finding is regarded to be perverse where it is a finding which is not supported by any evidence or is entirely opposed to the whole evidence adduced [1962 (II) L.L.J., 772-Hamdard Dawakhana Wakf vs. his workmen]. In the case reported in 1963 (II) L.L.J., 367 it has also been held by their Lordships of the Supreme Court that an enquiry cannot be said to have been properly held unless—

(i) an employee proceeded against has been clearly informed of the charges,

(ii) the witnesses are examined ordinarily in the presence of the employee in respect of the charges,

(iii) he is given a fair opportunity to examine witnesses including himself in his defence, if he so wishes on any relevant matter, and

(iv) the enquiring officer records his findings with reasons in his report.

It is also held that if there is no proper enquiry, the order of dismissal can be set aside and the tribunal can order reinstatement. In the case reported in 1963 (II) L.L.J., 371, it has also been held by their Lordships of the Supreme Court that unless there are compelling reasons to do so the normal procedure should be followed and all evidence should be recorded in the presence of the workman. Their Lordships had referred to the previously decided case reported in 1963 (II) L.L.J., 452. In that case, it was observed that the statement of witness in the presence of the workman charged with misconduct is likely to be cautious, that in industrial enquiries the question of bona fide and mala fide is often at issue and this is the reason why domestic enquiries must be held with scrupulous regard to the requirement of natural justice, that the enquiring officer also must record reasons for the conclusions and that the failure to record finding after holding enquiry would constitute serious infirmity in the enquiry. In that case the Manager who held the enquiry did not record any finding. In that context, their Lordships had further observed that if the enquiry is not found to be fair and proper, then the employer could lead evidence before the tribunal and justify its action.

I shall now turn to discuss the evidence which had been adduced at the time of the domestic enquiry, and also the evidence regarding the finding of the enquiring officer. But before I do so, I shall notice a a submission which has been made by the learned Advocate appearing for the workmen. It was urged by Shri Chakraborty appearing for the workmen that the alleged incident between Kalo Roy and Kisto had taken place outside the factory premises at Chetla, and therefore the management had no right to take any disciplinary action against Kalo Roy. Shri Chatterjee appearing for the Company had submitted that for the misconduct whether it was committed inside the factory or outside the factory, the management is entitled to take disciplinary action against the concerned workman. Shri Chatterjee had referred me to the certified standing orders of the Company and has urged that even though the words "inside or outside the factory" are not specifically mentioned in the standing orders itself, still the management is entitled to take action against the concerned workman regarding the misconduct alleged against him. I shall first of all refer to the standing orders to which my attention has been drawn by the learned representative for the Company. Ext. G is the standing order and section 20 provides, inter alia, that assaulting, striking or threatening other workers is a misconduct and that drunkenness or riotous or disorderly behaviour during working hours or any act subversive of discipline or efficiency is also a misconduct. I do not agree with Mr. Chatterjee that simply because the words "inside and outside the factory" had not been mentioned, the management is authorised to take disciplinary action even in case of a private quarrel and assault outside the factory. The learned lawyer for the Company had referred me to the ruling reported in 1961-62 (21 F.J.R., 93)—Dewan Badri Das vs. the Industrial Tribunal, Punjab. In that case, it was held that if the misbehaviour of responsible workmen even outside the premises of the concern or even when off duty, impaired the reputation of the concern, or was calculated to cause resentment against the same or unrest amongst the workers, the management is justified in treating that conduct as calculated to harm its reputation and as one being subversive of discipline. As there is no allegation in the present case that the alleged assualt is calculated to cause resentment against the Company or to impair its reputation, or to create unrest amongst its workers, I do not think this ruling is applicable in the facts and circumstances of the present case. Incidentally, it may be pointed out that the incident there happened in the colony established by the employer for the employees. It was also observed that absence of the standing orders is not material, but the enquiry must be proper and impartial and that the hour and the place of incident are not very relevant matters in deciding the question as to whether a particular act of an employee is or is not within the ambit of the disciplinary jurisdiction of the employer. It appears to me that the alleged misconduct must have been some sort of relationship with the employment of the particular employee before the management can take disciplinary action against the concerned workman. I would refer to the ruling reported in A.I.R. 1965 S.C., 135 (Tata Oil Mills Co., Ltd. vs. their workmen). In that case, the standing orders itself provide for the fighting outside the factory, but their Lordships had said that the fighting must have rational relation with the employment of the assailant and the victim. I do not think that for any private quarrel which has no rational relation with the employment of the assailant and the victim, the management is entitled to take disciplinary action against the concerned workman. Reference may also be made to the case reported in 1952 L.A.C. 337-1952 (II) L.L.J., 602 Air India Ltd. vs. Lobo. The question now is whether there is such rational relationship with the employment of the assailant and the victim in the present case. The evidence before the domestic enquiry as recorded by O.P.W.1 Shri Manju Sen in the enquiry proceedings (Ext. H) shows that Kalo Roy demanded some loan from the Co-operative Society of the factory in respect of which Kisto was in-charge, as his daughter was attacked with measles, and that as Kisto asked Kalo to come next morning, there was an altercation between them, and thereafter Kalo whipped out a knife from his trouser's pocket and plunged that knife on the left side of the belly of Kisto (vide evidence of Kisto Das and Sailen Chatterjee). It may be mentioned here that though Kalo Roy put certain question to Kisto Das, no question has been asked regarding the matters which had been referred to above. So far as Sailen Chatterjee is concerned, it would appear that Kalo Roy had put the specific question as to what was the subject matter of the quarrel between him and Kisto Das to Sailen Chatterjee, and Sailen Chatterjee had replied that the subject matter was a loan from the Co-operative Society which Kalo was insisting that Kisto should get it sanctioned. There was a further question by Kalo Roy to the effect that as no application for the loan from the Co-operative Society had yet been made, there could not be any question regarding the loan. The reply to that question of Sailen Chatterjee was that he did not know about the making of the application for the loan, but he had heard him (Kalo) insisting on Kisto's sanctioning the loan from the Co-operative Society It would appear also that Kisto Das was subsequently recalled and had stated that he is a member of the Board of Directors and also a co-ordinator representing Chetla factory employees and that he has to attend the meetings of the Board and get the loan applications of the Chetla members sanctioned in deserving cases. It is his further evidence that Kalo Roy did not file any loan application before the incident on 4th April 1963, that he had one of his loan applications sanctioned on emergency basis about two months ago, that Kalo Roy was asking on that date to have another emergency loan sanctioned on account of his daughter's measles and that it is the usual practice that the Co-ordinator should investigate the circumstances before an application for emergency loan is made or entertained. It also appears that Kalo Roy had declined to cross-examine Kisto Das any further after he was recalled. Apart from this evidence before the domestic enquiry, it would appear from the evidence of Kalo Roy himself (P.W. 1) before this Tribunal that there is a Co-operative Credit Society, that the workers get loans from that Society after making applications and he had received some loans himself, that one of the workers is a member of the Society, that the worker-member has to recommend the application for loan, that he is unable to say if in 1962 and 1963 Kisto was a worker-member of the Society, that when he had obtained the loan from the Society, Kisto Das had recommended his application for loan, and that he had obtained the loan not two or three years ago, but four years ago. O.P.W.2 Kisto Das had stated in his evidence before this tribunal that he was in charge of all the transaction relating to the Co-operative Society including the checking up of forms and that Kalo Roy had borrowed money previously through him and became last on 4th April 1963 for loan. At the time of cross-examination O.P.W 2 had said that there are nine Directors which constitute the Board, that the Directors are to decide whether the application for loan should or should not be granted, that it is only when he signs the application that the money can be paid out, and that he represented the factory in the Board, and therefore, he had to be satisfied whether the loan had to be granted or not before the matter was raised in the meeting of the Board of Directors. So far as the question of the demand of loan on 4th April 1963 by Kalo Roy is concerned, it would appear that there has been no cross-examination by the learned Advocate for the workman. There is also no cross-examination regarding the previous granting of loan at the instance of kisto Das to Kalo Roy. In the facts and circumstances which I have mentioned above, it appears to me to be absolutely clear that the alleged incident has some rational relation with the employment of the alleged assailant and the victim. I have therefore come to the conclusion that the management is entitled to take disciplinary action against the concerned workman for the alleged misconduct. The contention of Shri Chakraborty therefore on behalf of the wokman is overruled.

I shall now turn to discuss the question whether there has been a fair and proper enquiry into the alleged misconduct of Kalo Roy. Before referring to the charge-sheet, the evidence at the time of the enquiry and the finding of the enquiring officer, it is necessary to refer to the written statement filed on behalf of the workman. In paragraphs 13 and 14 of the written statement filed on behalf of the Union, it has been alleged that there has been a show enquiry on 10th April 1963 in the factory premises, where the Union Vice-President and other witnesses were not allowed to defend Kalo Roy that the Company proceeded with the so called enquiry with its picked men with a view to victimise the workman, that the Company had refused to give the copies of the enquiry report to the Union and that the enquiry report was not even produced before the conciliation officer when asked for at a later date. These are all the objections to the domestic enquiry which have been urged on behalf of the concerned workman. There is no allegation in these paragraphs that there has been violation of the principles of natural justice, or that the management is guilty of basic error, or that there has been want of good faith or that on the materials the finding is completely baseless and perverse. At the time of the opening, the learned advocate Shri Chakraborty had stated that this is a case of victimisation by the management. But in paragraph 16 of the written statement, it has been stated that there has been unfair labour practice. Whether there was really any victimisation or any unfair labour practice would be considered later on.

At this stage I would only point out that except on the grounds of victimisation or unfair labour practice the concerned workman had not challenged the enquiry proceeding or the report or any of the other grounds mentioned above. It will be convenient at this stage to refer also the submission made by Shri Chakraborty on behalf of the workman. He had urged that certain statements were made in writing by Hirendra Manna, Kisto Das, Asta Maity, Sailen Chakraborty and the durwan Bhim Bahadur, and that the copies of these statements were not made over to Kalo Roy before he was asked to cross-examine during the enquiry proceedings. So far as this particular question is concerned Shri Chatterjee appearing on behalf of the Company had pointed out that the enquiry proceeding will itself show that the questions were put at the time of the enquiry proceeding to each of these persons, and thereafter the statements were placed and therefore there cannot be any question of prejudice of the concerned workman. The argument of Shri Chatterjee was that as the evidence of the witnesses were taken in presence of the concerned workman, the failure to give copies of the prior recorded statements which, however, were produced at the time of the enqury cannot vitiate the enquiry itself. It appears to me that there is no force in the contention raised by Shri Chakraborty on behalf of the workman. The witnesses were examined in presence of the concerned workman and it will appear later on that the enquiring officer had proceeded on the basis of the oral evidence given before him and not on the basis of the prior recorded statements. In the circumstances, the ruling reported in A.I.R. 1964 S.C., 708—1963 (11) L.L.J., 371 (Kesoram Cotton Mills vs. Gangadhar) is not applicable. In that case their Lordships of the Supreme Court had observed that the copies of the statements of witnesses who were not examined in chief fully at the enquiry should be made over at least two days before the enquiry is to begin and that the principle of natural justice is violated, where the prepared statements were read over to the workman charged and they were asked then and there to cross-examine the witnesses. As mentioned earlier, the facts are entirely different here. No reliance had been placed on the recorded statements themselves, but on the evidence which was adduced before the concerned workman. Therefore even if no copies of those earlier recorded statements had been given, I do not think that the principles of natural justice have been violated. I have already mentioned earlier that the question of violation of nattural justice is not to be found in the written statement of the concerned workman.

The next submission is that the finding of the enquiring officer is perverse and that the enquiring officer did not give detailed reasons for his conclusions. The only other submission of Shri Chakraborty is with regard to unfair labour practice and victimisation. It would be convenient to discuss this question after discussing what had transpired during the enquiry proceeding. The chargesheet on the basis of which the enquiry proceeding started is dated 5th April 1963 (Ext. A on admission). It would appear from Ext. A that it has been stated that on 4th April 1963 between 9-15 and 9-30 p.m. following an altercation Kalo Roy had attacked Kisto Das, Tally clerk, on the pavement in front of the eastern gate of the mill with a knife, causing bleeding injury on his person, that following this incident, on-the-spot investigation was carried out by Shri S. K. Das, Foreman and later by the Assistant Factory Manager Shri D. Roy Chowdhury on the same night and also by P. N. Chatterjee, Personnel Manager and Shri D. Roy Chowdhury in the morning of 5th April 1963, that a prima facie case of assault, riotous and disorderly behaviour had been established against Kalo and that therefore the management had decided to take disciplinary action against him in accordance with the provisions of the standing orders. The charge as mentioned is for assault and striking a fellow worker under section 20(q) and for riotous behaviour which is an act subversive of discipline and efficiency under section 20(r) of the standing orders. I have already mentioned earlier the provisions of the stnding orders of the Company and I need not repeat what has already been stated. It would be sufficient to mention that in the standing orders, assault and strike are both separately mentioned and that the riotous behaviour during working hours and any acts subversive of discipline or efficiency have been separately mentioned. It appears to me that the charges against the concerned workman have not been very happily framed and that the riotous behaviour is a distinct misconduct from any act subversive of discipline and/or efficiency. I am further of opinion that the allegations made in the chargesheet itself do not make out the case of riotous behaviour which is an act subversive of discipline and efficiency. As I understand the learned representative for the Company, he did not particularly rely on the second charge which I have mentioned above. The learned enquiring officer in his report (Ext. I) has not come to any conclusion regarding the second charge which I have mentioned above. I had asked the learned enquiring officer that what he understood by the second charge. The enquiring officer (O.P.W. 1) told me that by riotous behaviour, he understood the shouting and yelling of the persons concerned before the factory. The learned officer had obviously overlooked the stading order itself and has also overlooked that the alleged riotous behaviour, according to the chargesheet, must be an act subversive of discipline and efficiency. It is quite obvious that the second charge has not been established even at the time of the enquiry itself. Incidentally, it may be pointed out that the witnesses examined by the Company before the enquiring officer do not say anything about the second charge and that the evidence as laid before the enquiring officer related to the alleged charge of assault with the knife following an altercation between Kalo and Kisto. In the circumstances, I do not think that I should accept the evidence of O.P.W. 1 that he had found that both the misconducts had been established by the evidence adduced before him.

I shall now shortly discuss the evidence which has been adduced before the learned enquiring officer at the time of the domestic enquiry. The enquiry proceeding had been marked Ext. H and it is not disputed that the concerned workman Kalo was present at the time the enquiry proceeding was held. It may be mentioned here that though there is an objection in the written statement that the Vice-President was not allowed to defend Kalo, this objection was not raised at the time of hearing before me. The enquiry proceeding itself shows that one Anil Ganguly was allowed to be present as an observer on belalf of Kalo but he was not allowed to take part in the proceeding. The first witness Hiren Manna had stated that while he was going on cycle, he had found crowd gathered at the eastern gate of the factory and amongst the crowd he found Kalo, Sailen and also found that Kalo holding the collar of Kisto and was abusing him in vile language. It is his further evidence that Kisto told Kalo that he would speak to him on the next day, as Kalo was drunk, that he heard Sailen shouting from the doorstep "knife, knife", that he left his cycle and when was coming, he found Kalo had struck Kisto on his belly with the knife, that he and Sailen held the hand of Kalo and the upper portion of the knife dropped from his hand, that the knife actually broke into two pieces, when Kalo had struck Kisto, and that the lower porton fell on the ground and that after he had gone to fetch a police constable, Kalo had gone away. It is also stated that Kisto was taken to the dispensary of doctor Gour Hazra in a rickshaw and first-aid was given to Kisto there. Thereafter Kisto was taken to D. Roy Chowdhury and Sushil Das and thereafter he had left for home. With regard to the knife, he had said that it was a hacksaw knife. He had also mentioned the name of Bhim Bahadur as being one of the persons present. Kalo had cross-examined this witness and it appears that nothing had brought out in the cross-examination. At the time of hearing before this Tribunal, P.W. 1 Kalo had said that as the recorded statements were not given to him, he had left the place of enuqiry. This evidence certainly cannot be correct because the enquiry proceeding itself shows that he had cross-examined. What I have said with regard to Hiren Manna applies to others also, excepting Kisto who was not cross-examined at all. The evidence of Kisto in substance is that when he was passing near the factory Kalo came in a rikshaw from the opposite direction and called him and told him that his daughter has got measles and asked him to arrange for a loan from the Co-operative Society. Kisto told him that he was going on his duty and Kalo should see him on the following day. Kalo was taken in a rikshaw to a certain distance, but he subsequently came back with that rikshaw, and then an altercation started between Kalo and the rikshawalla ; thereafter, Kalo came to Kisto and enquired whether he was going to give the money or not, and Kisto replied that Kalo should go home. At that Kalo held the hand of Kisto with his left hand and his right hand was in his trouser's pocket. Thereafter, Sailen who was standing in front of pumping room, shouted saying that Kalo has brought out a knife. Immediately therafter Kalo had struck on the belly of Kisto on the left side with the knife and thereafter Sailen came and held Kalo and was joined immediately thereafter by Hiren Manna, who also held the hand of Kalo. It is the further evidence of Kisto that the knife broke out into two pieces after Kisto was struck and two pieces fell on the ground. It is also stated that Asta Maity and Bhim Bahadur were near the factory gate at the time of the incident and and that Kalo fled away thereafter, and then first-aid was given to Kisto and the matter was reported to the authority and also a diary was lodged at the police station. There has been very little cross-examination of Kisto by Kalo. There is nothing which would show that any portion of the evidence of Kisto before the enquiring officer could not be accepted. The next witness Asta Maity had spoken about the quarrel between Kalo and Kisto and has also said that he saw Kalo striking Kisto on his belly with the knife. There is again nothing in the cross-examination of Asta to show that the evidence of Asta is not acceptable. Next witness Sailen Chatterjee has corroborated the evidence of Kisto. He has however mentioned the name of Bhim Bahadur and Sudhir Purkait who had also seen the incident, and had said that the wound on the belly was about 2" in length and was slightly bleeding. There is again nothing in the cross-examination by Kalo which would show that the evidence of Sailen cannot be accepted. Kisto was further re-examined but there was no further cross-examination by Kalo. These are all the witnesses examined on 10th April 1963. On 11th April 1963 Hiren Manna was again recalled and had replied to certain questions. The only thing that he had said is that he had not seen Sudhir Purkait amongst the crowd and that he had narrated the occurrence to D. Roy Chowdhury. Bhim is other witness. His evidence shows that Kalo had demanded something from Kisto and was speaking in a loud tone. He had himself not spoken about the incident or assault with the knife. On belalf of Kalo, he, Basanta Haldar, and Sk. Mohiuddin were examined as witnesses. Kalo had spoken about the assault on him nearabout the rikshaw stand by Kisto Das, Sailen Chatterjee, Sudhir Purkait and few others. Basanta Halder and Mahiuddin did not really support evidence of Kalo regarding his own assault. It however appears that Basanta heard Sailen shouting "knife, knife", and also heard Manna shouting "catch him (Kalo), catch him, he has stabbed". Mahiuddin had only heard about the incident. Klao was again examined by the enquiring officer towards the close of the proceeding, on 11th April 1963. But nothing material appears from the further evidence given by Kalo.

I shall now refer in short to the enquiry report (Ext. I). After considering the evidence which I have mentioned above, the learned enquiring officer observed that in spite of some minor discrepancies which are not relevant with the main charge of assault in the evidence of Manna, Kisto and Sailen, but he considered their evidence as having established beyond any reasonable doubt, that Kalo did attack Kisto on the pavement in front of the mill and assaulted Kisto with the knife causing bleeding injury on his person and is therefore guilty of all the charges brought against him. I have already mentioned above that the second charge has not been substantiated. The learned enquiry officer does not give any reason why he thought that the second charge had been substantiated. In view of all what I have discussed above, I do not agree with the learned lawyer appearing for the workman that the enquiring officer did not come at the reasonable conclusion or that the finding is at all preverse. I do not think. therefore, that it has been shown that the principles of natural justice have been violated or there was any basic error or that the finding was perverse or that the enquiry was for any reason not fair. My conclusion therefore is that this Tribunal cannot interfere with the finding of the enquiring officer.

I shall now shortly discuss the evidence regarding the alleged victimisation and unfair labour practice. The evidence which has been adduced by P.W. 1 Kalo Roy and P.W. 5 Basanta Maity is that at the time of Chinese invasion of India, Kisto, Rabin Chatterjee, Sitaram Medda, Gopal Dalui made some assertions against the Government and that Kalo had objected and there was an altercation and that some of these persons had been arrested under the Defence of India Rules and had been convicted. As shri Chatterjee on behalf of the Company had pointed out the relevant judgment of the learned Magistrate had not been put in and therefore it has not been possible to find who has been convicted for violation of the Defence of India Rules, but even supposing that some of the persons mentioned above who appear to belong to the other Union, had been convicted under the Defence of India Rules. I do not see that from that fact it can be argued that the management is guilty of victimisation and unfair labour practice. The other Union was existing admittedly from before and had been recognised by the Company. There is nothing to show that because some members of the o'd Union had been convicted, the management had sought to victimise Kalo Roy who had given evidence in the Defence of India Rules case. I do not also think that there is really anything to show that the management had resorted to unfair labour practice. If any of the members of the rival union is really guilty of contravention of Defence of India Rules, the management certainly has nothing to do in that matter. I do not believe that for that reason the management would pick out Kalo and would victimise him and would also resort to unfair labour practice. I therefore cannot accept the submission of Shri Chakraborty that the plea for victimisation and/or plea of unfair labour practice had been substantiated in this case.

Before I conclude the discussion, I would observe that even if it be supposed that the enquiry is defective in any respect, still there is quite cogent evidence before the Tribunal which shows that at the time of quarrel over the demand for loan, Kalo had whipped out a hacksaw knife and had inflicted a wound on the belly of Kisto Das. The learned lawyer appearing for the workman sought to argue that the evidence which has been given by Kalo and others would show that Kalo himself was asaulted by Kisto, Sailen and others. I do not think that it is open to the learned lawyer for the wokmen to substantiate his plea before this Tribunal. In this connection I would refer to the ruling reported in A.I.R. 1965 S.C., 155 (Tata Oil Mills Co. Ltd. vs. their workmen). In that case, it has been held that the dismissed employee cannot lead evidence before the Tribunal to substantiate the plea. It is therefore not necessary for me to discuss the evidence which has been adduced before the Tribunal to show that in fact Kalo was assaulted but even if it be supposed that there is some evidence regarding the assault of Kalo, that evidence certainly would not show that Kalo himself did not assault Kisto Das with the hacksaw knife inflicting the bleeding injury on his belly. The action of Kalo Roy certainly is a misconduct under section 20 (q) of the Standing Orders of the Company. He is therefore liable to be dismissed by the management. The dismissal therefore was justified.

In view of my above findings, I am of opinion that Kalo Roy is not entitled to get any relief. This is my award.

AWARD

The Government of West Bengal, by Order No. 2069-I.R./IR/10L-106/64, dated the 5th June 1964, had referred the following industrial dispute between Messrs. Britannia Mechanical Works & Foundry, 34/35 Hurrogunj Road, P.O. Issue

Whether the termination of service of Shri Dilbahadur and Shri Mahanta Kairi is justified? What relief, if any, are they entitled to?

After the service of the usual notice, the Union on behalf of the workmen had filed a written statement and the Company had also filed a written statement. In the written statement filed on behalf of the workmen by the Union, it is stated that the Company employs about 200 workmen including men under contractors and has been earning huge profits every year, and that Shri Dilbahadur and Shri Mahanta Kairi were permanent workmen working in the capacity of the durwan and the driver respectively. On the 20th September 1963, Mahanta Kairi was refused work by the Company and was told verbally that his services were no longer required. Similarly on the 23rd September 1963, Shri Dilbahadur was told that his service was no longer required from the 23rd September 1963, and he was refused work by the Company. No charge-sheet was served on either of them and no reason was given as to why work was refused to these permanent workmen. There was conciliation proceeding, but due to the attitude of the Company, the conciliation proceeding failed. As the workmen are not guilty of any misconduct or omission, the action of the management is wholly illegal, unfair and unjust and also amounts to victimisation because of the active participation in the work of the union by these two workmen. It is prayed that these two workmen might be reinstated with full compensation for the period of forced unemployment.

In the written statement filed on behalf of the Company it has been stated that the persons employed directly by the Company number only 40 to 50 and if orders are received from the customers which are not permanently executed in the factory oft he employer these are given out on contract to individual contractors from time to time as and when required, and the employer is not aware of the number of persons employed by the independent contractor under them. It is further alleged that the Company is suffering from serious handicaps due to non-availability of the raw materials. It is further not disputed that Dilbahadur was the durwan and Mahanta Kairi was the driver and were permanent workmen. With regard to Mahanta Kairi it is stated that he had remained absent without any application for leave or sanction thereof from the 24th August 1963. As he continued to remain absent for more than 10 days in an unauthorised manner, he made himself liable for discharge under the relevant provisions of the Standing Orders. He was therefore discharged by the employer with effect from 20th September 1963 and a new driver had been appointed in the vacancy caused thereby. This workmen had reported on the 1st October 1963 and was then told that his service had been terminated on account of his unauthorised absence in excess of ten days in accordance with the Standing Orders of the Company. The Company denies that the workman Mahanta had reported on the 20th September 1963 and was then told that his service was no longer required. With regard to Dilbahadur, it is stated that while he was employed as a durwan of the factory, certain scrap materials belonging to the Company had been removed in collusion with Dilbahadur at about midnight of the 16th September 1963. Some five or six workmen had reported this matter and had also stated that Dilbahadur was present and did not take any action and then the Supervisor at once went to the spot; on seeing the Supervisor the thieves fled and when the Supervisor interrogated the durwan, he kept silent. In the morning of 17th May 1963, the Supervisor had reported to the Manager about the incident and the Manager then called for the durwan in his office and after hearing the durwan and the Supervisor, the Manager was prima facie satisfied about the charge of complicity in theft, and deliberate default in duty. Thereafter the durwan was asked to say regarding the charge of complicity, but the durwan kept silent. Then the durwan was told that the matter would be referred to the police and then the durwan broke down and pleaded guilty and prayed for mercy. Thereafter the durwan was never found in the factory premises and had fled for fear of prosecution. As no trace of Dilbahadur could be found, neither criminal case, nor disciplinary action could be taken. The management denies that Dilbahadur was informed verbally on 23rd September 1963 that his service was no longer required or that he was refused work and alleges that as Dilbahadur had voluntarily abandoned his service, there was no scope or occasion for criminal or disciplinary action. With regard to the conciliation proceeding, it is stated that the Conciliation Officer was satisfied regarding the grounds as stated by the employer. Lastly, the allegation of victimisation and the allegation regarding the alleged illegality are all denied, and it is stated that the workmen are not entitled to any relief.

During the pendency of this case before this Tribunal, there was a talk of settlement from 3rd May 1965 and finally on 31st May 1965 the dispute has been settled by the employer and the Union representing the worker. It has been provided that the Union will not press for reinstatement of the two workmen named Mahanta Kairi and Dilbahadur and that the employer will pay Rs. 700 to Mahanta Kairi and Rs. 500 to Dilbahadur and these persons will also get earned wages and wages for leave due together with bonus if any in the last week of June 1965. I have considered the terms of settlement and I am of opinion that the terms are reasonable, bona fide and proper and may be given effect to.

I therefore, pass a "no dispute" award in terms of the petition of compromise which should be marked as Annexure "A" to the award. This is my award.

Issue

Whether the dismissal of the following workmen is justified? To what relief, if any, are they entitled?

(1) Shri Habib Majhi, (2) Shri Ashek Majhi, (3) Shri Farasat Majhi, (4) Shri Hanif, (5) Asghar, (6) Shri Nawaji, (7) Shri Gafoor, (8) Shri Sk. Shamsu, (9) Shri Sk. Alladdin, (10) Shri Sk. Tamiz, (11) Shri Sk. Kabir, (12) Shri Sk. Habib, (13) Shri Sk. Harman, (14) Shri Sk. Shevan, (15) Shri Sk. Salaiman, (16) Shri Sk. Umed Ali, (17) Shri Osman.

Briefly put the case of the aggrieved employees is as follows :

Shri Habib and Shri Ashek and Sri Farasat are very old employees of the employer opposite party. The Company took it that these three majhis were notorious for their trade union activities and so by its order, dated 6th January 1958, 13th January 1958 and 15th January 1958, it dismissed Shri Farasat, Shri Ashek and Shri Habib Majhi respectively with intent to do them harm. In utter violation of the principles of natural justice the aforesaid three majhis were dismissed without any reason or rhyme whatsoever. The remaining 14 persons who happened to be all dandees were similarly dealt with by the Company to their great prejudice. Hence the present move of the workers for redress of their grievance namely for their reinstatement for retrenchment compensation and for other dues to which they think they are entitled.

The aforesaid case of the workers has been challenged by the Company. With regard to Farasat Majhi the simple case of the Company is that Shri Farasat is an employee of a different Company altogether. All the 14 dandees also according to the company are not employees of Messrs. R. K. Chatterjee & Sons, they being all along employed and maintained by their respective majhis. The two majhis Habib and Ashek were dismissed by the Company because of their misconduct which was exposed in the matter of their dealings with the chain and anchor of their respective boats. The grievance of the Company in that respect is that these two workers had disposed of or rather misappropriated the properties of the Company, thus deserving the punishment which was inflicted upon them by the Company.

In view of the aforesaid mutual cases of the parties, their points of agreement and differences I am to consider first of all whether any relationship of employee and employee existent between the parties namely between Farasat and 14 dandees on the one hand and the Company on the other. I am also to consider whether their dismissal was justified in the facts and circumstances of the case. In fine, I shall have to decide as to what relief they are entitled.

With regard to Farasat the best evidence concerning the question as to whether he was at any time an employee of Messrs. R. K. Chatterjee & Sons is constituted by the deposition given by Farasat himself P.W.1. The first line of his deposition is as follows :

"I was an employee of Messrs. R. K. Chatterjee Bros." Such is the evidence of Habib P.W.6 (vide page 2 of his deposition). And this is also the case of the Company as adumbrated in their written statement at para. 10 thereof. As a court of law I think I am bound to accept this undisputed or rather the admitted fact elicited in course of the trial of the case. Farasat thus being an employee of a different company altogher namely of Messrs. R. K. Chatterjee & Sons. is not entitled in my judgment to any relief whatsoever in connection with the present dispute between him and Messrs. R. K. Chatterjee & Bros., the latter Company prima facie being a different Company altogether.

The fate of the 14 dandees as noted in the order of reference is not better than that of Farasat. Rightly the Company opposite party has raised the point namely that the dandees cannot be construed as employees of the Company, they being employed and maintained throughout by the majhis of their respective boats. The evidence of Juman O.P.W.1 is that the majhis are appointed by the Company whereas the dandees are appointed by the majhis. His further evidence is that the dandees never go to the office of the Company to receive their salary and when the dandees go to their native places they beg leave not of the Company but of their respective majhis. In this version Juman stands strongly and materially corroborated by the testimony of Salim Majhi O.P.W.2, Yusuf Majhi O.P.W.3 as also by the witnesses as on the side of the boateman themselves. Thus the evidence of Ashak Majhi P.W.1 as elicited by way of cross-examination is that he as a majhi used to select the danpees themselves and he used to pay the dandees their respective monthly salaries out of the total emoluments he received from the company in lump. He alone used to pay his left thum impression towards acquittance of the monthly salaries including the dues of the dandees (vide P.W.1 page 3). Such is also the evidence of Asgar P.W.5 at page 5 of his cross-examination.

The evidence of Shri Habib P.W.6 supports also to a great extent the case of the Company. His evidence is that thenames of the dandees were never noted in any book of theCompany whatsoever. Indeed if there was as a matter of fact any relationship of master and servant between the Company and those dandees there would have been in all probability of the matter a tacit reference of the names of those dandees within the books of the accounts of the Company concerned. It is significant to note in this connection that the boatmen have filed their respective licence forms vide Ext 2 series. These licence forms show that they were granted to the majhi but never to the dandees. This means and implies that the dandees were never recognised by the Company opposite party to be their employees although it might be that they worked within the boats owned and maintained by the opposite parties. The 14 danees therefore in my judgment are not entitled to any relief whatsoever in connection with this case. It is true that the case of these poor dandees deserve every sympathy and consideration of this Labour Court and in that view of the matter I am in entire accord with Shri Anil Banerjee larned lawyer appearing for the Union before me. Take for example said Mr. Banerjee the case of Habib dandee who was a very old worker of the Company and who was driven out all on a sudden with no benefits of gratuity, etc. Mr. Banerjee indeed is very right in respect of this submission of his but I must also at the same time express my utter inability to oblige Mr. Banerjee's client for the reason already disclosed above. It is high time for the legislature to cast its eyes in this sphere of law so that the poor dandees are not left out of consideration by courts of law equity and natural justice. Mr. Banerjee in course of his argument invited my attention to an agreement between the boatmen's Union and their members whereby the status of the dandees was sought to be raised to the level of the employees of the respective Companies. The original agreement however was never produced before me. What was produced was a certified copy thereof and that too long after the evidence was recorded in full by my predecessor in office. I think it would not be proper for me in the facts and circumstances of the case to consider this document supplied by the Union side. However, for ends of justice I have perused the contents of the agreement. It does not appear that the Company namely Messrs. R. K. Chatterjee & Sons was evera a party to that agreement. Nor does it appear in the facts and circumstances of the case as elicited in course of the trial that this agreement was acted upno or given effect to by the Union or the Company. As I have already disclosed the Company never recognise the dandees to be their employees. As a matter of fact the dandees were appointed by their majhis, and what is more they used to be maintained and paid in a sense by their respcetive dandees. Leaue used to be sanctioned by the respective majhis teus implying the fact that they were under the full control of their respective majhis. Such being the case I once more express my utter inability to grant any relief to these poor dandees.

Now remains the case of Ashek and Habib, both of whom admittedly were employed as majhis under the Company opposite party. The grievance of the Company is that these workers had disposed of and had misappropriated the chain and anchor of their respective boats and that they were therefore dismissed by the Company. This grievance in my judgement is more imaginary than real. Truly speaking there is not an iota of evidence on record to show as to how and in what circumstances these properties of the boats were disposed of by these two workers. None saw them selling or otherwise disposing of these properties. The case of the two majhis Ashek and Habib is that the chain and the anchor had been simply torn assunder by the tidal bore which had affected that area. I have believed this case of the two workers to be true because it fits in with the facts and circumstances of the case. Parts of the torn chains were shown to my predecessor in office. Company's own witness O.P.W.1 Shri Juman said in his cross-examination that the chains and the anchor of the boats of Ashek and Habib were swept away on the spot (vide page 5 of his deposition). I attach great importance to the aforesaid observation of Sk. Juman inasmuch as he appear to be on the spot witness of the subject under enquiry. It is no wonder that on the face of these facts and circumstances on record that Habib would be acquitted by the Criminal Court in connection with the charge of theft which had been levelled against him by the Company concerned.

There is still another reason why I should not justify the other of dismissal of the two majhis aforesaid. It is a fundamental proposition of law that principles of natural justice should be rigidly obeyed and observed while dealing with the fates of the worker of a particular Company. Was, natural justice observed in the case of these two workers? The answer to that question lies in the negative. It would transpire from the materials on record, that no domestic enquiry whatsoever was conducted before the punishment was inflicted upon the delinguent workers. It is true that Shri Taradas Mookherjee O.P.W.8 has tried to save the situation by saying that he had enquired into the matter and that he was satisfied to find out the guilt of the workers in that respect. This enquiry led by Shri Taradas Mookherjee is not however an enquiry worth the name. It is a shame transaction entered into between Taradas O.P.W.8 on the one hand and the Company on the other wherin I am afraid the workors joined never as parties. It would transpire from the evidence of Taradas Mookherjee that in connection with his enquiry again Habib was never present at all. Indeed the latter was never informed of the date of enquiry. In this connection Taradas Mookherjee submitted a report to his master. This report has not been filed before me on the plea that the report was a verbal one. Considering all the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case I hold that the dismissal order of the company passed in connection with the said two majhis namely Ashek and Habib can never to justified.

Next comes the question of granting reliefs to the aforesaid two men. Ordinarily reinstatement is said to be an appropriate relief in the matter of retrenched workers. The question arises whether Habib should be so reinstated. In my judgment Habib is not a fit person to be reinstated.

It comes out from the Company's documents [vide Ext. 3(f)] that majhis take recourse to their retirement at 60 years of age. Before me (at the time of argument) Habib said that he was on the wrong side of 60 years. So Habib will simply get in my judgment retrenchment benefit plus gratuity because I also find from the materials on record that the benefit regarding gratuity is now showered up on all the majhis of the company. Ashek however being every youngman in that respect deserves to be reinstated at once. He should also get retrenchment compensation. Let me calculate the sums myself so that the poor workers are not put into the further trouble of moving this court aforth through an application under section 33C of the Industrial Disputes Act for consentation of benefits.

The dues of Ashek tantamounts in my calculation to Rs. 600 and that of Habib to Rs. 9,200. I have arrived at the aforesaid two sums not arbitrarily but having due regard to the overall facts and circumstances of the case inceuding the nature of the work of the majhis, their duration of services, their pay, etc. The Company opposite party is directed to pay the aforesaid sums to the two workers within two months from this date failing which legal consequences would ensue.

With regard to other relief claimed I have already made it clear that Habib is not entitled to reinstatement but Ashek is. The Company is therefore also directed to reinstate Ashak on his reporting for duty within 15 days from the publication of this award.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Aluminium Corporation of India Ltd., 7 Council House Street, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by the (i) Aluminium Mazdoor Union, J. K. Nagar, district Burdwan, and (ii) Aluminium Corporations' Calcutta Employees' Association, 23A Netaji Subhas Road, Calcutta-1. (G. O. No. 980-I.R., dated 27th February 1961). (VIII.-82 of 61.)

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present :

Shri R. BHATTACHARYA, M.A., LL.B., Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the Mazdoor Union : Shri Patit Paban Pathak.

For the Employees' Association : Shri Pradyut Ghosh.

For the Company : Shri D. Prokash.

The present industrial dispute between Messrs. Aluminium Corporation of India Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the Company) and their workmen represented by (i) the Aluminium Mazdoor Union, J. K. Nagar, district Burdwan, and (ii) the Aluminium Corporation's Calcutta Employees' Association, 23A Netaji Subhas Road, Calcutta-1, arises out of the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 980-I.R./IR/10L-37/61, dated 27th February 1961, with the following issue :

What should be the quantum of bonus payable to the workmen for the year ended 31st March 1959 ?

After due notices the parties appeared and submitted their written statements. In short, the case of the Aluminium Mazdoor Union (hereinafter described as the Union) is that the Company is a prosperous and progressive concern. The Union raised a dispute regarding bonus for the year 1958-59 before the Pujas and the Company paid gratuity bonus at the rate of 1/16th of the net basic earnings during the 12th months ending 31st March 1959. The company, according to the Union, made sufficient profit during the year to pay to each workman three months' earnings as bonus. The workmen demanded bonus equivalent to three months' wages but the Company refused to meet the demand. As no conciliation could be possible, the Governmnt referred this matter to this Tribunal to adjudicate upon the issue. The Union demands three months' wages as bonus. The Aluminium Corporation's Calcutta Employees' Association (hereinafter described as the Association) filed a similar written statement.

The Company in its written statement has stated that the workmen were not entitled to any bonus whatsoever but the Company of its own accord paid gratuity bonus at the rate of 1/16th of the net basic earnings during the 12 months ending 31st March 1959. It has been stated that although the Company was established in 1937, it suffered losses up to the year 1955-56, and that the ordinary share-holders did not as such get any divident during that period. The Company denies that it is a prosperous concern. The Company asserts in its written statement that the trading results of the Company do not warrant any payment of bonus to the workmen.

In this case the Union has produced several papers and documents to be used as evidence, and the Company has also produced a large number of statements and documents towards evidence. Those papers have been marked exhibits in this case. On the side of the wrokmen, the Secretary of the Association has been examined as P.W.1 and the Company has examined five witnesses on its side. O.P.W. 1 is the Assistant Secretary of the Company. O.P.W. 2 is the executive (technical) of the Company. He is a graudate in Chemical Engineering. O.P.W. 3 has been examined as an expert in the matter of machineries. O.P.W. 4 has been examined as an expert in the matter of Civil Engineering. O.P.W.5 is the General Manager of the Company.

Admittedly, in the present case the workmen got bonus for the year in question to the extent of 1/16th of the net basic earnings during the 12 months ending 31st March 1959. There is no dispute that the financial year of the Company is from 1st April to the end of March following. The Company described the bonus as gratuity bonus. The issue of bonus relates to the year ending 31st March 1959. The main question before me is whether according to the Full Bench formula there is any available surplus so as to declare bonus to the workmen more than 1/16th of the net basic earning already paid to them as bonus, and if the question is answered in affirmative, I am to decide about the quantum of bonus payable to each workman. The balance-sheet of the Company for the relevant year has been marked Ext. "P" in this case. Before me the Union wants to rely upon Ext. 3, a statement for calculating available surplus. At first the Company filed a statement to show the calculation about available surplus and that has been marked Ext. 6. Subsequently, however, at a very late stage of the case the Company filed another statement which has been marked Ext. A. The Company now wants to rely upon this Ext. A.

There is no dispute that the profit made during the year 1958-59 as per balance-sheet is Rs. 35,89,884. This position is accepted. During argument both the parties agreed before me that to the amount of profit mentioned above, the sum of Rs. 57,020 should be added back for provision for bonus for the year in question. The admitted gross profit for the year, therefore, comes to Rs. 36,46,884.

From the amount of Rs. 36,46,884, the amount for notional normal depreciation is to be deducted. In Ext. A the Company has given the amount as Rs. 8,40,168. P.W. 1, the Secretary of the Association, has stated that the amount of Rs. 8,40,168 towards depreciation is the normal depreciation for the year 1958-59. Exhibit 5 is the statement about rehabilitation submitted by the workman. At page 2 of the said exhibit the amount of depreciation for the year has been shown as Rs. 8,40,168. P.W. 1 has stated "I accept the amount of depreciation in Ext. 5 as correct also..... The statements made in Ext. 5 are accepted by us as corect." On the evidence on record I accept the amount of depreciation given by the Company in Ext. A. I, therefore, deduct the amount of Rs. 8,40,168 from the sum of Rs. 36,46,884 towards notional normal depreciation. The amount after this deduction comes to Rs. 28,06,716.

The Company wants further deduction under the head "extraneous income". According to the Company as shown in Ext. A a sum of Rs. 1,84,862 is the extraneous income. Exhibit B and Ext. B/1 are the statements filed by the Company to show extraneous income. Of course, original and reliable documents of accounts have not been filed to support the statement. In connection with this item O.P.W. 1, the Assistant Secretary of the Company has stated, "electric charges, extra furniture hire, colony realisations are almost regular features of receipt of the Company. They have been mentioned in Ext. B/1. The Company maintains some buses and cars and it realises amounts from the workmen and officers for their use of the same. The amount stated in Ext. B/1 is the surplus left after the expenses of the buses and cars. This amount is a short of profit out of the buses and cars. It is a regular feature of the Company. Share transfer fees, share subdivision fees and duplication script fees are also regular features. They are mentioned in Ext. B/1. They are entered in the Account Books of the Company. The Accounts Department maintains all these papers. The items mentioned in Ext. B are entered in our Account Books duly maintained by our Accounts Department." There may be instances of extraneous income due either to some part of the profits not having been earned in the relevant year or to some part of profits arising out of fortuitous circumstances not at all connected with efforts of labour. A third category may be the income arising out of sale of fixed or capital assets. Income arising during the year in the normal course of business of the concern cannot be called extraneous income merely on the ground that no direct connection between the efforts of labour and the accrual of the income has been established. The nature of the extraneous income has been indicated in the decision of this case of Tata Oil Mills Company Limited reported in A.I.R., 1959, SC, at page 1065. I have considered Exts. B and B/1 and I allow the sum of Rs. 9,088 towards profit on sale of car and machinery and the sum of Rs. 42·54 towards change in coinage as extraneous income. The sum of Rs. 9,130·54 should be deducted from the amount of Rs. 28,06,716. After this deduction we get Rs. 27,97,585·46.

The next items of deduction are income tax and wealth tax payable. The Union and the Association have agreed along with the Company at the time of argument that the income tax to be deducted amounts to Rs. 16,20,644 that the wealth tax payable is Rs. 1,44,327 and that these two amounts should be deducted in favour of the Company. After the said deductions we come to Rs. 10,32,614·46 P.

The next item is Return on paid up capital. On this head again there is no dispute between the parties before me. The accepted amount is Rs. 5,80,000. After this item we get Rs. 4,42,614·46 P.

The Company however fights hard on the questions of Returns on reserves used as working capital and rehabilitation charges. In Ext. A the Company has claimed Rs. 2,96,000 as retrun on reserve used. Previously, however, the Company claimed Rs. 2,70,176 in Ext. 6. The onus is upon the Company to prove its own claim to the statisfaction of the Tribunal by producing reliable materials. A huge number of documents in the forms of statements or claims will not be sufficient without reliable and acceptable materials or evidence to support them. The Company must prove how much amount of any reserve was available for using the same as working capital This only will not be sufficient. The Company must also prove satisfactorily how much of the available reserve was actually utilised as working capital in the year under cosideration. If it is proved that any portion of the reserve was so utilised, then the Company will be entitled a reasonable rate of return on the reserve used. The amount thus ascertained should be deducted as a prior charge in finding out the available surplus for the purpose of bonus.

The present reference was received by this Tribunal on 9th March 1961. The Company filed its written statement on 18th July 1961. 1st August 1961 was fixed for filing documents by the parties. After about a year the Company filed a statement of prior charges on 6th July 1962. That statement has been marked Ext. 6. Schedule D to Ext. 6 is a statement of reserves alleged to have been utilised as working capital during the year ended 31st March 1959. According to this statement the amount of Rs. 67,54,410 was utilised as working capital. Exhibit A on which the Company now wants to rely was filed on 26th February 1964, when the case was teken up for hearing. At this stage the Company wants to say that an average sum of Rs. 73,99,985 was utilised as working capital during the year in question. Several statements have been filed by the Company. Exhibit 1 is a statement showing computation of working capital. It has been prepared by Chartered Accountants. None of them have been examined in this case. Moreover, it does not prove that any reserve was actually used as working capital. Exhibit 1/2 is another statement regarding working capital month by money. This statement is of no use as no book of account or other reliable material has been produced to support it. Exhibit 1/3 is a similar worthless document without any reliable basis. Similarly Ext. 1/4 is a document which is not supported by any book of account.

O.P.W. 1, the Assistant Secretary of the Company, has said that the amount of reserve used as working capital mentioned in Ext. A is higher than the amount of the same item mentioned in Ext. 6. The reason has not been satisfactorily given. The discrepancy has not been properly explained away. The claims in Ext. A and Ext. 6 have not been supported by satisfactory and reliable books of account or other materials. The Balance-Sheet and the Profit and Loss Account of the Company do not prove anywhere that any part of the reserve was actually utilised as working capital or how it was used. O.P.W 1 has stated that the whole of the general reserve, the whole of premium on shares, the whole of development rebate reserve and a portion of depreciation reserve were used as working capital. He has further stated that the position of the current assets and liabilities in respect of several months mentioned in Ext. 1/2 are based on monthly accounts of the Company. It is to be noted that the Company has withheld all papers of account lest they may go against it. O.P.W. 1 has further stated that there is no separate ledger maintained for the reserve. This is something strange. There must be some papers or books of account in respect of the reserves. But no such evidence has been produced before me. O.P.W. 5 is the General Manager of the Company. By his oral evidence he wants to support the claim made in Ext. A. On perusal of the statements and balance-sheets exhibited on the side of the Company, O.P.W. 5 has given evidence. His evidence is that the premium on share was utilised as working capital to the extent of Rs. 574,162 and that the general reserve was also utilised to the extent of Rs. 25 lakhs. His further evidence is that the Company used depreciation reserve as working capital to the extent of Rs. 44 lakhs. This witness does not, however, specifically speak about development rebate reserve. It is not difficult for a witness to make oral statements in support of his claim. It is also easy for a party to prepare statements in support of a claim. Such statements should not be accepted unless they are corroborated or supported by reliable necessary and satisfactory witness or material or evidence or any other reliable circumstances. In the present case the Company wants to rely upon some written statements and figures without any reliable basis or material produced before me. In the facts and circumstances of this case I cannot hold that any portion of the reserves of the Company was used as working capital during the year 1958-59. The claim of the Company for return on reserves used as working capital is rejected.

The last item I am to deal with is the claim of the Company towards Rehabilitation Charges. At the earlier stage of the case the Company's claim was Rs. 728,130 as would be evident in Ext. 6. At a very late stage, however, the Company filed a revised calculation which has been marked as Ext. A. In this statement the Company's claim comes to Rs. 25,00,351. The workmen have, however, contended that the Company is not entitled to any amount under this head. The Company has filed a large number of statements relating to this item. Some witnesses on the side of the Company have also deposed in connection with this claim. The onus is upon the Company, however, to prove the claim regarding prior charges. O.P.W.1, the Assistant Secretary of the Company, has stated that as he found that the prior charges statement, filed earlier, that is to say Ext. 6 was defective, he revised the same and prepared Ext. A. He has stated, "The increase in the amount of rehabilitation charges mentioned in Ext. A is due to the fact that the calculation in Ext. 6 was made according to A. C. C. formula, and the calculation in Ext. A is based upon actual quotations and expert's reports on the life." For the purpose of rehabilitation charges this witness relies upon the statements marked Ext. J series. He has stated the original cost of plant amd machineries and the cost of buildings are taken from the balance-sheets. Exhibits J(4) is a rehabilitation statement regarding boiler plant. Exhibit J(5) relates the statement relating to power house machinery. Exhibits J (6) and J(7) speak about colliery machineries. Exhibit J(8) relates to cell house. Exhibits J(9) to J(12) relates to other plants and machineries. These statements contain price of machineries, erection cost, replacement cost, and a calculation regarding amounts for rehabilitation claimed by the Company. O.P.W. 1 has stated that the total original cost mentioned in Ext. J(4) are taken from the balance-sheet and that the details of machineries of different departments are taken from departmental schedules. Additions after 1945, according to this witness, are taken from the Plant and Machineries Register. The witness has further said that Exts. J(5) to J(12) are parepared according to the departmental schedules and Plant and Machinery Register. According to the witness, the original vouchers are there and that they may be produced, if necessary. It is to be noted that the departmental schedules have not been produced before this Tribulal in support of the statements made. All relevant and original vouchers have not also been produced. The Assistant Secretary has stated during evidence that the replacement cost mentioned in Ext. J(4) to Ext. J(12) are based on quotations received by the Company and that the residual life of the machineries has been ascertained by Dr. Basu after his inspection. The witness has also stated that as the details of machineries were not available up to 1945, the maximum period was taken for their life during pre-1945 period. If the details could not be traced, I fail to understand on what basis the life can be ascertained. Moreover, how the maximum period was arrived at and on what basis has not been explained. According to O.P.W.1 this view has been taken in respect of all machineries mentioned in Exts. J(4) to J(12). According to the witness the actual life of machineries in respect of other periods the view of Dr. Basu was taken. The Plant and machineries, the witness goes on to say, mentioned in pre-1945 period were all in existence during the year 1958-59 and they were being used by the Company. Without reliable register of plants and machineries or other documents, it is difficult to accept that the palant and machineries during the period before 1954 were being used. There is no reliable evidence to prove when those machineries were acquired. O.P.W. 1 wants to say that the registers of plant and machineries up to March 1944 could not be filed as those were lost in the Income tax Office. There is no reliable evidence to accept this statement. It appears further from the evidence of this witness that the register for the year 1944-45 was not relied upon as it could not be completed. No reason has been given why it was not completed. The reason is not far to seek. Either no such register was maintained or the company did not maintain any such register in due course of business. Exhibit O is the plant and machineries register from April 1944 to March 1948. But the witness himself did not rely upon this register for the year 1944-45 as the statement for that year was not completed for want of details, because the details were not available. No explanation has been given as to why the details were not available. I have gone through the register and I find that some pages contain some amounts although descriptions have not been given. I fail to understand why some amounts were entered in this register without giving descriptions for the same. Several entries have been penned through without any intitial. Several pages have been left blank for best reasons known to the Company. According to the Assistant Secretary Ext. J(18) is based upon building register of the Company wherein the original costs are not available. This is strange and most objectionable. Why original costs were not entered has not been expalined by the Company. The witness has stated that Ext. J(18) is based upon original cost taken from departmental schedules. No departmental schedule has been filed. The reason is obvious. If really any such schedule is produced, it will go against the Company. By 'schedule' the witness means statements of details of machineries wherein original costs are given. The Assistant Secretary of the Company has clearly stated that he cannot say why the original costs of the buildings are not given in the Building Registers. We get from this witness also that the original costs in Exts. J(20) to J(25) are taken from the departmental schedules. In the absence of the departmental schedules they are worthless. O.P.W 1 says in evidence that the multipliers given in the exhibits and statements are based on certificate given by Messrs. Ballardi Thompson & Mathews, Architecture & Engineers. These engineers, according to the witness, gave the residuary life of the buildings after inspection. None of Messrs. Ballardi Thompson & Mathews have come before this Tribunal to explain how multipliers supplied to this company were arrived at. There is no convincing and reliable evidence either reagrding the residuary life of buildings. Exhibits J(13) is a statement regarding the cost of some machineries. In this statement some vouchers have been referred to. O.P.W. 1 has admitted that none of the vouchers mentioned in Ext. J(13) have been filed in this case in support of this statement. In cross-examination this witness has admitted that the Registers of machineries were not audited. Three such registers have been filed. They are Exts. O, O/1 and O/2. Of these registers Ext. O/1 bears some signature but the witness cannot say whose signature it is. The witness has admitted that the other registers do not bear any signature. With regard to the building register, Ext. O/3, filed by the Company, I must say that it is most unreliable like plant and machinery registers. On 19th March 1964 when my attention was brought to the fact that the Company filed copies of registers, I directed the Company to file the original ones. That very day the Company admitted through Shri Prokash, its officer, who was conducting the case, that the building register was a copy prepared only three months back, that is to say in or about December 1963 and that the Company did not possess any other building register. Clearly, therefore, Ext. O/3, the building register, is not the original register. It was not maintained in due course of business. No explanation has been given how or on what basis this building register has been prepared for this case. The papers or materials out of which the register has been prepared have not been produced before this Tribunal. I should say that this register, Ext. O/3, has been manufactured for the purpose of this case without any reliable basis. I have commented on the plant and machinery registers, Exts. O to O/2. They are also most unreliable and unacceptable. They have not been supported by any reliable witness, evidence or other vouchers. I reject Ext. O series as unacceptable.

I shall take one instance to see how unreliable O.P.W. 1 is regarding his calculation for rehabilitation charges. Let us take Ext. J(4), the rehabilitation statement in respect of boiler plant. According to the Company, the price of Lentges boiler mentioned in item No. 13 of Ext. J(4) has been taken from the Plant and Machinery Register. The Company has given the details in Ext. J(13). The erection cost of this plant, according to the Company, will be found in Ext. J(4) in item No. 13 amounting to Rs. 2,59,725 and this erection cost of the plant has been arrived at on the basis of the percentage of the original price of the plant. According to Ext. J (4) the original price of Lentges boiler was Rs. 1, 298, 614. How this amount has been arrived at has been given in Ext. J (13). In this exhibit several amount had been added up and the total comes to Rs. 1, 298, 614. The descriptions of the amount have not been given. Only voucher numbers have been mentioned, Of course, the original vouchers have not been produced and I must say purposely. This amount may be found in Ext. O/1 at page 84, we get two item and at page 93 we get some other item. One of the item at page 93 relates to services of fitters for the erection of the boiler plant in question and the amount against this item is Rs. 40,811. This amount certainly relates, according to the company, to the erection cost of boiler but surprisingly this amount has been included in the original price of the boiler. Besides inclusion of this amount for erection cost in the original price of the boiler, the compny has in Ext. J (4) claimed erection cost of the boiler to the extent of Rs. 2,59,725, and this amount has been arrived at on the percentage basis. The company has avoided actual expenses incurred in connection with the plant and inflated the amount for erection cost adopting percentage basis and this was done most unreasonably and not honestly. I fail to understand how erection costs appearing at page 93 of Ext. O/3 would be included in the original price of the boiler and again without claiming the actual erection cost of the Company adopted an unfair basis of percentage. O.P.W. 1., therefore, apears not only incorrect but I have no hesitation in my mind to say that his calculations and endeavours were unfair in order to show a heavy amount towards rehabilitation charges without any reasonable basis. The conduct of O.P.W.1 shows how the Company has been making attempts to make out a false case of rehabilitation charges suppressing the real state of affairs and withholding reliable evidence. This conduct would be evident from Ext. A. Even after filing Ext. 6, O.P.W.1 has stated that the calculation of the erection cost of the plant and machinery mentioned in Ext. J(4) was made on percentage basis mentioned therein and not according to the actual expenses incurred. The witness has not stated why the actual expenses were not considered. The reason is quite clear. The percentage basis has been adopted because in that case the Company will be able to show heavier amount for deduction from the gross profit. The witness has further admitted that balance-sheet would not show the details of the cost of machinery. I have found that the Registers of plant and machineries and buildings are unreliable and unacceptable. In these circumstances, therefore, the original costs of the machineries and buildings have not been proved before me. The dates of acquisition of plant and machineries and buildings have neither been satisfactorily proved. O.P.W.1 has stated clearly that some specimen vouchers have been placed before this Tribunal and not the main vouchers. Why has not the Company filed the necessary, important and reliable vouchers in this case ? The answer has not been given. From this witness of the Company we also get that the costs of buildings mentioned in Ext. J series are taken from the books of accounts of the Company. The Company deliberately suppressed the original books of accounts in support of the cost of buildings. O.P.W. 1 has revised the statement relating to the prior charges and he is the creator of Ext. A. It is significant to note as he has himself admitted that he has not seen any paper of the actual expenses incurred in connection with the erection of the buildings of the Company. He wants to say that he collected the material from the balance-sheet and the office notes. No further comment is necessary on the evidence of O.P.W.1. He is not a reliable witness. His evidence, rather, shows how the Company has prepared papers and statements in support of claims which have no basis.

O.P.W. 2 calls himself an Executive (Technical) of the Company. He is a graduate in Chemical Engeering. He passed the Engineering examination in 1958 and he joined the Company before obtaining the degree. His evidence is that he obtained quotations for about 70 per cent. of the machineries of the plant. Only a list of the machineries and plants mentioned in Ext. J(4) to Ext. J(12) were prepared by him. His evidence is that he prepared the replacement cost of the machineries and plants on the basis of written quotations filed in this case and also on the basis of talks he held over phone with other concerns. He says that he prepared the calculations of the erection cost of the plant and machineries on the basis of percentage and according to his experience. It is to be noted that this young man who got his degree in 1958 is but a novice in the engineering line. His evidence further shows that for the calculation of the replacement cost he sometimes used multiplier factors when he did not get any quotation and that this multiplier is based upon information received from the suppliers over the phone relating to the boiler plant for the pre-45 period. The persons who supplied multipliers have not been examined in this case. He has not personally calculated the multipliers. With regard to other plant and machineries, the witness has stated, he received several quotations and learnt the general trend in the rise of prices and on the basis of rise in that direction he gave the multipliers for boiler plant for the period after 1945. At the same time the witness has stated that he does not know the labour cost for the period before 1958 except the record of the Company. He cannot also say in what proportion the labour cost has gone up after 1958. In cross-examination the witness has stated that the basis of the multiplier is the quotations. The genuineness of the quotation has not been proved in this case. During cross-examination at one stage he stated "in item A of Ext. J(4) the ultiplier is 4·4, although there is no original price indicated therein. I ascertained the multiplier from different concerns orally. For the machineries after 1945 I obtained the original prices from the Accounts Department." It is needless to comment upon this evidence. Suffice it to say that the calculations or statements prepared by this witness on the questions mentioned are unreliable and without any sound basis. Towards the end of cross-examina tion O.P.W. 2 has stated that he does not know the original cost of the plant. It is strange that he did not make any attempt to know the original cost of the plant when, according to the Company, there are registers and departmental schedules. This witness also relied upon Exts. K and K(1) for multipliers which he gave in the statements Ext. J(20) to Ext. J (24). The person who actually prepared these multipliers from Messrs. Ballardie Thompson & Mathews has not been examined before this Tribunal. This witness relied upon to the report of Shri Bose of Messrs. Ballardie Thompson & Mathews regarding the residuary life of buildings. It is clear from the evidence of O.P.W. 2 that his calculations are worthless.

O.P.W. 3 is Dr. J. N. Bose, who has been examined by the Company as an expert. The evidence shows that he was invited to inspect the machineries and plants of the Company and inspected them during the pendency of this case. He prepared a report and submitted to the General Manager of Company. The report will be found in Ext. J(26). He assessed the residuary life of machineries and plants. This witness charged Rs. 5,000 in lump as his remuneration and he got Rs. 4,000 up to the time he gave evidence. He was to get Rs. 1,000 more. This witness was engaged by the General Manager for inspection and report. The witness has not brought the field book with him. He says that he possesses the rough field book but he cannot say if he would be able to produce it. But, in fact, that field book has not been produced. The witness did not see any record of any machinery or plant to ascertain the year of installation. The years of installation were, however, supplied by the Company. The witness, it is stated, did not see machineries of new cell house and that he collected the materials of the new cell house from the records of the Company. The witness at a late stage of cross-examination stated that he saw the old and new cell houses in operation. The witness has admitted that he did not particularly study the machineries to ascertain their age and that he got the year of installation from the Company. In the case before me there is no reliable evidence as to the date of acquisition of the plant and machineries and the buildings. The expert witness, O.P.W. 3, ascertained the residuary life of machineries after considering the years of their installation from the Corporation. The years of installations supplied by the Company have not been proved before this Tribunal as corrected on the basis of reliable data. The calculations of this witness cannot, therefore, be acceptable as reliable. On consideration of the evidence and the circumstances I do not hesitate to say that the examination and the report of O.P.W. 3 relating to the machineries and the plants have not been thoroughly and realiably done on proper basis. The evidence of this witness is not at all helpful.

The next witness is O.P.W. 4, Shri Benoy Krishna Bose, a Civil Consulting Engineer of Messrs. Ballardie Thompson & Mathews. His evidence is that he inspected the buildings of the Company on the instruction of his firm to ascertain the residuary life of the buildings. His report is Ext. K(2). His evidence shows that the year of construction of the buildings were supplied by the Company. This witness has stated that Exts. K and K(1) were supplied to the Company by Messrs. Ballardie Thompson & Mathews. The source or basis of Exts. K and K(1) has not been proved. The evidence of this witness shows that during inspection he prepared no field book of his and that he had with him the previous report prepared by his Company in 1956. He has admitted that his findings were based upon the previous report. He has not however, indicated as to the manner of calculations or the materials on which his finding was made regarding residuary life. In Ext. K(2) there is no mention of colony 'E' type quarters, Block No. 3, mentioned in item No. 24 at page 3 of the list of colony premises given in Ext. 10. The witness cannot give any reason for their omission. This witness presumed the years of construction of buildings supplied by the Company to be correct. The witness was cross-examined at length and he could not explain certain discrepancy. It is clear from the evidence of this witness that his report was not purely independent. His report was prepared on the basis of the previous report prepared by Messrs. Ballardie Thompson & Mathews in 1956. This witness did not prepare Exts. K and K(1). He did not verify whether Exts. K and K(1) will be applicable to the buildings at Jaykay Nagar. The witness has stated that in his report, Ext. K (2), he did not give entire life of any of the items. He only noted about the residuary life. In Ext. 10, however, he has noted the whole life in pencil. The witness has stated towards the end of his evidence that in his report he has given residuary life of the structures as was on 31st March 1959 and this estimate was but an approximate one. The witness has clearly stated that he did not personally see the state of construction in the year 1959 and that his estimate about that year cannot be safely relied upon. On perusal of the evidence of this witness I have no doubt about the fact that it is of no value whatsoever for ascertaining the residuary life of the buildings.

O.P.W. 5 is the General Manager of the Company. He has stated that the calculations and the accounts were prepared under his directions and supervision. He does not, however, say how he supervised in the matter of calculation or accounts or how he helped in their preparation. He has stated that he advised his Technical Assistant, Mr. Saraf, namely O.P.W. 2, to work out the calculations regarding the replacement cost. Dr. Basu was also instructed to find out the residuary life of the machineries. The witness has stated that he has got certain experience and knowledge about the residuary life of the machineries. Except this statement there is no proof that the General Manager has any knowledge as to how to ascertain the residuary life of the machineries. The witness had discussion with Dr. Basu in general about his report. Towards the end of his cross-examination the Genreal Manager has stated that the prior charges statements, Exts. A and 6, were prepared under his direction and supervision and that in or about October or November 1963 he directed for preparation of the prior charges statements which were subsequently filed in February 1964. This witness has not given any reason why he found it necessary to revise the prior charges statements filed previously or to prepare Ext. A and other statements. This witness does not help the Tribunal in any manner and he proves nothing in favour of the Company.

Another significant fact is to be noted in this case. In the present case the Company has claimed rehabilitation charges for the machineries acquired before 1944. In the previous case O.P.W. 5, Shri Bhasin, gave evidence in favour of the Company as Manager. The evidence given by him will appear at page 21 of Ext. 1, the paper book prepared in connection with an appeal before the Supreme Court of India. In that case Shri Bhasin stated that the factory had actually started production from 1944 and that it had started acquiring equipments since 1936 onwards. The life of machineries is affected considerably as soon as it starts work. If the factory really started production from 1944, the question arises whether the Company can claim rehabilitation charges for the machineries for the period before 1944.

In the present case I have gone through the evidence, both oral and documentary, and on consideration of the evidence, facts and circumstances of this case I find that the Company has failed to prove by satisfactory evidence the claim for rehabilitation and replacement charges. The Company has failed to adduce satisfactory evidence about the probable life of the plant and machineries and the buildings and their conditions in the year under consideration. It is not possible to make any finding as to the rehabilitation charges. There is no reliable evidence to show the age of the machineries, the years of their acquisition, the period during which they required replacement, and the cost of replacement. There is no evidence to prove the original cost of plant, machineries and the buildings. There is no reliable basis for ascertaining multipliers and divisors. Practically speaking, there is no reliable material before this Tribunal on which a proper calculation may be made for the purpose of rehabilitation charges. The Tribunal cannot allow any claim towards rehabilitation charges by guess or as a matter of grace. The amount of rehabilitation charge can be and should be determined on the light of evidence adduced by the employer and applying the principes laid down in the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Associated Cement Co. Ltd. reported in A.I.R. 1959, S.C., at page 967. The Company in the present case filed a large number of statements but unfortunately the statements filed are of no value because they are not supported by any reliable basis or materials. The oral evidence of a large number of witnesses will not establish the claim for rehabilitation charges unless it is supported by convincing and reliable data and papers of the Company. In the present case there is nothing to prove the claim of the Company towards the rehabilitation charges. Nothing for rehabilitation charges should, therefore, be deducted from Rs. 4,52,614.46 previously arrived at. The available surplus, therefore, for the year 1958-59 comes to Rs. 4,52,614.46 P. P.W.1, the Secretary of the Association, has stated that the total amount of monthly wages paid by the Company for the workmen at its factory and the Head Office would be between Rs. 50,000 and Rs. 52,000. The statement, it is quite clear, is not precise. O.P.W. 1, the Assistant Secretary of the Company, has stated that the total amount of basic wages which have been paid to the workmen every month will be to the extent of Rs. 63,000. There is no convincing documentary evidence to prove that the amount of Rs. 63,000 was the total wages paid to the workmen. However, if I accept this amount as acceptable, in that case there is sufficient surplus as indicated above to pay for the bonus to the workmen for the year 1958-59 to the extent of two months' basic wages. The evidence shows that the workmen have already been allowed bonus at the rate of 1/16th of the net basic earnings during the 12 months ending 31st March 1959. The claim of the workmen is for bonus to the extent of three months' basic wages. In this case I allow further bonus to the workmen for the year ending 31st March 1959 amounting to two months' basic wages in addition to the gratuity bonus already allowed by the Company. This award shall be implemented within a month from its publication in the "Calcutta Gazette."

AWARD

This is an application under section 33A, Industrial Disputes Act, by Shri Basanta Kumar Das, a workman of Messrs. Eastern Iron Works, the Company O.P., complaining of his alleged illegal and wrongful dismissal from service by the Company's letter, dated 22nd April 1963, during the pendency of the adjudication proceedings, of another dispute between the Company and its workmen, referred to this Tribunal by Govt. Order No. 3537-I.R., dated 6th August 1962, and in contravention of the relevant provisions of section 33, Industrial Disputes Act.

In response to the notice of the application served upon the Company O.P., it appeared and filed its written statement in reply to the application.

After necessary preliminary proceedings and some adjournments, the case was finally fixed for hearing on 15th May 1965. On that date, there was no appearance by and no step was taken on behalf of either party. In these circumstances, the Tribunal Suo moto adjourned the case to 9th June 1965, in order to give the parties another opportunity to appear and take part in the proceedings of the case. On 9th June 1965 the Company's representative appeared, but there was no appearance by nor was any step taken on behalf of the applicant workman. It is clear from the non-appearance of the applicant workman on two successive dates of hearing that he is not keen on prosecuting the application and has given up the dispute covered by the application. In these circumstances, there is no alternative but to dismiss the application for non-prosecution on the footing that the applicant workman has given up the dispute which has thereby ceased to exist.

In the result, I dismiss the application under section 33A, Industrial Disputes Act, for non-prosecution by the applicant workman and on the basis that the dispute has been given up by the workman.

This is my award in the case.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Indian Health Institute and Laboratory Ltd., 1 Health Institute Road, Dum Dum, Calcutta-28 and their workmen represented by the Health Institute Mazdoor Union, 43 Narendra Nath Mukherjee Road, Calcutta-28. (G. O. No. 4168-IR, dated 11th September, 1964). (Case No. 9 of 64.)

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present :

Shri R. BHATTACHARYA, M.A. LL.B., Judge,
Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union : Shri P. P. Pathak.

For the Company : Shri N. Das Gupta, Advocate, Shri D. K. Das Gupta, Advocate, and instructed by Shri H. K. Shome.

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act referred to this Tribunal by the Government of West Bengal. The parties are Messrs. Indian Health Institute and Laboratory Ltd. (referred to as the Health Institute), 1 Health Institute Road, Dum Dum, Calcutta-28, and their workmen represented by the Health Institute Mazdoor Union (described hereinafter as the Union), 43 Narendra Nath Mukherjee Road, Calcutta-28. The issues for decision are as follows :

1. Grades and scales of pay for the monthly paid workmen.

2. Dearness allowance.

3. Whether the durwans are entitled to festival holidays? What alternative relief, if any, are they entitled to ?

4. Working hours.

In short, the case of the Union is that the Health Institute is highly prosperous having sound financial position. It has been making profit every year. The wages of the workmen and the dearness allowance are meagre and unjust. There are no grades and scales of pay of the workmen. The durwans are not allowed festival holidays. They are compelled to work on holidays and they do not get any compensation. They are not allowed festival holidays as enjoyed by other workmen. The Union wants raising of the wage structure with the introduction of grades and scales of pay and also an increase in the dearness allowance. They also want that the durwans may be allowed to enjoy equally with other workmen the festival holidays.

The Health Institute, on the other hand, wants that the working hours of the Health Institute should be increased to 48 hours per week. The management says that the Health Institute is not highly prosperous and that its financial position is not so sound as alleged by the workmen. The case of the Health Institute is that if the workmen work for 48 hours in a week the concern will produce more products and earn more. According to the Factories Act, the workmen are bound to work for 48 hours in a week. It is also alleged that the pays and the dearness allowance are adequate. With regard to durwans it has been stated that they are meant for security of the properties of the Health Institute and that they are required to attend their duties on festival holidays on such conditions as they have been employed in the Health Institute. The Health Institute has been making ex-gratia payment of basic pay to the durwans for such festival holidays.

At the very outset I must mention that there has been no dispute from the side of the Health Institute about the fact that this is an industrial dispute. The workmen in this case are properly represented by the Union and I hold that this is an industrial dispute. For the sake of convenience I shall take up the issue No. 4 which relates to the working hours. At the time of argument Shri Pathak from the side of the workmen has submitted that the workmen are not unwilling to work for 48 hours in a week but at the same time they claim increase in their wages and dearness allowance because at present they are working 37 hours in a week. According to the provision of the Factories Act, the employer is entitled to increase working hours to 48 hours in a week. This issue No. 4 has been raised at the instance of the Health Institute. The Secretary of the Union, P. W. 6, has stated that he is not aware of any factory in West Bengal where the duty hours of the workers are 37 hours in a week. Exhibit K is a letter of the Union, dated 9th June, 1964, addressed to the Labour Commissioner. At page 2 of that letter the Union agreed to the proposal of the management for increase of the working hours. Of course, at the same time the Union demanded increased wages. Exhibit P is a letter written by the Health Institute to the Assistant Labour Commissioner on 25th June, 1964. At page 2 of this letter again the Health Institute stated that it was prepared to consider the case for increment of pay if the workers were agreeable to accept increased working hours. O. P. W. 2 is the Factory Manager of the Health Institute. He has stated that the demand for the medicines of this concern in the market is very high and that the Health Institute is unable to supply according to the demands. During cross examination this witness has frankly stated that if the working hours are increased to 48 hours per week there would certainly be more production and that the Company will earn more. He has also agreed that if the working hours are increased to 48 hours, there should be increase in the remuneration of the workers. From the evidence adduced in this case, I am satisfied that this is a fit case where the working hours should be increased to 48 hours in a week to avoid wastage of labour and also for raising national income. This will also help the Health Institute to pay more to the workers in the form of wages and allowances. I, therefore, decide that the management of the Health Institute shall be entitled to increase the working hours to 48 hours in a week.

I shall now take up the issue No. 1, which relates to grades and scales of pay for the monthly paid workmen. Several balance-sheets of the Health Institute have been exhibited in this case and there is no dispute before me that the Health Institute has been earning profits for the last few years. The Health Institute as well as the Union have filed several documents which have been marked exhibits in this case. Some statements have also been filed from the side of the Health Institute regarding some calculations in respect of finance and accounts. I pay little importance to them because no papers of accounts or reliable evidence or witnesses had been produced in support of these statements. Exhibits D, G, and O have not been properly proved and supported by reliable and acceptable records of accounts. Apart from the fact that the Health Institute is earning profit every year, we get the evidence of the Factory Manager, O. P. W. 2, that if the working hours are increased to 48 hours, there should be increase in the remuneration of the workers also. The ground for such increase is given by this witness when he says that there would certainly be more production and more earning on account of increase of the working hours. In the facts and circumstances of this case, therefore, the remunerations of the workers must be increased, and on account of that increase the financial position of the Health Institute will not be materially affected. Admittedly, there are no grades and scales of pay of the workers. O. P. W. 1, the Accountant of the Health Institute, has stated that there are no grades and scales of pay. From the evidence it is clear that the Health Institute has not been regularly allowing increment to the workmen in their wages. Practically speaking, the wages of the workers are stagnant. Admittedly, there has been no appreciable revision in the wages of the workmen. It is highly desirable that the service conditions of the workmen should be improved by introduction of grades and scales of pay so that the workmen may work confidently with future expectation under security.

Unfortunately, the parties in this case have not adduced any detailed evidence regarding the categories of workmen working in this concern. However, I find some lists of workmen filed by the Health Institute as well as the Union. I also find designations of different workmen working in different concerns as would be evident by some agreements regarding service conditions filed in this case. I have considered all the evidence, both oral and documentary, adduced in this case including balance-sheets of different companies, the rates of remuneration of the workmen prevalent in other concerns as stated in different agreements and charts and also Exts. G and O referred to by the Company. I have already indicated earlier that the statements filed in this case by the Company without being supported by reliable papers of accounts and other evidence are of no importance. I have also considered Ext. 12, the letter of the Company stating the minimum monthly pay and dearness allowance paid to the time-rated employees. Giving my anxious consideration to the facts and circumstances of this case I fix the following grades and scales of pay for the Health Institute :

Unskilled workers like menials, coolies, peons, bearers, durwans and other general unskilled workers—Rs.36-2-96.

Semi-skilled workers like packers, checkers, etc.—Rs.40-2-100.

Skilled workers like carpenters, masons, motor drivers fillers and sealers, boilers attendants, gas attendants, etc.—Rs.48-3-138

Laboratory assistants, supervisors, mechanics—Rs.60-5-210.

Junior chemists—Rs.70-5-120-6-240.

Senior chemists—Rs.85-6-145-8-305.

Junior clerks including typists, time-keepers, etc.—Rs.60-5-210.

Senior clerks and representatives—Rs.80-7-290.

Workmen, who are getting less than the minimum of the scales fixed by me, shall be pulled up to the minimum or the lowest stage of the scale, and those who are getting the minimum or more than the minimum in the scales shall be fitted in the next higher incremental stage in the relevant scales in relation to their existing basic pay. I make it clear that the scales I have fixed are on the basis of 48 hours work in a week.

Issue No. 2

I shall now consider the issue regarding dearness allowance. There is no dispute that the Company pays dearness allowance at the rate of 50 per cent. of the basic pay of the workmen with the minimum of Rs.25 and the maximum of the dearness allowance has been fixed at Rs.50. Admittedly also, there has been no revision in the rate of dearness allowance within recent time and that the cost of living has been rising by leaps and bounds. In these circumstances, it is just and proper that there should be some revision in the rates of dearness allowance. On consideration of the rates prevalent in other concerns as mentioned in different statements exhibited in this case on the side of the union, I fix the rate of dearness allowance at 60 per cent. of the basic pay with the minimum of Rs.35 and the maximum payable to the workmen is hereby fixed at Rs.80.

Only the issue no. 3 now remains to be decided. The question arises whether the durwans are entitled to festival holidays as allowed to other workmen. If the question is answered in negative, then the further question that arises is whether they are entitled to any other alternative relief. The union says that the durwans are not allowed festival holidays and that they are compelled to work and do their duties on such holidays. The Health Institute, on the other hand, says that the durwans being members of the security staff are to look after the Company's properties even on holidays and unless the properties are properly looked after, the Health Institute will suffer irreparable loss. The Health Institute has further stated that as the durwans are to do their duties on festival holidays, the Health Institute has been making ex-gratia payment of basic pay for such holidays. Mere payment of the basic pay for the festival holidays is not enough. There should be no unfair discrimination between one class of workers and another. Durwans are also normal human beings with human feelings and sentiments. It is not unusual for the employer to pay some allowance to the durwans if they are forced to work on festival holidays which are being enjoyed by other workmen. In addition to this allowance the Health Institute should further allow substituted holidays to the durwans in case they are required to be on duty on any festival holiday. This substituted holidays should be allowed to the durwans whenever they will claim for them provided that the durwans must claim the substituted holidays and enjoy them within a year from the date of the festival holidays in question. Such substituted holidays shall be with normal and usual remunerations.

This award must be implemented by the Health Institute with effect from the 1st of August 1965. The duty hours of the workmen for 48 hours in a week shall also start from the date fixed, but in case the Health Institute fails to fix the duty hours as mentioned by me, the grades and scales of pay already fixed by me shall not be affected thereby and the workmen shall be entitled to the benefits of the same.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION, WEST BENGAL

General information relating to age concession, fixation of initial pay, etc., in respect of posts advertised by the Commission and instructions to candidates applying in response thereto.

General concession in age

(1) (a) For political sufferers: A candidate who before 15th August 1947 was detained, imprisoned, interned or externed on account of his/her activities in connection with the country's struggle for independence, not being convicted of an offence indicating moral turpitude, shall be entitled to a concession in respect of the upper age limit. The concession granted will be equal to the exact period of detention, imprisonment, internment or externment suffered up to a maximum of four years.

(b) For Scheduled Caste/Tribe candidates: The upper age limit is relaxable by five years for candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes.

Fixation of Pay

(2) (a) For persons already in permanent Government service: If a permanent Government servant is permitted to apply and is selected for a post in open competition with outsiders, the initial pay will be fixed under rule 42 or 55 of the West Bengal Service Rules, Part I, as the case may be. If, however, such a recruit is prepared to resign his appointment under Government, before applying he will be eligible to the grant of higher initial pay on the same basis as an outsider.

(b) For a temporary Government servant having no lien on any post under the West Bengal Government when appointed to a post carrying higher scale of pay: Such an officer shall be eligible to draw as initial pay at the stage of the time-scale in the higher post which is equal to his pay in the lower post, or if there is no such stage, the stage next below that pay plus personal pay equal to the difference, to be absorbed in future increments in the higher scale, provided that he has already rendered at least three years' continuous and satisfactory service in the lower post. The aforesaid benefit of fixation of pay will not, however, be available in the following cases:

(i) when the Commission has made a specific recommendation regarding the pay to be allowed to the officer;

(ii) when under any specific rule such an officer is allowed a higher initial pay.

(c) For outsiders: Unless otherwise specified in a particular advertisement, higher initial pay on the basis of age, qualifications and experience (including experience outside Government service) may be allowed to a person not already in Government service, if the relevant advertisement contains a provision to that effect.

Instructions regarding submission of application

(3) Applications are to be made on the prescribed form which will be available from the office of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal, Anderson House (ground floor), Alipore, Calcutta-27, personally or on sending a large self-addressed envelope with stamps sufficient to cover the postage affixed to it. Candidates who are unable to obtain copies of the prescribed form may apply on any similar typed (not handwritten) form showing exactly the wording and spacing of the sample form published in the "Calcutta Gazette" of the 1st September 1955, provided the blanks are filled up in the candidates' own handwriting.

Particulars and certificates required

(4) Candidates should furnish evidence of their age, qualifications and previous experience together with certificates written not more than one year prior to the date of their applications, from responsible persons, testifying to their private character.

The Commission accepts only the age of a candidate as recorded in the Matriculation or the Secondary School Final/Leaving Certificate. In the case of a female candidate whose age is not recorded in the Matriculation or School Final Certificate, any of the following evidence of age is accepted by the Commission

(1) A certificate from the Headmistress of the School, which she last attended, showing her exact age as recorded in the school register.

(2) An affidavit regarding her age sworn by her father or mother or some other person in a position to know by having been present or heard of her birth at the time of occurrence.

(3) A certificate regarding her age, from a Member of the Legislature or a gazetted officer, who must have known the candidate and her family indicating clearly the evidence on the basis of which he/she satisfied himself/herself on the point.

Fee

(5) Candidates must enclose with their applications a fee of Rs. 5 in the form of a receipted chalan from a Government Treasury or the Reserve Bank of India under the head "XXI—Miscellaneous—Receipts of the Public Service Commission ,West Bengal". Money orders cheques, etc., in lieu of treasury chalans are not accepted. Postal Order, however, may be accepted from candidates. They should be crossed and made payable to "The Deputy Secretary, Public Service Commission, West Bengal". No application will be considered unless accompanied with the requisite application fee.

Candidates abroad may deposit their application fees with the High Commissioner of India or the Embassy, as the case may be, and obtain receipts for the same, which will have to be attached to their applications to be submitted to the Commission.

Candidates in Government service should make sure before depositing fee that their applications will be forwarded by their superior officers.

In no case will the fee paid with the application be refunded.

Note: A member of the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe claiming age concession must furnish with his application a certificate in original from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature belonging to the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe, specifying the particular caste or tribe to which he claims to belong.

Address

(6) Candidates should give their present address and should communicate at once any subsequent change of address.

Canvassing

(7) Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support of their applications through persons of influence or officials of Government will disqualify them for appointment. Spontaneous recommendation from persons interested in the candidates or otherwise known to them will be disregarded.

Forwarding of applications and submission of advance copies

(8) Applications from candidates who are in permanent or temporary employment under any Government, a local or Statutory Body (e.g., Damodar Valley Corporation), in India will be rejected unless they are submitted through the appointing authority of their posts or service.

Candidates serving under Government or a local or Statutory Body should submit an advance copy in the prescribed form. The application fee should in such cases be attached to the advance copy and not to the original. The candidature of such applicants may not however be considered if the original applications do not reach the Commission's office within a fortnight from the closing date. Unless applications in original or advance copies with application fees are received within the closing date, late applications may be rejected.

RAJYA SABHA

The following Bill was introduced in the Rajya Sabha on the 14th May, 1965:—

BILL No. XI OF 1965

A bill further to amend the Constitution of India.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Sixteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:

1. (1) This Act may be called the Constitution (Amendment) Act, 1965. Short title and commencement.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

2. In the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution,— Amendment of Seventh Schedule.

(a) entry 11 of List II—State List shall be omitted;

(b) after entry 24 of List III—Concurrent List, the following entry shall be inserted, namely:—

"24A. Education including universities, subject to the provisions of entries 63, 64, 65 and 66 of List I."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

After the attainment of Independence there has been considerable expansion in the field of education in the country. But in terms of standard and quality of educati n, in spite of a vast increase in the number of universities, colleges and schools, there has set in a stea ly and d plorable deterioration. Much of this malady is a.tributable to the lack of a co-ordinated and well planned national policy of educaton. Education is now an exclusively State subject, and educational policies differ from State to State. This is a very unsatisfactory situation, and the time has come when education should be taken out of the exclusive purview of the States and put in the Concurrent List so that Parliamen. and the Central Government would be in a position effectively to formulate and pursue a sound educational policy which may be applied uniformly throughout the country at all levels. Hence this Bill.

For the Company: Shri J. D. Mukherjee, Advocate.

AWARD

The above dispute over the issues given in the order of reference and reproduced below as referred for adjudication to this Tribunal by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 4433-I.R/IR/10L-176/64, dated the 22nd September 1964.

Issues

(1) Wages and dearness allowance.
(2) Leave.
(3) Holidays.
(4) Permanency.

The parties appeared before the Tribunal in response to notices issued to them and filed their respective written statements in due course. After necessary preliminary proceedings and some adjournments, the case was finally fixed for hearing on 29th May, 1965. On that date, there was no appearance on behalf of the Union, but the Company filed a Memorandum of Settlement of the dispute under reference concluded between the Company and the entire body of its workmen, and signed by the Company's representative and all the workmen of the Company numbering seven and praying for a compromise award in terms of the Memorandum of Settlement. As there was no appearance on behalf of the Union, I considered it necessary to put the Company to proof of the fact that the Memorandum of Settlement was signed by all the workmen of the Company and necessarily the workmen concerned in the present dispute. Shri B. K. Jethi, a partner of the Company, gave evidence and proved by his sworn testimony that this Company had only seven workmen and all the seven workmen had signed the Memorandum of Settlement. I see no reason to disbelieve his testimony. It is also significant to note that the Union has chosen not to make any appearance, though the final date of hearing was known to it and there is no opposition on behalf of the Union to the acceptance of the Memorandum of Settlement and the passing of an award on that basis. After considering all aforesaid facts and circumstances, I accept the Memorandum of Settlement as bona fide and genuine and hold that the dispute under reference has been amicably settled between the Company and the entire body of its workmen in terms of the said Memorandum of Settlement which has been signed by all its workmen and necessarily the workmen concerned in the dispute. I have also considered the terms of settlement and I accept them as quite fair and lawful. There should therefore be a compromise award in terms of the Memorandum of Settlement as prayed for by the Company.

In the result, I make a compromise award in terms of the Memorandum of Settlement, a copy whereof is made a part of the award as an Annexure.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, filed by one Sukumar Bose, an employee of the Indian Iron & Steel Co. Ltd., Burnpur, Asansol, against the aforesaid Company. (Address of the employee : C/o United Iron & Steel Workers' Union, Bari Smriti Bhawan, P. O. Burnpur, Dist. Burdwan). (Case No. 159/63 under section 33A).

BEFORE THE FIFTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present :

Shri K. P. MUKHERJEE, Judge,
Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

Present for the Company : Shri Lenin Roy, Advocate and Shri B. B. Ghosh, Advocate of Messrs. Fowler & Co., Solicitors.

Present for the workman : Shri Kalyan Roy, an officer of the United Iron & Steel Workers' Union.

This is a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by the workman Sukumar Bose against his employer opposite party, the Indian Iron & Steel Company Ltd., alleging contravention of the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. The original reference out of which this case has arisen was made under G. O. No. 3430/I.R./IR/10L-41(L)/60, dated the 4th July 1960, read with order No. 4507-I.R./IR/10L-41(L)/60, dated the 3rd October, 1962.

The case of the petitioner in short is that a charge-sheet was given to him on 27th July 1963 alleging theft of some materials belonging to the Company, and after a show of enquiry into the charge-sheet which was issued to him, he was dismissed from service with effect from 13th August 1963. It is alleged that the enquiry made against him was in violation of the principles of natural justice, and the finding of the enquiry committee is absolutely perverse. It is further alleged that there has been violation of the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. The petitioner has prayed for his reinstatement with full back wages.

The application has been opposed by the opposite party by filing a written statement. The case of the Company as setforth in the written statement may shortly be stated as follows:

The petitioner was given a charge-sheet on 27th July 1963 for theft of the Company's materials, and an enquiry into the charge-sheet was held by two officers of the Company. Sukumar Bose participated in the enquiry and he was given full opportunity to defend himself. He was found guilty of the charge brought against him, and as a result of the enquiry he was dismissed from service. The enquiry, it is said, was held in conformity with the principles of natural justice and the petitioner was given full opportunity to cross-examine the witnesses examined on behalf of the Company and also to examine his own witnesses. It is also pleaded that there has been no violation of the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, and the present application is misconceived and not maintainable. It is further pleaded that the petitioner not being a workman concerned in any pending industrial dispute between the opposite party and its workmen, is not competent to file this application, and the application is not maintainable in law. The petitioner, it is said, is not entitled to any relief in this case.

Decision

A preliminary objection has been raised on behalf of the opposite party that the petitioner, not being a workman concerned in the pending industrial dispute between the opposite party and its employee Samar Sen, is not competent to file this petition under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act. It is clear from sub-section 2 of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, that a workman can file an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act duringt he pendency of an industrial dispute, if he is concerned in such a dispute. It is an admitted fact that a dispute is pending for adjudication before this Tribunal regarding the retrenchment of Samar Sen, a workman who was formerly the Secretary of this Union. The evidence of P. W. 1, Kalyan Roy, the Joint Secretary of the Union, is that the petitioner Sukumar Bose is a m mber of this Union since 1958 and he along with other workmen approached the Union for taking up the cause of Samar Sen after his retrenchment. He has further stated that the petitioner also contributed to the fund which was opened for meeting the costs of litigation of Samar Sen. He has however not produced any documents to show that the petitioner is a member of the United Iron & Steel Co. Ltd. Workers' Union or that he paid special sub scriptions for meeting the costs of the case of Samar Sen, which is pending. It is stated by P. W. 1, the Joint Secretary of the Union, that a written representation was submitted to the Union by a large number of workmen for taking up the cause of Samar Sen, but that document has also not been produced and no satisfactory explanation has also been offered for its non-production. Had these documents been produced by the Union, it would have shown that though Sukumar Bose was not in the employment of the opposite party at the time when Samar Sen was retrenched, he, after his appointment, was one of the workmen who took up the cause of Samar Sen. It is also to be noted that in the petition it is nowhere stated that the petitioner Sukumar Bose is a workman concerned in the dispute which is pending between the opposite party and its workman Samar Sen before this Tribunal. There cannot be any doubt that in order to attract the provision of section 33A it must be proved that the employer has contravened the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act,1947, during the pendency of an industrial dispute and the petitioner is a workman concerned in such a dispute. If the petitioner is not a workman concerned in such a dispute, he cannot file an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act even in case of contravention of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act by the employer. The expression "workman concerned in such dispute" has been interpreted by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of New India Motors, reported in 1960. I.L.L.J.555. It has been held that the expressio 'workman concerned in such dispute' in section 33 should not be limited to workmen directly or materially concerned in such dispute, but includes all workmen who sponsored the dispute. In the instant case, the Union has not been able to establish by satisfactory evidence that the petitioner was one of the workmen who sponsored the dispute regarding the retrenchment of Samar Sen. He therefore cannot be regarded as a workman concerned in the pending dispute between the opposite party and its workman Samar Sen. In this view of the matter, the preliminary objection raised on behalf of the opposite party that the present application is not maintainable in law should prevail. I accordingly hold that the petitioner not being a workman concerned in the dispute between the opposite party and its workman Samar Sen is not competent to maintain this application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act.

In view of my finding above, it is not necessary to consider the application on merits. The application is accordingly rejected as not maintainable.

This is my award.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, filed by Shri Rajeswar Pasman, C/o Automobile Engineering Workers' Union, 249D Bowbazar Street, Calcutta, an employee of Messrs. India Trading Co., 99 Grey Street, Calcutta-5, against the said Company in connection with G. O. No. 2343-I R./IR/15L-9/63, dated the 12th June 1963 (Case No.63 of 1964 under section 33A).

BEFORE THE SIXTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri P. BASU, Bar-at-law, Judge.

Appearances:

For the workman : Shri Biswanath Ash, Advocate.

For the Company . Shri C. L. Ganguli, Advocate.

This application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act was filed on 13th May 1964 by Shri Rajeswar Pasman (hereinafter referred to as Shri Pasman) who was one of the employees under the Opposite Party-Company Messrs. India Trading Co., 99 Grey Street Calcutta-5 (hereinafter referred to as Opposite Party). It has been alleged that the applicant Shri Pasman had been appointed as an unskilled worker about the beginning of 1962 and was made permanent in service and was drawing Rs 60 per month. On 28th October 1963

Shri Pasman obtained leave for a month on account of his illness and went to his native home in the district of Mazaffarpur where his illness aggravated He therefore had sent an application on 25th November, 1963 for extension of his leave for the further period of one month. He had sent another letter for further extension of leave for about 2 1/2 months on the ground that he was suffering from serious illness. Inspite of these letters, no intimation was given by the Opposite Party. After recovering from illness the Petitioner came back to Calcutta in the first week of March 1964 and reported to his duty on 5th March 1964. At that time, the Petitioner was asked by the Opposite Party to bring the medical certificate showing that he was ill. The Petitioner thereupon brought the medical certificate from the doctor under whom he was getting his treatment and the medical certificate was shown to the Opposite Party on 23rd March, 1964. The Opposite Party, however, did not allow the applicant to join and had told him that he had been dismissed from service and the post had been filled up with new hand. It is further alleged that the Opposite Party did not issue any notice or any chargesheet and did not hold any enquiry with regard to the action taken against the applicant, that the order of dismissal is illegal, mala fide, vindictive and without jurisdiction, that the applicant had been victim of unfair labour practice, that he is an active member of the Automobile Engineering Workers' Union and that he had been really victimised for his trade union activities. In the circumstances, it is prayed that the applicant may be reinstated in service with full wages for the entire period of unemployment since 5th March 1964 till the date of reinstatement.

The Opposite Party in the written statement has raised a preliminary objection to the effect that as the applicant had not been dismissed or discharged for any misconduct and as there has been no violation of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, the present application under section 33A of the Act is not maintainable. It is further alleged that the main dispute which was pending before this Tribunal related to the issue of "Grades and Scales of Pay", that dispute had no connection whatsoever with the present application of the complainant, that the complainant was employed as a coolie at the Kerosene Depot of the Opposite Party at No. 1 Ultadanga Road, Calcutta, in 1962 and was paid Rs. 60 per month and that the complainant did not render continuous service for one year, i. e. 240 days in the year and in or about October 1963 the complainant all on a sudden started absenting himself from his duty. The Opposite Party had made enquiries and came to know that the applicant had left for his native place in the district of Mazaffarpur without applying for leave and without giving any information as to the reasons for his unauthorised absence. The Opposite Party had waited for more than two months and in January 1964 had written a letter to the complainant enquiring about the reasons for his unauthorised absence for such a long period. Inspite of this letter the applicant did not reply and did not also report to his duties and therefore the Opposite Party presumed that the complainant had left his service of his own accord. The Opposite Party denies all knowledge about the membership of the Union, and further denies that it has been pursuing unfair labour practice in order to victimise any member of the Union. The allegation of taking of leave, the allegation of the letters alleged to have been sent for extension of leave and the other allegations regarding the alleged production of the medical certificate are all denied. The applicant therefore, is not entitled to get any relief.

The following points arise for consideration in this case :

(1) Has the employer contravened section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act? Had there been dismissal of the applicant contrary to the provisions of that section?

(2) If there has been a contraventon, is the order of the employer justified of the merits?

Decision

Point No. 1

Before I proceed to consider the question formulated above, I would refer to the rulings reported in A. I. R. 1958 S. C., 761 = 1958(I) L. L. J., 793 = 17 F. J. R.184 (Equitable Coal Co. Ltd. vs. Algu Singh), and 1959 (I) L. L. J., 410 (Oriental Textile Finishing Mill vs. State of Punjab). In the first case, two workmen in a Colliery complained that the Appellant Company had illegally and unjustifiably dismissed them during the pendency of appeal before the Labour Appellate Tribunal, without obtaining the latter's permission and they alleged that they had been victimised for trade union activities. The employer contended that the workmen were dismissed under standing orders on charges of riotious and disorderly behaviour and assault after due enquiry. It appears that there was a proceeding in the criminal court and the workmen were sentenced. The employer further contended that the contravention was purely technical and did not justify the claim for compensation. The Labour Appellate Tribunal held that it could not be said that the view taken by the Enquiring Officer was an impossible one, but nonetheless since the requisite permission was not obtained, the workers were entitled to compensation and this was awarded. It was held by the Supreme Court that in an enquiry under this section, two questions fall to be considered : (i) is the fact of contravention by the employer proved? and (ii) if proved, is the order passed by the employer justified on the merits? If both these questions are answered in favour of the employee, the Tribunal would no doubt be entitled to pass appropriate order in his favour, If the first point is answered in favour of the employee but if on the second point the finding is that on the merits the order is justified, then the breach may ordinarily be recorded as technical breach, and it may not, unless there are compelling facts in favour of the employees, justify any substantial order of compensation. If the first issue is answered against the employer, nothing furhther can be done. It was further observed that what orders should meet the ends of justice in the case of a technical breach would necessarily be a question of fact to be determined in the light of circumstances of each case. In that case their Lordships held that the Labour Appellate Tribunal was not justified in passing an award for compensation. In the other case, a workman was dismissed during the pendency of an industrial dispute and he had filed a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act. The Tribunal without going into the merits of the dismissal held in its award that the complainant would be deemed not to be dismissed or discharged and he was entitled to wages. It was held by the Panjab High Court that it was not open to the Tribunal to quash the dismissal merely on the ground that the dismissal was contrary to section 33. The Tribunal must go into two matters : (i) whether the dismissal has been made contrary to the provisions of section 33, and (ii) whether the dismissal is unjustified on the merits. Their Lordships had referred to the rulings reported in A. I. R. 1955 S. C., 258 = 1955 (I) L. L. J., 346 (Automobile Products of India vs. Rukmaji Bala) and A. I. R. 1953, Bombay 133 = 1952 (II) L. L. J., 178 (Batuk K Vyas vs. Surat Borough Municipality) and had held that the Tribunal had not decided the complaint in a manner warranted by law and had sent back the dispute for adjudication on the merits.

I shall now turn to discuss the preliminary objection which has been raised by Shri Ganguli appearing for the Opposite Party. Shri Ganguli had pointed out that there has been no order either of dismissal or of discharge of the applicant and therefore it could not be said that there had been any contravention of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. I do not think that the question of contravention of section 33 of the Act can really be decided without going into the facts. If really there had been no dismissal at all, as alleged in the petition of complaint, during the pendency of the main dispute before this Tribunal, then of course, there could not be no contravention of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. As mentioned earlier, if the contravention of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act is not proved or is decided against the applicant, then of course, the application under section 33A of the Act must fail. It is therefore abundantly clear that the facts must be ascertained before it can be said whether the application under section 33A of the Act is maintainable or not. I had therefore told the learned lawyer Shri Ganguli that I cannot decide the preliminary objection without deciding the disputed question of fact as to whether there had been dismissal or not. On this point, there is the allegation of dismissal by the applicant and there is the contrary allegation that the complainant has left the service of his own accord as alleged by the Opposite Party. The important question therefore is whether the complainant has really been dismissed during the pendency of the main dispute before the Tribunal or whether he has left service of his own accord. It has been provided in section 33(2)(b) that during the pendency of any proceeding in respect of any industrial dispute, the employer may, in accordance with the standing orders applicable to a workman concerned in such dispute, for any misconduct not connected with the dispute, discharge or punish whether by way of dismissal or otherwise that workman, provided that no such workman shall be discharged or dismissed unless there he has been paid wages for one month and an application has been made by the employer to the authority before which such proceeding is pending for approval of the action taken by the employer. Now, it is admitted by both parties that the applicant was a workman under the Opposite Party, and that the main dispute was pending before this Tribunal. The remaining question therefore is whether there had been discharge or punishment of the workman by way of dismissal for any misconduct not connected with the dispute. Shri Ganguli had alleged that in the facts and circumstances of the present case, it is not necessary for the employer to file any application under section 33(2)(b) of the Act, or to comply with the proviso to that section. The employer is certainly not liable to file the application unless it is found that really and substantially the employer had dismissed the workman for a misconduct not connected with the dispute. I also do not agree with Mr. Ganguli that verbal order of dismissal is not enough, if there is really any order of dismissal, it may be verbal or in writing. The question, however, is whether there was really any dismissal as alleged by the applicant, or whether the applicant has really left the service of the Opposite Party of his own accord. It is the case that the applicant had obtained leave on account of his illness from 28th October, 1963 and had gone to his native home for his treatment and after about 4½ months, he had returned and sought to join but was prevented from joining, unless he produced the medical certificate. It is his further case that he had brought the medical certificate and produced it on 23rd March 1964 and the medical certificate was not accepted and then the applicant was informed that he had been dismissed from service. Therefore, even according to the case of the applicant, he was told about the dismissal from service on 23rd March, 1964. In the circumstances, I do not see why in the prayer portion the date 5th March 1964 has been mentioned. The applicant in his evidence had stated that he had made an oral application for leave and had obtained leave from the Malik, namely, Gyan Babu and Baldeo Babu and went on leave for a month. On this point, the applicant is silent (vide paragraph 3 of the written statement). It is not stated in that paragraph that the petitioner had made a verbal application for leave to Gyan Babu and Baldeo Babu and after his verbal application for leave had been sanctioned, he had proceeded home. It may also be pointed out that if the applicant really fell ill in or about October 1963, he must have been treated by some doctor here. It may be further mentioned that it was suggested to P. W. 1 who is the applicant that if any worker wants to go on leave he has to inform the depot in-charge Shri Tewari and that he had denied the suggestion. O. P. W. 2 Shri Tewari has stated that if any leave is required by the person working in the depot, the leave is granted by the depot in-charge. He has further stated that Shri Pasman had worked at the depot on 28th October, 1963 and that oral application for leave is made to him and he gives leave orally. He has denied the suggestion that Pasman verbally prayed for leave from him and that he had granted that prayer. The suggestion to O. P. W. 2 that he had granted leave on the verbal prayer of the applicant is contrary to the evidence of P. W. 1 who had said that he had obtained leave from Gyan Babu and Baldeo Babu. I do not think there is any reliable evidence to show that actually the applicant was granted leave either from 28th October 1963 or from 29th October 1963, on account of his alleged illness. The Hazira Book (Ext. E.) shows that Shri Pasman had worked till 28th October, 1963. Therefore, the allegation in paragraph 5 of the written statement that Shri Pasman went on leave from 28th October, 1963 cannot possibly be true. It would appear that thereafter Shri Pasman had been marked absent by O. P. W. 2. It is the further evidence of O. P. W. 2 that when Shri Pasman was found absent he made a report to the Malik verbally and thereafter the Malik had written to Shri Pasman who, however, did not give any reply. O. P. W. 1 Shri Gyan had stated that O. P. W. 2 had submitted a report about the last week of November 1963 that Shri Pasman was not coming to duty for a month. The learned lawyer appearing for the workman had pointed out the discrepancy between the evidence of O. P. W. 1 and O. P. W. 2. Whereas O. P. W. 1 had said that O. P. W. 2 had made a report about the end of November 1963, O. P. W. 2 had said that he made the report about a week after he had found that Shri Pasman was absenting himself from his duty. There is no doubt some discrepancy but still the fact remains that there was a report fairly early about the unauthorised absence of Shri Pasman. If really leave had been granted either by the depot in-charge (O. P. W. 2) or by O. P. W. 1 and Baldeo Babu, surely there would have been some note in the Hazira Book regarding the period of leave. I do not think there is any cogent reason for not accepting the evidence of O. P. Ws. 1 and 2 regarding the unauthorised absence of the applicant from 29th October, 1963. The evidence of O. P. W. 1 further shows that the letter (Ext. C) was written on 17th January, 1964. In that letter, it has been quite clearly written that Shri Pasman had been absenting himself from his duty without permission and/or authority from 29th October, 1963 and had not applied for any leave and had not informed the management regarding the reasons for his unauthorised absence. The address given in the letter is the address mentioned by P. W. 1 in his evidence. Exhibit D is the certificate of posting and there is the presumption of service in due course of post. P. W. 1 had no doubt denied that he had received any letter from the Company which is alleged to have been written about the middle of January 1964 but in view of the facts and circumstances which I have mentioned above, I cannot accept his denial regarding the service of this letter (Ext. C). The applicant, however, did not turn up even after receiving that letter and according to his own case, he only came on 5th March, 1964. The facts and circumstances, which I have mentioned above, appear to me to indicate that really there was no application for leave and no leave was granted to Shri Pasman before he started absenting himself from 29th October, 1963. The learned lawyer appearing for the workman, however urged that the evidence of P. W. 1 regarding granting of leave would be corroborated by the subsequent conduct of the workman in sending two letters to the employer asking for extension of leave.

I shall now shortly discuss this question. Regarding the application for extension of leave which is alleged to have been sent on 25th November, 1963, it appears to me that there is no cogent evidence. The learned lawyer for the workman had relied strongly on the postal receipt (Ext. 1) and also on the evidence of P. W. 1. No copy of the letter or application had been produced by the applicant, and the alleged original application has also not been called for from the Opposite Party. O. P. W. 1 has also not been asked any question about the receipt of the letter alleged to have been sent on 25th November, 1963. The learned lawyer Shri Ganguli had pointed out that even Ext. 1 does not contain the full address of Baldeo Babu who is one of the partners of the firm and that the address is "Baldeo Babu, Calcutta-5". He submitted that even if any such letter has been sent by the applicant, it could not have possibly been delivered to Baldeo Babu or to the Company at 99 Grey Street, Calcutta-5. In my opinion, there is considerable force in this submission made by Shri Ganguli on behalf of the Opposite Party. It appears to me that there is absolutely no cogent evidence to show that any application for extension of leave was at all sent by Shri Pasman on or about 25th November, 1963, or was ever received by Baldeo Babu or anyone else on behalf of the Company- Opposite Party. With regard to the subsequent letter, no date has been mentioned in paragraph 5 of the written statement of the workman. The workman himself has said that as he was short of fund, he has sent a postcard for further extension of his leave. It may be pointed out that the persons who had written the letter or the postcard on behalf of the applicant in his village home in the district of Mazaffarpur had not been examined in this case. I have therefore come to the conclusion that the applicant had neither obtained leave originally and had also not applied for extension of leave on two occasions. There is also no cogent evidence regarding the alleged illness of Shri Pasman. The doctor who is alleged to have treated Shri Pasman in his native home had not been examined and the alleged medical certificate which was produced has not also been legally proved. My conclusion, therefore, is that the applicant had absented himself from his duties in an unauthorised manner from 29th October, 1963 for a fairly considerable period and the employer therefore is justified in thinking that the workman has left his job of his own accord. The applicant has given some evidence as to what had happened in March 1964. It has been stated by him that he had at first seen O. P. W. 2 and O. P. W. 2 had asked him to see Baldeo Babu. His further evidence is that Baldeo said that where he was so long, that he told him that as he was ill he was in his home receiving treatment from his doctor, that Baldeo Babu told him that unless the medical certificate was produced, he will not give him his employment and that some 8/9 days later, he had shown the medical certificate to Baldeo Babu. This evidence cannot be accepted. If the medical certificate was really shown to Baldeo Babu some 8/9 days afterwards, then it was shown either on the 13th or 14th of March 1964. Therefore, there is no reason why the applicant would be told on 23rd March, 1964 that he had been dismissed from service. According to paragraph 5 of the written statement, the medical certificate was shown on that date and then the applicant was told that he had been dismissed from service. The learned lawyer appearing for the applicant was unable to reconcile the discrepancy which I have mentioned above. It appears from the evidence of O. P. Ws. 1 and 2 that Shri Pasman did not turn up at all in March 1964, In the circumstances which I have mentioned above, this evidence of O. P. Ws. 1 and 2 can be accepted. I have come to the conclusion, therefore, that there has been no dismissal or discharge of the applicant and that it cannot be said that section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act had been contravened by the employer. The learned lawyer appearing for the applicant somehow faintly urged that as Shri Pasman is a member of the union, he had been victimised for his Trade Union activities. Excepting the bare statement of P. W. 1 there is no other evidence that Shri Pasman was a member of the Union. The membership receipt has not been produced and the register of the union showing the name of Shri Pasman has also not been produced. I do not think there is really any cogent evidence to show that the employer had resorted to unfair labour practice, or had really victimised Shri Pasman for his alleged Trade Union activities. The learned lawyer appearing for the workman had also submitted that the dismissal itself would amount to alteration in the condition of service. I do not think this can be accepted. There is separate provision regarding dismissal. In any case, the alleged dismissal had not been proved. In my opinion the application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act fails, as there has been no contravention of section 33 of that Act.

In view of my above finding, it is not necessary for me to discuss the second point as to whether the dismissal is justified on merits. As there has been no dismissal, the question of merits cannot possibly arise. In the result these points are decided in the light of my above findings.

The application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act is dismissed and the petitioner is not entitled to any relief. This is my award.

(Case No. 111 of 1963 under section 33A.)

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL
WEST BENGAL

Present:
SHRI AMBICA PADA BHATTACHARYA,
Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal.

This is an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act. A reference was pending before this Tribunal being order No. 1958-I.R./IR/11L-342/62, dated 15th May 1963, in respect of the following issue. Is the termination of service of 39 workmen mentioned in the enclosed list justified ? To what relief, if any are they entitled? This was the reerence pending between the Company and their workman. During the pendency of the said reference one workman Shri Haradhan Santra made a complaint that he was dismissed from service. The applicant is a member of Nepal Chandra Haluikar Employees' Union which is disliked by the company. The company arbitrarily reduced the weekly wages from 9 1/4 days to 8 1/2 days and the Union was agitating to reinstate this privilege. On 29th March 1963 as many as 52 workmen were dismissed verbally.

On 19th July 1963 at about 10-15 a.m. the petitioner was working in the shop as usual when he was physically assaulted by the partners and turned out of the shop. The petitioner was picked up by police van and admitted in Mayo Hospital as an indoor patient. There was police case over it. The petitioner was in fact dismissed on that day and such dismissal without any charge sheet or enquiry is illegal. The action was taken by the management in contravention of the provision of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. The applicant according claims reinstatement under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act.

The application was opposed by the Company on the following grounds. The applicant Haradhan Santra is not a workman concerned in the dispute pending before the Tribunal under the above reference. There was a case of 39 workmen and Haradhan's name does not appear in the list, on the contrary, in the notice issued to the workmen the service of Haradhan Santra had been retained. Haradhan was originally appointed as an employee of 20 Armenian Street and during employment he was transferred to the shop situated at 16/18 Vivekananda Street. The allegation of assault on 18th July 1963 is denied. A false criminal case had been instituted against the partners of the Company on a false complaint; the partners were acquitted after a trial. Haradhan Santra who was originally appointed at 20 Armenian Street was transferred to the same shop by a letter, dated 24th June 1963. Santra refused to accept the letter which was sent by registered post.

Inspite of the order of transfer Santra did not join his duties at 20 Armenian Street. The transfer orders sent to Santra through post office were returned with the postal endorsement 'not known' though the letters were correctly addressed. On 15th July 1963 Haradhan made a false complaint against the partners of the Company and threatened Shri Damodar Das Gupta, one of the partners of the Company. Again on 16th July 1963 Santra came to the shop at 16/18 Vivekananda Road and threatened Shri Damodar Das Gupta. He threatened Damodar Das Gupta by saying that unless the transfer orders were withdrawn he would cause havoc inside the shop. The present petition under section 33A did not lie and is not maintainable in view of the fact that the Company did not contravene the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

Appearances of the parties are as follows:

For the Company : Shri K. P. Mukherjee, Counsel*
For the workman : Shri S. K. Dhar, Advocate*

Decision

Admittedly Haradhan was a clerk who used to keep accounts for the Company. There was a reference to this Tribunal where the issue of termination of service of 39 workmen including clerks working in the Company. Shri Mukherjee on behalf of the Company urges that Haradhan is not a workman concerned in the dispute referred to this Tribunal and as such the provisions of section 33 could not be attracted to his case. Section 33, sub-section 2 provides that during the pendency of any proceeding in respect of an industrial dispute the employer may in accordance with the Standing Orders applicable to a workman concerned in such a dispute (a) alter..... the condition of service..... or for any misconduct .....discharge or punish, whether by dismissal or otherwise, that workman. It is therefore obvious that unless the workman applying under section 33A is a Concerned workman it is not incumbent on the company to apply for approval under section 33(2). Haradhan was a clerk working in the Company and the reference was in respect of workmen of the same company including clerks. It is true that his name does not appear in the list of workmen whose services had been terminated as mentioned in the order of reference. Even though his name does not appear in that list he is a workman concerned in the dispute of his co-workmen of similar category whose services had been terminated. By supporting that dispute he has become concerned in the same. The Company's objection that Haradhan Santra is not a concerned workman is not at all tenable and my decision in this respect is to the contray. Haradhan is a concerned workman.

The next contention is Haradhan Santra wants to say that on 18th July 1963 he was assaulted and turned out of the shop while he was on duty. Admittedly there had been a criminal case over that incident and the petition of complaint was lodged by Haradhan himself. The partners Damodar and others were accused in that case under sections 323 and 504 I. P. C. The judgment of the learned Magistrate (Ext. A) will show that the accused persons were acquitted at the trial. They were found not guilty of the offences with which they were charged. Shri Mukherjee on the side of the Company urges that in view of the judgment of the learned Magistrate, the Tribunal is not competent to enter into the complaint of Haradhan. I cannot accept this argument of Shri Mukherjee. With regard to the incident of assault the judgement of the Criminal Court is evident of the fact of acquittal of the accused persons. The question before the Industrial Tribunal is whether on 18th July 1963 Haradhan was virtually dismissed by being driven out of the shop. In paragraph 15 of the Union's written statement it is stated that the action of the Company amounted to dismissal of the workman on 18th July 1963. This is a matter which is within the competency of the Tribunal to decide.

Lastly on behalf of the Company it is argued that there have been no contravention of the provisions of section 33(2) (b) in view of the fact that Haradhan was neither discharged nor punished by dismissal or otherwise for any misconduct. Under section 33A the Tribunal derives jurisdiction primarily on the ground that the employer contravened the provisions of section 33 in taking the action against the workman. On the side of the workman it is argued that Haradhan was dismissed for alleged misconduct without any charge sheet and in view of the pending reference the Company ought to have applied to the Tribunal under section 33(2) (b) for approval of the action taken against the employee. Since the employer did not make any application as contemplated above, there had been contravention of provision of section 33 so that this Tribunal would decide upon the complaint.

In fact Haradhan did not receive any letter discharging or dismissing him. It is true that the petition filed by the workman does not mention in clear terms that this dismissal was for misconduct but the Company's written statement would prove the fact that Haradhan was virtually dismissed because he refused to carry out the order of transfer by which he was transferred from this shop to another shop at 20 Armenian Street. In this connection I may refer to the written statement of the Company. In paragraph 14 it was alleged that Haradhan was originally appointed at 20 Armenian Street. He was transferred from this shop at 16/18 Vivekananda Road to 20 Armenian Street on 24th June 1963. Haradhan refused to accept the order of transfer. The Company thereafter sent him repeatedly transfer orders by post. They were returned with the postal endorsement "not known" on 25th June 1963, then again on 15th July 1963 and 16th July 1963. In paragraph 14 of the written statement clause (d) the Company alleges that Haradhan had been threatening the management on 15th and 16th of July 1963. Against the back ground of such order of transfer which was flouted by Haradhan according to the management, whatever action the Company would take against Haradhan cannot but relate to the aforesaid disobedience. It would be nothing but misconduct on the part of the workman and the punishment given to Haradhan must necessarily be connected with that misconduct. I will now consider the evidence.

Haradhan's evidence is that he was assaulted and dismissed without any charge sheet. In cross examination he stated that he was transferred to Armenian Street. He however denied that he got the transfer orders by post. He adds in his evidence that on 15th, 16th and 18th he was asked to go to Armenian Street but he refused. The evidence of O. P. W. 1. Shri Purusattam Das Gupta on the side of the Company is that Haradhan filed a false complaint against him on 18th July 1963. He stated that Haradhan was transferred but he did not care to join. He denies that Haradhan was dismissed on 18th of July, 1963. Mr. Mukherjee on behalf of the Company argued that Haradhan abandoned his post and he did not care to join Armenian Shop as ordered. Voluntary relinquishment of service or abandonment is not the clear case in the written statement of the Company. Even if I accept that there is such a case the evidence on record would not justify a finding of voluntary relinquishment of service. Abandonment cannot be presumed when a man is in employment. It is not a normal human conduct. When the plea of abandonment is taken, it must be proved by the Company on cogent and convincing evidence. Long absence without intimation may give rise to a presumption of abondonment. In the instant case the incident happened on 18th of July, 1963 and the workman came with a petition before the Tribunal on 31st of July 1963 alleging that he was dismissed by the Company. This very conduct will indicate that it was not a case of voluntary relinquishment of service but it is a case of dismissal from service in some manner or other. Haradhan was not allowed to work by the Company. This amounts to dismissal. From the circumstances of the case and from the evidence on record it is only reasonable to hold that because Haradhan refused to carry out the order of transfer he was dismissed on 18th July 1963. The fact remains that he was not allowed to work at Vivekananda Street shop where he had been working at the time of transfer. Haradhan did not care to join at Armenian Street where he was transferred. From these circumstances the only conclusion which one can draw is that Haradhan was dismissed or discharged by way of punishment because he refused to obey the order of transfer made by the management. Whether a particular workman has been dismissed or discharged or punished because of any misconduct is a question of fact depending on the circumstances of each case. The form of the order terminating the service of the employee is not always decisive. It is true that there is no letter of dismissal but from the circumstances the only reasonable conclusion would be that the management's action amounted to dismissal of the workman and this was by way of punishment for misconduct.

Admittedly, the management took the action against Haradhan without any charge sheet and without giving Haradhan any opportunity of meeting the charges against him. This is opposed to the principle of natural justice and the dismissal without charge sheet or enquiry cannot but be held to be illegal. As regards merits of the complaint since there is no specific charge brought by the Company against the workman there is no question of deciding the said charge on merits. What the Tribunal is called upon to adjudicate in a proceeding under section 33A is on the merits of the dismissal on the specific charges levelled against the workman. I have already found on evidence on record that the workman was dismissed without any charge sheet though such dismissal was not communicated in writing to the workman, it is a conduct which amounts to victimisation and it should be characterised as unfair labour practice. In fact the workman was victimised and the management took resort to unfair labour practice in doing so. That being the case the workman is entitled to reinstatement. The application under section 33A should therefore succeed. The application is accordingly allowed and the applicant Haradhan Santra is entitled to be reinstated with all back wages. This is my award which is to be implemented within 30 days of its publication in the "Calcutta Gazette."

AWARD

The Government of West Bengal, by order No. 1795-I.R./IR/10L-82/64, dated 11th May, 1964, had referred the following industrial dispute between Messrs. Wooma Churan Karmakar and their workmen to this Tribunal for adjudication.

Issue

Bonus payable in 1963

After the service of the usual notice, the workmen represented by the Union had filed the written statement and the employer had also filed the written statement. In the written statement filed on behalf of the workmen, it has been stated that the firm Messrs. Wooma Churan Karmakar is an old establishment firm and carries on business of manufacturing scales, etc., and owns a factory where some workmen are employed for the purpose of manufacturing scale and other articles for sale. It may be mentioned here that these allegations of the workmen are admitted by the employer. It is next stated that the firm had been accumulating huge profit every year to which 25 permanent workmen excluding clerical and other staff had contributed, that the actual rate of wages per diem are Rs. 1.50 paise, Rs. 2.00, Rs. 2.25, Rs. 2.50, Rs. 2.75, Rs. 3.00, Rs. 3.25, etc., and that the majority of workmen receive wages at the rate of Rs. 2 and Rs.2.25 per day. The wages therefore fall far short of the living wage and the workmen demanded bonus, namely, profit sharing bonus which was payable in 1963 before the Puja for the preceding accounting year. The firm had refused to pay on the basis of available surplus and offered a meagre amount most arbitrarily which was not accepted by the workmen. There was a conciliation proceeding but due to the adamant attitude of the firm, no settlement was arrived at. It is further alleged that in 1961-62 and 1962-63 the firm had made huge profit, that the available surplus for distribution of bonus would be not less than fifty thousand rupees, that at least 12 months, bonus at the consolidated rate of wages, or Rs. 50,000 whichever is higher, may be awarded for the relevent year, that the union does not admit the figures shown in the expenditure side of the balance sheets and puts the firm to strict proof to each of the items and that the documents including cash book, ledger, etc., should be produced by the firm. It is prayed that at least 12 months' wages as bonus or Rs. 50,000 whichever is higher should be paid as bonus. It is alternatively prayed that bonus might be determined according to the Full Bench Formula and 90 per cent. of the available surplus may be distributed as bonus to the workmen.

In the written statement filed on behalf of the firm, it is denied that the firm had been making huge profit each year, that the workmen had contributed a large portion in the profit, that in fact due to the insufficient production by the workers, the Company had to purchase articles from the outside to meet the demands and that the daily rate of wages are Rs. 5 per diem for the highly skilled workers, Rs. 4.50, Rs. 4.25 and Rs. 4.00 per diem for skilled workers, Rs. 3.87, Rs. 3.50, Rs. 3.25, Rs. 3.12, Rs. 3.00 per diem for semi-skilled workers and Rs. 2.27, Rs. 2.50, Rs. 2.25 and Rs. 2.00 for unskilled workers. It is said that only 4 of the workers get Rs. 2 per diem out of the 25 workers. The firm has further alleged that the workmen had adopted go-slow tactics for a pretty long time slowing down the production, even though it had been paid wages of near about Rs. 400 per week, that the workmen never demanded the profit sharing bonus, that the firm had already paid 10 days' bonus to the workmen with the consent of the Labour Officer as in the previous years and this system is in vogue for a number of years which has been accepted by all the workers without any protest, that the Company never earned huge profit in 1961-62 and 1962-63, that the relevant books of account and balance sheets for 1961-62 and 1962-63 would be produced in due course, that the Company had to purchase scales from outside the factory as the workmen neglected and failed to produce fully to meet the demands which came after the introduction of the new Scales and Weights Regulations in 1961, that the present reference is bad in law and cannot be entertained, as the issues regarding wages, bonus and leave had been referred to the Seventh Industrial Tribunal by the Government Order No. 3537-I.R./IR/10L-92/62, dated 6th August 1962 and that due to the faulty production of the workers after the introduction of the new system, the Controller of Weights and Measures had rejected many finished products causing enormous loss to the Company. It may be mentioned here that the question regarding the legality or otherwise of the present reference to this Tribunal was not raised before me by the learned Advocate for the Company at the time of the hearing. It is quite obvious that the question of bonus payable in 1963 had not been referred to the Seventh Industrial Tribunal by the Government of West Bengal.

Findings

It is admitted that the employer has got a factory in which some workmen are employed for manufacturing scales and others for the purpose of sale. It is further not disputed that the employer is a partnership firm and the partners are Balai Chandra Karmakar, Fatik Chandra Karmakar, Sankulal Karmakar, Pravat Karmakar, Bhutnath Karmakar and that the partnership firm had been carrying on business under the name and style of Messrs. Wooma Churan Karmakar. There is also no dispute that the income of the firm is derived from factory production, from production outside the factory of the firm and from sale of commodities purchased from the market. The exact proportions between these three categories are a matter of some difficulty and I shall have occasion to discuss this point later on. At this stage, I would only point out that no evidence has been given regarding the alleged go-slow tactics on the part of the workmen of the factory of the firm or regarding the alleged failure of the workmen to give full production in the factory of the firm or regarding the alleged rejection by the Controller of Weights and Measures of many of the finished products due to the faulty production of the workers causing enormous loss to the Company.

I shall now proceed to discuss the question whether the workmen of the firm are entitled to get profit sharing bonus for the year 1962-63. The learned Advocates appearing on behalf of the parties conceded that in view of the term of reference, there is no relevancy with regard to the accounting year 1961-62. It has been laid down that bonus is not a mere matter of bounty, gratuitiously made by the employer to its employees and is also not a matter of deferred wages and that the employees may justly claim bonus at the end of a year's service based on two main considerations, viz., (a) that there is a gap between their present wages and a living wage which bonus is bound to shorten, and (b) that there is an available surplus of profits of the year out of which the bonus may be paid [A. I. R. 1955 S. C. 170-1955 (II) L. L. J. 1,—Muir Mills Co. Ltd. vs. Suti Mills Mazdoor Union, Kanpur], A. I. R. 1958 S. C. 153-1958 (I) L. L. J. 239—Shri Minakshi Mills Ltd. vs. their workmen. It is also well settled that the available surplus providing for the purpose of calculation of the bonus must be determined according to the Full Bench Formula (A. I. R. 1959 S. C., 967-1959 (I) L. L. J., 644—Associated Cement Co. and ors. vs. their workmen), A. I. R. 1960 S. C. 1025 (Textile Machinery Corporation vs. its workmen), 1959 (I) L. L. J., 431 (Lipton Ltd. vs. their workmen). It has also been held by their Lordships of the Supreme Court that the working of the formula begins with the figure of Gross Profits taken from the Profit and Loss Accounts which are arrived at after payment of wages and Dearness Allowance to the employees and other items of expenditure, that as a general rule, the amount of gross profit thus ascertained is accepted without submitting the statement of the Profit and Loss Account to a close scrutiny that if, however, it appears that the entries have been made on the debit side deliberately and mala fide to reduce the amount of gross profits, it would be open to Tribunal to examine the question and if it is satisfied that the impugned entries have been made mala fide, it may disallow them, that it would likewise be to the parties to claim the exclusion of the items either on the credit or on the debit side on the ground that the impugned items are wholly extraneous and entirely unrelated to the trading profits for the year, and that in such matters, the Tribunal must take an overall practical and common sense view (A. I. R. 1959 S. C., 967). Therefore, the amount of gross profit has to be taken from the profit and loss Account. Some objections have been raised with regard to particular items and I shall discuss those objections later. However, during the pendency of this case before this Tribunal, Ordinance No. 3 of 1965 had been promulgated by the President of India on 29th May, 1965. Section 8 of the Ordinance provides as follows:

> "Every employee shall be entitled to be paid by his employer in an accounting year, bonus in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance provided he has worked in the establishment for not less than thirty working days in that year."

Section 33 of the Ordinance provides as follows:

> "Where immediately before the 2nd September, 1964, an industrial dispute regarding payment ment of bonus relating to any accounting year ending on any day in the year 1962, and any subsequent accounting year was pending before the appropriate Government or before any Tribunal or other authority constitutedunder the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, or under any corresponding law relating to investigation and settlement of industrial disputes in a State, such dispute shall be decided in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.
> Explanation: A dispute shall be deemed to be pending before the appropriate Government where no decision of that Government on any application made to it under the said Act or such corresponding law for reference of that dispute to adjudication has been made or where having received the report of the Conciliation Officer (by whatever designation known) under the said Act or law, the appropriate Government has not passed any order refusing to make such reference."

Section 34 of the Ordinance provides as follows:

> "(1) Save as otherwise provided, the provisions of this Ordinance shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law for the time being in force or in the terms of any award, agreement, settlement or contract of service made before the commencement of this Ordinance:
> Provided that if in respect of any accounting year the total bonus payable to all the employees in any establishment under this Ordinance is less than the total bonus paid or payable to all the employees in that establishment in the base year under such award, agreement, settlement or contract of service, then the employees in the establishment shall be paid bonus in respect of that accounting year as if the allocable surplus for that accounting year were an amount which bears the same ratio to the gross profits of the said accounting year as the total bonus paid or payable in the base years bears to the gross profits of the base year:
> Provided further that nothing contained in the preceding proviso shall entitle any employee to be paid bonus exceeding twenty per cent of his salary or wage for the accounting year:
> Provided also that if in any accounting year the allocable surplus computed under the first proviso exceeds the amount of maximum bonus payable to the employees in the establishment under the second proviso, then the provisions of section 15 shall, so far as may be, apply to such excess.
> Explanation I. For the purpose of the first proviso to this sub-section, the total bonus in respect of any accounting year shall be deemed to be less than the total bonus paid or payable in the base year if the ratio of bonus payable in the accounting year to the gross profits of that year is less than the ratio of bonus paid or payable in the base year to the gross profits of that year.
> Explanation II - In this sub-section,
> (a) "base year" means—
> (i) in a case where immediately before the 2nd September, 1964, any dispute of the nature specified in section 33 was pending before the appropriate Government or before any Tribunal or other authority referred to in that section, the accounting year immediately preceding the accounting year to which the dispute relates;
> (ii) in any other case, the period of twelve months immediately preceding the accounting year in which this Ordinance becomes applicable to the establishment;
> (b) "gross profits" in relation to the base year or, as the case may be, to the accounting year means gross profits as reduced by the direct taxes payable by the employer in respect of that year.
> (2) Nothing contained in this Ordinance shall be construed to preclude employees employed in any establishment or class of establishments from entering into agreement with their employer for granting them an amount of bonus under a formula which is different from that under this Ordinance."

It is clear therefore that the previous law as enunciated by their Lordships of the Supreme Court is not to be followed now, at least with regard to matters in respect of which provisions have been made in this Ordinance. It is further clear that so far as the claim of bonus for the year 1962-63 which is payable in 1963 before Puja is concerned, the dispute is to be decided in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

Before I proceed further, it is necessary to refer to certain other provisions of the Ordinance. The expression "accounting year" has been defined to mean, inter alia, the year commencing from 1st day of April, unless the context otherwise requires. The expression "allocable surplus" has been defined to mean, inter alia, 60% of the available surplus in the accounting year and includes any amount treated as such under the first proviso to sub-section (1) of section 34. The expression "available surplus" has been defined to mean available surplus computed under section 5. Section 5 provides that the available surplus in respect of any accounting year shall be the gross profits for that year after deducting therefrom the sums referred to in section 6. Section 6 provides for deduction as prior charges namely :

(a) any amount by way of depreciation admissible in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 32 of the Income-tax Act, or in accordance with the provisions of the Agricultural Income-tax Law, as the case may be;

(b) any amount by way of development rebate or development allowance which the employer is entitled to deduct from his income under the Income-tax Act;

(c) subject to the provisions of section 7, any direct tax which the employer is liable to pay for the accounting year in respect of his income, profits and gains during that year; and

(d) such further sums as are specified in respect of the employer in the Third Schedule.

Section 7 lays down, inter alia, that for the purpose of clause (c) of section 6, any direct tax payable by the employer for any accounting year shall, subject to the following provisions, be calculated at the rates applicable to the income of the employer for that year, namely :

(a) in calculating such tax no account shall be taken of—

(i) any loss incurred by the employer in respect of any previous accounting year and carried forward under any law for the time being in force relating to direct taxes ;

(ii) any arrears of depreciation which the employer is entitled to add to the amount of the allowance for depreciation for any following accounting year or years under sub-section (2) of section 32 of the Income-tax Act;

(iii) any exemption conferred on the employer under section 84 of the Income-tax Act or of any deduction to which he is entitled under sub-section (1) of section 101 of that Act, as in force immediately before the commencement of the Finance Act, 1965.

It is not necessary to refer for the present purpose the other sections. The expression "direct tax" has been defined to mean any tax chargeable under (i) the Income-tax Act, (ii) the Super Profits Tax Act, 1963, (iii) the Companies (Profits) Surtax Act, 1964, (iv) the Agricultural Income-tax Law, and any other tax which, having regard to its nature or incidence, may be declared by the Central Government, by notification in the Official Gazette, to be a direct tax for the purposes of this Ordinance.

The expression "gross profits" means gross profits calculated under section 4. Section 4 provides, inter alia, 'in case of an establishment other than a banking company, the gross profits are to be calculated in the manner specified in the Second Schedule.' It is also necessary to refer in brief to the provisions of sections 10 and 11 of the Ordinance. In section 10, it has been provided, inter alia, that the employer is bound to pay to every employee who has worked in the establishment for all the working days in the accounting year a minimum bonus which shall be four per cent. of the salary or wage of the employee for the accounting year or forty rupees, whichever is higher, whether there are profits in the accounting year or not. The provision of section 11, inter alia, is that where in respect of any accounting year the allocable surplus exceeds the amount of minimum bonus payable to the employees under section 10, the employer shall, in lieu of such minimum bonus, be bound to pay bonus to every employee who has worked in the establishment for all the working days in the accounting year which shall be an amount in proportion to the salary or wage of the employee for the accounting year subject to a maximum of twenty per cent. of such salary or wage. In the Second Schedule, the manner of computation of gross profits had been laid down, and in the Thrid Schedule, so far as it is material for the present purpose, it has been laid down that any other employer not falling under any of the above categories is entitled to get the deduction of 8 1/2 on the capital invested in his establishment as evidenced from the books of account at the commencement from the accounting year and that where such employer is a firm, an amount equivalent to 25% of the gross profit derived by it from the establishment in respect of the accounting year after deducting depreciation in accordance with provisions of section 6(a) by way of remuneration to all the partners taking part in the conduct of business of the establishment, is to be deducted. These are all the relevant provisions of the Ordinance, so far as the present case is concerned.

I shall now turn to discuss the question of bonus for the accounting year 1962-63 which is payable in 1963. In the present case the accounts of the firm had not been audited and therefore the presumption under section 25(1) of the Ordinance does not apply. I also did not think that it was necessary that the account of the firm should be audited and therefore I had not passed any order under section 25(2) of the Ordinance.

Now, the first item is the amount of gross profits as shown in the profit and loss account (Ext. E) and in the basis for calculating the account (Ext. D) the same is Rs. 1,18,640. As I have mentioned earlier, the amount is the income from three sources, viz., the sale proceeds of the goods produced in the factory of the firm, the sale proceeds of certain goods produced in some other factory by other workmen, and the sale proceeds of certain articles of goods purchased in the market by the firm. As I have mentioned earlier also, there is some dispute regarding the proportions of these figures to the total amount. In Ext. D, the share of the Karkhana or factory of the firm is shown to be Rs. 31,040; the share of the goods manufactured in some other factory is shown to be Rs. 62,110 and the share of the sale purchase business is shown to be

Rs. 25,500. These figures make up the total of Rs. 1,18,640. It appears to me that there is no basis for calculation of the share of goods produced outside the factory and that the share of the sale purchase business is roughly about one-fouth of the total volume of business in the particular year in question. It is quite evident that the profits representing the sale purchase business cannot tbe taken into account. Therefore, the sum of Rs. 25,500 should be deducted from the gross profits. It is also evident that the workmen of the firm who are working in the factory of the firm cannot participate in the profits in respect of sale of goods prepared outside the factory, but as I have indicated above, the exact proportion cannot be ascertained even on the basis of the entries made in the Khatas which have been produced by the employer (Ext. A to A-3 and B). In the absence of such evidence, I think the only fair thing to do is to divide the amount into half and half. Therefore, the gross profits come to the figure 46,570. I may state here that I do not accept the evidence regarding disrtribution as given by O. P. W. 1 who is the accountant of the firm. It may also be stated here that there was no dispute between the parties that the actual net profit was Rs. 40,719 calculating on the basis which I have indicated above. The net profit would be Rs. 15,269.60 paise, but in accordance with the provisions of the Ordinance, I have to proceed on the basis of the gross profits and I have to give some deductions from the gross profits. The first deduction is with regard to the depreciation. The learned Advocate appearing for the firm had admitted that there was no evidence regarding the depreciation and also unable to ascertain on the basis of the evidence as to what the depreciation admissible under section 32(1) of the Income-tax for the year 1962-63, would be. Therefore, I am unable to give any deduction on this head. Similarly I am also unable to give any deduction by way of development rebate or development allowance which the employer is entitled to deduct from its income under the Indian Income-tax Act. I may state here that though the hearing was concluded before the Ordinance was promulgated, I had heard afterwards Shri Sen appearing for the employer later and Shri Sen did not not make any further submission regarding this question. The firm, however, is certainly entitled to deduct from gross profits the Income-tax payable for the year 1962-63. The parties are agreed that for that year, the total sum of Rs.3,252 was payable as Income-tax by the employer. Therefore, this sum is to be deducted. The balance therefore is Rs. 43,318. The next item is the interest which the employer is entitled to deduct regarding the capital investment. There was some argument previously as to whether 6%or 8 1/2%interest should be allowed on the invested capital. It is unnecessary to refer the Supreme Court rulings on this point. It would be sufficient to say that their Lordships of the Supreme Court had laiddown that interest higher than 6%maybe allowed in case of risky ventures and that normally 6%interest should be allowed on the capital. It has been provided in the Ordinance, as mentioned above, that the interest on the capital investment should be 8 1/2%. Calculated at that rate on the capital of Rs 95,440.85 paise, the amount would be Rs. 8,112. The balance would be Rs. 35,206. Shri Banerjee appearing for the workmen, however, had pointed out that out of the invested capital of Rs. 95,440, the partners had withdrawn or taken out a sum of Rs. 32,293 in that year and therefore, the interest can only be granted on the balance of Rs. 63,147. I am unable to agree with the learned lawyer for the workmen. It is true that some amount had been withdrawn by the partners during the year in question, but as partners of the business they had the right to get certain amount out of the total income of the firm during the year. I do not think, this is really a question of reducing the total capital invested by the partners in the business. It rather appears that it is atemporary withdrawal by some of the partners. I therefore think that interest should be allowed on the total invested capital of Rs. 95,440. Shri Sen, however, had submitted that there was a loan capital of Rs. 15,000. It would appear that amongst the expenditure shown is the payment of interest of Rs. 1,350. This is certainly admissible deduction, as this is an expenditure made for the purpose of earning profits but I do not think the employer is entitled to get interest on the loan capital. There is no such provision in the Ordinance. It also appears to me that there is no such provision in the previous law. Therefore, I refuse that prayer of the learned lawyer for the employer. The last item is with regard to the remuneration of the four partners who are alleged to be working. On this point, there is the evidence of O. P. W. 3 Shri Prasanta Dalal. There is no contrary evidence on the side of the workmen. Therefore, it must be accepted that at least four of the partners had been taking part in the conduct of the business of the firm. However, as only one of the partners is looking after the production of the factory of the firm, I think that only 25·/. should be allowed to him and not to the other partners, who are looking after the establishment of the business. Therefore, the sum of Rs. 11,642.50 is to be deducted from the gross profits. The balance left is Rs. 23,553·50 paise. The total wage of the workmen of the factory for the whole year of the firm is Rs. 27,129 which the workmen are entitled to get. The allocable surplus therefore is Rs. 14,132.10 paise. The allocable surplus therefore is more than 20·/. of the total wage of the workmen of the factory in accordance with the provision of section 11 of the Ordinance. The workmen are only entitled to get 20·/. of the total wage i.e. to say a sum of Rs. 5,425.80 paise. Under section 17(a) of the Ordinance, the amount paid as Puja bonus for the accounting year 1962-63 will have to be deducted from the amount of bonus as found by me and the balance of Rs. 1,886.80 paise will have to be paid to all the workers of the factory as bonus for the accounting year 1962-63 which is payable in 1963.

I have therefore come to the conclusion that this is the amount which the workmen of the factory of Wooma Charan Karmakar are entitled to get as bonus for the accounting year 1962-63 which is payable in 1963. The said sum will be paid within a month of the publication of the award in the official gazette. This is my award.

General concession in age

(1) (a) For political sufferers: A candidate who before 15th August 1947 was detained, imprisoned, interned or externed on account of his/her activities in connection with the country's struggle for independence, not being convicted of an offence indicating moral turpitude, shall be entitled to a concession in respect of the upper age limit. The concession granted will be equal to the exact period of detention, imprisonment, internment or externment suffered up to a maximum of four years.

(b) For Scheduled Caste/Tribe candidates: The upper age limit is relaxable by five years for candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes.

Fixation of Pay

(2) (a) For persons already in permanent Government service: If a permanent Government servant is permitted to apply and is selected for a post in open competition with outsiders, the initial pay will be fixed under rule 42 or 55 of the West Bengal Service Rules, Part I, as the case may be. If, however, such a recruit is prepared to resign his appointment under Government, before applying he will be eligible to the grant of higher initial pay on the same basis as an outsider.

(b) For a temporary Government servant having no lien on any post under the West Bengal Government when appointed to a post carrying higher scale of pay: Such an officer shall be eligible to draw as initial pay at the stage of the time-scale in the higher post which is equal to his pay in the lower post, or if there is no such stage, the stage next below that pay plus personal pay equal to the difference, to be absorbed in future increments in the higher scale, provided that he has already rendered at least three years' continuous and satisfactory service in the lower post. The aforesaid benefit of fixation of pay will not, however, be available in the following cases:

(i) when the Commission has made a specific recommendation regarding the pay to be allowed to the officer;

(ii) when under any specific rule such an officer is allowed a higher initial pay.

(c) For outsiders: Unless otherwise specified in a particular advertisement higher initial pay on the basis of age, qualifications and experience (including experience outside Government service) may be allowed to a person not already in Government service, if the relevant advertisement contains a provision to that effect.

Instructions regarding submission of application

(3) Applications are to be made on the prescribed form which will be available from the office of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal, Anderson House (ground floor), Alipore, Calcutta-27, personally or on sending a large self-addressed envelope with stamps sufficient to cover the postage affixed to it. Candidates who are unable to obtain copies of the prescribed form may apply on any similar typed (not handwritten) form showing exactly the wording and spacing of the sample form published in the "Calcutta Gazette" of the 1st September 1955, provided the blanks are filled up in the candidates' own handwriting.

Particulars and certificates required

(4) Candidates should furnish evidence of their age, qualifications and previous experience together with certificates written not more than one year prior to the date of their applications, from responsible persons, testifying to their private character.

The Commission accepts only the age of a candidate as recorded in the Matriculation or the Secondary School Final/Leaving Certificate. In the case of a female candidate whose age is not recorded in the Matriculation or School Final Certificate, any of the following evidence of age is accepted by the Commission.

(1) A certificate from the Headmistress of the School, which she last attended, showing her exact age as recorded in the school register.

(2) An affidavit regarding her age sworn by her father or mother or some other person in a position to know by having been present or heard of her birth at the time of occurrence.

(3) A certificate regarding her age, from a Member of the Legislature or a gazetted officer, who must have known the candidate and her family, indicating clearly the evidence on the basis of which he/she satisfied himself/herself on the point.

Candidates in Government service should make sure before depositing fee that their applications will be forwarded by their superior officers

In no case will the fee paid with the application be refunded.

Note: A member of the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe claiming age concession must furnish with his application a certificate in original from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature belonging to the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe, specifying the particular caste or tribe to which he claims to belong.

Address

(6) Candidates should give their present address and should communicate at once any subsequent change of address.

Canvassing

(7) Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support of their applications through persons of influence or officials of Government will disqualify them for appointment. Spontaneous recommendation from persons interested in the candidates or otherwise known to them will be disregarded.

Forwarding of applications and submission of advance copies

(8) Applications from candidates who are in permanent or temporary employment under any Government, a local or Statutory Body (e.g., Damodar Valley Corporation), in India will be rejected unless they are submitted through the appointing authority of their posts or service.

Candidates serving under Government or a local or Statutory Body should submit an advance copy in the prescribed form.
